THURSDAY, APRIL 12, 1888.

MANY MINOR LOCALS

Collated by the Ever Thoughtful and Alert Free Press Reporters.

—Local sports are falling into line.

—Builders are rushing their business.

—Brampton spring show on the 27th.

—Council meeting next Monday evening.

—Aurora's debenture debt is over $40,000.

—Milton band serenaded the citizens on Good Friday.

—Mr. Edw. Dyer is enlarging his house on Church Street.

—Moving day seems to have arrived with many of our citizens.

—The Dominion Hotel is undergoing repairs and renovations.

—Brampton now glories in the possession of a real live Chinese laundry.

—The temperance hall at Cawkwell's Corners is offered for sale by tender.

—The inevitable April showers have come again. May flowers will follow.

—In all probability the stores in town will be closed this summer at 7 o'clock p.m.

—The annual session of Halton Teachers' Association opens at Milton this morning.

—Remember Mr. Adam Cook's sale of lots in Fairview Place on Saturday afternoon.

—Rev. Mr. Boyd, of Toronto, preached in the Methodist Church Sunday morning and evening.

—Clean up your back yards! The sanitary inspector will soon be out on his professional calls.

—Milton is following Acton's example and is also levying a fine of 10 per cent. on all unpaid taxes.

—Rev. A. F. Kirkpatrick has resigned his charge of the Attilbergher church, in the Scotch Block.

—Mrs. Geo. Matthews, of Toronto, has sold her property on Main Street, to H. B. Johnson, for $700.

—There's just about enough snow left now in isolated places to serve for cooling maple taffy at the "sugar pulls."

—The young men in town are forming an Athletic Association, which will embrace lacrosse, lacrosse and other clubs.

—Mr. Wm. Henstreet has purchased the property at the corner of Main and River streets from the James Conley estate.

Lost.—A black rubber "Paul Et Wirt" fountain pen. Finder will be suitably rewarded by leaving at the Free Press office.

—The Brampton Times last week celebrated its 35th birthday. The Times is a live local newspaper and a factor in Brampton's progress.

—On his 60th birthday Mr. Jas. White, of the 1st concession of Nassagaweya, chopped, split and piled one cord of cordwood in four hours.

—The plant of the Drayton Liberty has been removed to Erin, to take the place of the Advocate, recently destroyed by fire. T. C. Dean has again gone to Drayton to publish it.

—The business of the Federal Bank in Guelph was finally closed on Saturday last. The bills of the Bank will be redeemed by the other banks until all are called in.

—Burlington is now going into the cemetery business. It is to be hoped they will succeed with less annoyance and loss of time and money than has been Acton's experience.

—A number of our citizens went to Guelph last Thursday evening to hear Hrs. Bengough-Siddons. They were well repaid for their visit. Mrs. Siddons' entertainment was one of high literary merit.

—The congregation of Knox Presbyterian church, Milton, is still without a pastor. Rev. J. Young, M.A., Niagara Falls, has received a call, but has not yet replied whether he will accept the same.—Sun.

—We are indebted for a copy of the St. Paul Carnival Herald to a friend, whom we suspect is Mr. Judson Cook. St. Paul has evidently had a big time judging from the colored illustrations contained in the number.

—The Acton Free Press has added to their already well equipped office a new power press and new type. The Free Press is the brightest and best town journal on our exchange list.—Mitchell Advocate.

—The advertisement in last issue announcing the mortgage sale of the west half of lot 2, con. 3, Erin, should have read Saturday, April 21st, 1888. It will take place at Agnew's hotel on that day at two o'clock.

—The first page of next issue of the Free Press will be devoted to a review of Acton and its business and mercantile interests. Business men desiring special reference to their businesses will please advise us not later than Friday evening.

—The village of Paisley has discovered that the 95-to1 vote for water-works is insufficient. The ratepayers recently opened bids for about $2,000 more to complete the work, and the Council is in a dilemma as the debentures voted have been issued and sold.

—The Streetsville Review says:—A. B. Wright of Acton blows his own horn in great shape in regard to his ability to discuss Commercial Union, in a letter to the Free Press last week. All right, Alex., my boy, we'll meet at Philippi some time; and don't forget the Union.

—The Drayton Liberty and the Harriston Advertiser have given up the ghost during the past month, and yet men who do not know a printing press from a marlin spike will go on investing money in new papers because they think (sink) "there's millions in it."—Palmerston Telegraph.

—In a reported interview Dr. Talmage was asked: "What is your ideal of a newspaper?" And he answered: "One that puts vice in nonpareil and virtue in great primer." The eloquent brother is wrong here. To put vice in nonpareil type only makes room for more of it.

—The Acton Free Press is perhaps the neatest and certainly one of the best local papers published in the Dominion, and still Mr. Moore, the enterprising and genial proprietor, is determined to advance. He has put in a fine new power press and a quantity of new type recently. Nothing succeeds like success, and Mr. Moore richly deserves the great success which he has attained.—Marmora Standard.

HOME GLEANINGS

Which are Mostly of a Local Character and All Interesting.

What it Costs.

As per the statement of the returning officer just published the recent House of Commons election in this County cost Mr. Henderson $374.33 and Mr. McLeod $308.67 for election expenses.

What the Children Gave.

Last Sunday the children of the Sunday School of Grace Church here put $14 into the offertory and those of St. Stephen's Church, Hornby, handed in $12. The money had been saved during Lent by the children and will be sent to Gravenhurst to help to build a new Anglican church there to replace the one which was burnt in last year's great fire.—Champion.

Only Cowards will Shoot Robins.

The Hamilton Spectator complains that already, so early in the season, the robins are being butchered in the valleys and upon the hills of that picturesque district by young men and boys of barbarous breed. Probably the same evil prevails to a greater or less extent in most other sections of the country, too. The human being who has so little music in his soul and so little tenderness in his heart as to shoot the most lovable of our song birds ought to be punished with many stripes.

The Best are the Cheapest.

The above is as true as—twice two are four, provided you can get the best at a moderate price. The best will last the longest; the best are generally known because they have the best reputation. Every patent that buys or sells should have the best scale. They can be secured at C. Wilgess & Son's Scale Works, 50 Esplanade St. East, Toronto. Their reputation for making the most reliable scales is a known fact beyond dispute, and bottom prices are given for any capacity of scale required—from a letter scale to a fifty tons railroad track scale.

Real Estate on the Move.

At W. E. Smith's sale of lots last Saturday the desire for property in this new survey was very encouraging. The following lots were sold:—On east side Park Avenue, No. 23, to John Pietch for $75; No. 23, to John Carr for $100; No. 24, to James McTavish for $90; No 25, to Thomas Easton for $95. On west side, No 10, to H. H. Hayden for $81; No. 26, to John P. Worden for $80; No. 21, to John Harvey for $71. On Lake Avenue, No. 1, to Wm. Leigh for $81; Nos. 2 and 3 to Thomas Easton for $85 and $77. Building operations will commence there at once.

Early Closing of Stores.

A petition is being circulated among the merchants and others in town requesting the Council to pass a by-law bringing into effect the recently enacted act "To regulate the closing of shops." The hour asked to be adopted is seven o'clock p.m. The Act requires that the petition be signed by not less than three-fourths of the occupiers of shops within the municipality, and we understand that more than that number have already been obtained. The merchants of Milton and Georgetown are also acting in the same matter and are desirous that the closing of shops at seven o'clock be made a county arrangement.

Honor Roll, Pine Grove, Nassagaweya.

The following is the standing of Pine Grove School, Nassagaweya for March:—The names are arranged in order of merit. Class iv.—A. Crawford, S. J. Donaldson, Annie Storey. Sr. Class iii.—Alex. McPhedran, Ruth Dredge, G. McLarty. Jr. Class iii.—Emma McGlaughlin, John Kennedy, Henry Sayers. Class ii.—Frank Sayers, Sam Frank, Maggie Dredge. Class i. pt. ii.—Jas. Morton, Sophia Frank, John McLeod. Class i. pt. i.—Harry Sayers, Lizzie Dredge. Attendance, total, 50; boys 25, girls 25. Aggregate attendance 735; average, 35; highest daily, 44. D. Stimpie, Teacher.

Halton Veterinary Surgeons.

The names of Messrs. Trayton F. F. Baker, Oakville; Wm. Burger, jun., Hornby; J. A. Johnstone, Trafalgar; W. H. Lindsay, Hornby and R. T. Readhead, Lowville, appear on the list of graduates of the Ontario Veterinary College, at the recent examinations. Mr. Burger won the gold medal presented by the Toronto Industrial Exhibition Association for proficiency in dissection; and the silver medal for proficiency in anatomy. There were only five medals presented altogether, and Mr. Burger's performance in carrying off two of them places him at the head of the 125 graduates. Good for Halton.

Rev. Mr. Rae at Georgetown.

Rev. Mr. Rae was one of the speakers at a temperance meeting in Georgetown last week. The Herald says:—Rev. J. W. Rae of Acton, spoke on "The Claims of the Sons of Temperance." The address was listened to attentively. Mr. Rae, who is an able man on the platform, set before the audience the claims of the order in a way that Georgetown people have seldom if ever, had them presented. He spoke of the moral and business culture young people who joined the society received. He had been a member since he was fourteen years of age, and was always thankful for uniting with the order. He spoke of the dangers of intemperance and dealt convincingly with the personal liberty question. Rev. Mr. Rae is a strong prohibitionist and is one of its able advocates.

A Long Journey Safely Ended.

A private letter to the editor of the Free Press, dated Calcutta, India, February 23rd, contains the information that Rev. F. W. Warne, who left here for Calcutta last December, with his family has arrived safely at his destination. He was welcomed by hundreds to his new charge at Dharumtollah St. Methodist Church, in above far away city. Mr. W. P. Byers, the writer of the letter, formerly of the Milton Sun, but now publisher of the Methodist Observer, Calcutta, says:—"Have no fears for your friend, Bro. Warne. He comes to the best and most spiritual church in India. He has created a very favorable impression, and I am sure we shall all love him dearly. His wife is also much beloved." The many friends in this vicinity of Rev. Mr. Warne will be pleased to hear of his safe arrival in his eastern home, and that he has been heartily welcomed by the people there.

Trout Fishing—Next Month.

The editors of the Galt Reporter are not only jolly fellows, but are enthusiastic anglers. Here is a bit of their exuberance let loose in last issue: We're just about boiling over to tell our readers that there's only one month to-morrow between us and trout fishing, but be hanged if we'll do it! There's such a gang of creek hunters got about us that a quiet-going chap like an editor has no chance if all the world knows as much as he does. So we'll just keep what we know to ourselves—make our preparations quietly but completely—and if we are missed from the busy haunts of men on Tuesday, 1st of May, we may be found sitting on a log in Paddock's swamp, cutting our boots to let the mud and water out, and pulling a cork to let something drain! This will be about 3 o'clock in the afternoon, and our basket will be so full of trout that we wouldn't take another one even if we could! If any reader doubts this yarn, let him meet us at the spot indicated and see for himself.

PERSONAL MENTION

Paragraphs Respecting Visitors to and From Acton, With Whom Free Press Readers Are More or Less Acquainted.

Mr. A. E. Slater, of Guelph, visited Acton friends over Sunday.

Mr. P. Kelly, of Galt, made his Acton friends a short visit this week.

Mr. R. D. Warren, editor of the Herald, Georgetown, was in town last Thursday.

Mr. Ed. Hemstreet, of Aylmer, was home for a short visit last week. He looks well.

Mr. J. A. Tracy, of Georgetown, was a caller at the Free Press office on Saturday.

Misses Augusta and Maggie Nicklin, and Minnie Swan visited Guelph friends this week.

Mrs. C. Augusta Secord spent several days during the week with friends at Hamilton.

Miss Maggie Matthews left on Tuesday to spend a couple of weeks with friends at Shelburne.

Mr. Alf. Easton, who has been relieving the Agent of the C. P. R. Telegraph Co., at Guelph for several weeks is now at home on a visit.

Mrs. B. W. Nicklin has given up housekeeping, rented her residence and is now residing with her mother at Maple Grove Farm.

We are pleased to notice that Mr. George Clark, who for nearly two months has been suffering from very severe affection of the knee, is able to be about again.

Mrs. Abram Matthews and Mrs. M. Christie, who for the past year or so have been visiting friends in Nebraska, Illinois, Missouri and Minnesota, returned home last week.

Mr. Matthew Kenney, who some years ago removed to Milton, is about to return to Acton. Acton has always had peculiar charms for Mat. and being a first-class workman there is always a job here for him.

The Free Press had a pleasant call last Friday from Mr. C. B. Orr, late editor and publisher of the Oakville Star. Mr. Orr is now engaged as advertising agent for the Globe and is meeting with unusual success.

Mrs. J. W. Rae, Mrs. D. Henderson, Mrs. C. S. Smith, Mrs. Levi Lambert, Mrs. James Cobban and Miss Anderson, were delegates to the Womens' Foreign Missionary Convention at Guelph this week. About 500 delegates were present.

—Charles VanAllan and Elo Copeland were fined $4 and costs each, on Thursday for disturbing the Salvation Army.—Georgetown Herald.

LIMEHOUSE NEWS.

From our own Correspondent.

Mr. Robert Parsons spent Sunday at home.

Mr. Walters of the firm of Britnell & Walters, stone dealers, Toronto, was in town on Saturday.

Mr. John Newton, Jr., spent a couple of days in Toronto last week.

Mr. H. Crawshaw has received a $400 order from Stratford for stone. He has Messrs. Irvine and Robinson employed in dressing them.

One of our citizens (Donald) while proceeding down the railway track to Georgetown with a large sum of money on his person, says he was chased by an ugly looking tramp; but, being able to run faster than the supposed tramp he managed to get away. It was found out afterwards that the tramp was one of the young men of our village.

Mr. Patterson, of Georgetown, and Miss Dobbie, of Limehouse, were united in the bonds of matrimony at Brampton on Tuesday of last week. The young couple have the best wishes of this village.

There are an unusual number of tramps passing through our village this spring.

Some of our citizens have been complaining about the crowd of young people that throng into the Acton station; girls, between the ages of twelve and fifteen will go in there and utilize the seats that are intended for passengers; and they will sit and see old men and women stand. If there is anything that is disgusting, it is for young people to sit, while aged people are standing. We hope the station agent will put a stop to it.

Mr. Jas. Newton left on Monday morning for a trip to Ottawa and Montreal.

NASSAGAWEYA NEWS.

From Our Own Correspondent.

Mr. Felix Devlin, who had a sale of farm stock and implements on Wednesday, 4th inst., has bought the C.P.R. Hotel, Campbellville, and intends moving into it soon.

The revival meetings, held in the Methodist church, Campbellville and conducted by the junior members of the Ebenezer church have been discontinued.

Miss Nettie McKinnon, Brookville, formerly of Toronto, has returned to the city for the summer.

Business being dull in Brookville at present, the dressmakers, Misses Campbell and McTaggart, have removed to Toronto for a few months.

The Brookville Mutual Improvement Association closed for the season on Friday evening. A more interesting programme than usual was rendered by several members of the society assisted by Mr. W. King, Niagara. The society has not been so successful this winter as last year. The novelty of the affair appears to have worn off. However, all seem satisfied that these meetings have on the whole been beneficial and they will no doubt be resumed and carried on enthusiastically as soon as the busy season is over.

On the evening of good Friday a few friends with the pastor of the Methodist church met at the residence of Mr. G. Easterbrook, Nassagaweya, to express in a practical manner the sympathy of those who desired to help him a little on account of the heavy loss he has suffered by the burning of his barn and its contents last harvest, just a few days before the threshing was to have been done. Rev. W. Bicks after a few remarks made the presentation of a sum of money contributed chiefly by those who cannot render assistance in rebuilding or obtaining material.
