HOME GLEANINGS
Which are Mostly of a Local Character and All Interesting.

Broken Beds.
Last Saturday while getting on a load of flour at Stewart's Mr. Thomas Statham, Baker, slipped off his wagon and fell to the ground fracturing one of his ribs. He feels pretty sore yet as a result of his tumble.

Arbor Day for the Public Schools.

Acton Spring Show.
As previously announced Acton spring station show will be held in the Exhibition Park here next Tuesday. The prospects are good for a successful show. The demand for stalls at the various public places in town already exceeds their capacity. Judging will commence at one o'clock sharp.

P. O. Savings Bank for Rockwood.
Some weeks ago a number of Rockwood citizens sent a memorial to the Postmaster General, praying that a branch of the P. O. Savings Bank be established in that village. Mr. James M. P. presided at the meeting at the residence of the Postmaster General, and by informing them those letters are written by the Devil. It would appear from this that the Evil One has been one of the rotting log business and feared the result of the letter.—Rockwood Correspondent of the Guelph Mercury.

Barry Burned an Emigrant.
On Friday morning the barn building on the back farm of Mr. Joseph Croft, Emigrants, were burned to the ground. The cause of the fire is unknown and as yet it has been impossible to ascertain the loss. The building was insured in the Wellington Mutual for $500. It is thought that at this time of the year there would be a small quantity of grain in the building, but there is a possibility of a considerable destruction of stock and implements, if they had not been got out in time.

Constables Must Serve Scott Act Papers.
Some time ago the temperance people of Erin and members of the village council, especially the Hevys, had a dispute with the village constable, who is also a county constable, should serve Scott Act papers. Each party applied to the County Attorney as an independent and proper authority to give the required information. The opinion of the temperance people, that the village constable is the proper person to serve all papers, whether Scott Act or other, has been fully endorsed by both Mr. Patterson and Mayor Macdonald, whose opinion was also asked.—Guelph Mercury.

Crossed Locomotive Club.
At a meeting of those interested in locomotive held at Agnew's Hotel on Tuesday evening, the Crossed Locomotive Club was formally organized as follows:

Curious Ancient Coins.

Mr. Archibald Campbell of this place is the recipient from a member of the Archaeological Society of New York of a couple of ancient coins of enormous value. One is the coin of Philip the First, who was born 264 A.D.; another emperor is 221 and was killed in 249 A.D. The coin shows on one side the head of the emperor and on the other side a mounted warrior. The other belongs to the time of Constantine the Great, who was born 274 A.D.; named Caesar in 306; made emperor in 324 and died in 337 A.D. It was found at Constantinople, then known as Byzantium. One side gives a profile of the king and the reverse shows a Roman soldier standing over an enemy.

C. U. and the Streetsville Review Man.
Mr. Form, Dear Sir:—I see by last week's Review that the editor has been extending his researches far into the history of our country. Allow me to congratulate him on his successful discovery of the C. U. Union. When we meet at Nassau to celebrate St. David's day, like an ancient Briton I will address him with a scallion in my hat, as a symbol of friendship. Then we will sing: "Free Commerce with the world's best." A due reward awaits the farmer's old, happy possessor of a fertile soil.

These lines were composed by old John Bennett of Guelph, Thomas, who said, lettuce, turnip, beet the Onion.—A. B. WENT.
Sale of Lots at Lakeview Place.

Graham, lot 4 for $25; A. Lashby, lot 21 for $25 and lot 16 for $30. In block D, J. B. Pearson, lots 3, 4 and 5 for $28 each; lot 2 for $21. In block P, J. B. "LITERATURE"
Literature, an Illustrated Weekly Magazine ($1.00 a year), has certainly successfully taken the field as the popular literary journal of America. Its great variety of contents, handy form, and choice illustrations, make it exceedingly attractive. Formerly American authors and readers have been disappointed. Mr. Susan E. Wallis, wife of the author of "Dan Her," and quite as charming a writer as her husband, has papers in two current issues on "The Poetry and Music of Arabia." For a specimen copy (free), address John B. Alden, Publisher, 828 Pearl St., New York; P. O. Box 1327.

—Gentlemen kindly call and examine Kelly Bros. spring suitings and vestings. Saturday, 21st April.—Sale of household furniture, the property of Mrs. Adam Dickson, as her residence, 101 St. James Street, on 19th April, at 10 o'clock.—Wm. Macpherson, Auctioneer.

THE SCOTT ACT.
The repeal of the Scott Act will be voted upon in Essex, Bruce, Norfolk, Dufferin, Simcoe, Renfrew, Dundas, Stormont and Glengarry to-day, when the electors of those counties will render their verdict for or against the measure. The result of the voting will be a matter of deep interest to the country.

HARPER'S MAGAZINE.
Harper's Magazine for May is another proof of the determination of its conductors that in all respects it shall lead the other monthlies. One after one the names of the principal magazine writers of to-day greet the eye as the pages are slowly turned over. In each article work of artist and engraver. Neither in variety nor excellence will this number be easily surpassed. The frontispiece is a portrait of Kinglake, the historian, and is of especial interest now that his work of thirty years, "The Invasion of the Crimea," has just been reissued.

FOOD TESTS IN NEW YORK.
Official Analysis of Baking Powders—Adulterants in Cream of Tartar.

Under the direction of the New York State Board of Health, eighty-four kinds of baking powders, embracing all the brands that could be found for sale in the State, were submitted to examination and analysis by Prof. C. M. Chandler, a member of the State Board of Health, and by Prof. Edward G. Love, the well-known United States Government chemist.

The official report shows that a large number of the powders examined were found to contain alum or lime; many of them to such an extent as to render them seriously objectionable for use in the preparation of human food.

Alum was found in twenty-nine samples. This drug is employed in baking powders to cheapen their cost. The presence of lime is attributed to the impure cream of tartar of commerce used in their manufacture. Such cream of tartar was also analyzed and found to contain lime and other impurities, in some samples to the extent of 85 per cent. of its entire weight.

The only baking powder found to be free from lime and phosphate impurities, which have not the virtue of even an impure cream of tartar, are made from the adulterated cream of tartar of commerce, and consequently contain lime to a corresponding extent.

The only baking powder set found by chemical analysis to be entirely free from lime and phosphate impurities is the "Royal." This perfect purity is due to the exclusive use of cream of tartar, specially refined and prepared by latest processes which totally remove the tartrate of lime and other impurities. The cream of tartar is chemically pure cream of tartar, is much greater than any other, and contains the greatest percentage of tartaric acid.

It is highly satisfactory to the housekeeper of this vicinity, where the Royal Baking Powder is in general use, that the information by the analysis in Massachusetts, New York, and Ohio, the only States that have taken action upon the important subject, agree in classifying it as the purest and most efficient baking powder in the market.

Children cry for Pitcher's Castoria.
When Baby was sick we gave her Castoria. When she was a child, she cried for Castoria. When she was a girl, she asked for Castoria. When she was married, she gave them Castoria.

Head the following expressions of opinion—
ALBANY, N.Y.
John R. Clarke has learned the secret of the human soul.—Albany Argus.
BAY CITY, MICH.
Nothing like him since Gough was here: 800 people heard him. It is a series of brilliant transitions from beginning to end.—Bay City Tribune.

HAMILTON, ONT.
"To and Fro in London" is free and easy, witty and very eloquent at times. Clarke is a witty, keen student of human nature.—Hamilton Times.

ROCHESTER, N.Y.
Rev. Dr. Cutting, of Rochester, N. Y., says: "I want to say to you, unqualifiedly, that your 'To and Fro in London,' so full of wit, humor and instruction, ought to be introduced to the best audiences all over the country. I have traveled all over the country you vividly describe, and I know how often why it should not be put beside Mr. Gough's best efforts in our best lecture courses."

ST. CATHARINES, ONT.
"This is the fifth time I have been called upon to deliver 'To and Fro in London' in America," says John R. Clarke's opinion since last evening in the Welland Ave. Church. Before the entertainment was concluded, the audience was fully satisfied that this great effort was worthy of frequent repetition. For over two hours he held the great attention of his hearers, as he discoursed eloquently on some and the ground you vividly describe, and I know how often why it should not be put beside Mr. Gough's best efforts in our best lecture courses."

LIMA, N.Y.
Principal Williams, Lima Seminary, N. Y., says: "The effort—'To and Fro in London'—given by John R. Clarke in the College Hall, on Friday evening last, before the faculty and students and citizens of Lima, was one of the most satisfactory ever held in this city. For pathos and humor alike, for fine descriptive and eloquent characterization Mr. Clarke deservedly stands in the first rank. The best of it all is the pure and lofty moral tone of the speaker. It is such an effort that the audience every man, woman and child should have in his heart of eloquence."
—Lima.

TORONTO, ONT.
John R. Clarke appeared again last evening. Great audiences have greeted him. His theme was a very attractive one—"To and Fro in London." His hundred people heard him in St. Andrew's Hall. His humor, sense, eloquence and character with bits of old country life were widely enjoyed by the audience. Every man, woman and child should have in his heart of eloquence."
—Lima.

PITTSBURGH.
"Athens Church was filled last evening by people who had come to hear John R. Clarke repeat his 'To and Fro in London.' It is a very interesting effort in Song, Fun, Pathos, Dash, Descriptive Passages, Stories of Real Life, Bits of Autobiography, and the most interesting of all, a series of facts in a way to keep his audience delighted with his bright and easy effort.
