The Opinions of Patients.
Most strange visiting Acton say the tidiness and clean appearance of our streets are much to be commended, and it is pleasant for citizens to hear such remarks being made. Those included to be a little careless, by throwing waste paper and other refuse on the street, will not think of doing so in the future if this paragraph comes under their notice, we are pleased to say.

A TALE OF HORROR.
Cold Blooded Murder of a Child in East Guelph—The Victim's Story.
Guelph, June 10.—A most extraordinary case of child murder which occurred in West Guelph a few days ago, was investigated at a Magistrate's Court in Erie on Friday. The victim was a child named Emma, who was not altogether right in her mind, was confined at the General Hospital in Guelph. Considerable implication was cast upon the defendant, a woman named Mrs. J. H. Brown, who was charged with the murder of the child. The case was heard in the presence of a large number of witnesses, and the defendant was found guilty of the murder. She was sentenced to the penitentiary for a term of years.

Wool
The evidence given by the defendant in the case of the child murder, was a most extraordinary one. She claimed that she was not the murderer of the child, but that she was only a witness to the crime. She stated that she had seen the child being taken to the river, and that she had seen the child being thrown into the water. She stated that she had seen the child being taken to the river, and that she had seen the child being thrown into the water. She stated that she had seen the child being taken to the river, and that she had seen the child being thrown into the water.
