Poetry.

A FULFILLED PROMISE.

By MARGARET F. HARRIS.

Three months hence I could not see my childhood passed from me.

Doer upon the day to-day.

While I tread a troubled way.

Like some unquiet ghost.

Staying with me as I long.

So this promise comforts me.

"As thy day strength shall be."

Merely the time went on.

And the years were gone.

Then the conflict fiercer grew.

And I more of sorrow knew.

Yet, amid the stress and strain.

Of the work or pain.

Came no time but I have seen.

As my day strength shall be.

Bundled too great to bear.

Time with its long feet.

Work too high for me to do.

But for Him who helps me through.

Care could not keep me down.

These things I have seen.

But the Father speaks to me.

"As thy day strength shall be."

Ever to my heart I'll be.

That He gives for love's dear sake.

His word is true and true.

His word is true and true.

Happy am I, safe and free.

As my day strength shall be.

Do not fear to trust in Him.

Ye who walk through paths of sin.

Ye who walk through paths of sin.

Ye who walk through paths of sin.

Ye who walk through paths of sin.

Ye who walk through paths of sin.

Ye who walk through paths of sin.

Ye who walk through paths of sin.

Ye who walk through paths of sin.

Ye who walk through paths of sin.

Ye who walk through paths of sin.

Ye who walk through paths of sin.

Ye who walk through paths of sin.

Ye who walk through paths of sin.

Ye who walk through paths of sin.

Ye who walk through paths of sin.

Ye who walk through paths of sin.

Ye who walk through paths of sin.

Ye who walk through paths of sin.

Ye who walk through paths of sin.

Ye who walk through paths of sin.

Ye who walk through paths of sin.

Ye who walk through paths of sin.

Ye who walk through paths of sin.

Ye who walk through paths of sin.

Ye who walk through paths of sin.

Ye who walk through paths of sin.

Ye who walk through paths of sin.

Ye who walk through paths of sin.

Ye who walk through paths of sin.

Ye who walk through paths of sin.

Ye who walk through paths of sin.

Ye who walk through paths of sin.

Ye who walk through paths of sin.

Ye who walk through paths of sin.

Ye who walk through paths of sin.

Ye who walk through paths of sin.

Ye who walk through paths of sin.

Ye who walk through paths of sin.

Ye who walk through paths of sin.

Ye who walk through paths of sin.

Ye who walk through paths of sin.

Ye who walk through paths of sin.

Ye who walk through paths of sin.

Ye who walk through paths of sin.

Ye who walk through paths of sin.

Ye who walk through paths of sin.

Ye who walk through paths of sin.

Ye who walk through paths of sin.

Ye who walk through paths of sin.

Ye who walk through paths of sin.

Ye who walk through paths of sin.

Ye who walk through paths of sin.

Ye who walk through paths of sin.

Ye who walk through paths of sin.

Ye who walk through paths of sin.

Ye who walk through paths of sin.

THE OLD SLEIGH.

By MARGARET F. HARRIS.

Elizabeth, my dear, my dear, my dear,

Thou art the one I love and prize.

Thou art the one I love and prize.
