New Equipment. Last season Actou Cornet Baud devoted their exergies to securing and paying for a handsome uniform. This summer the effort is to replace a number of instruments which have seen their best days. To this end the committee has just purchased a new second Bass for $45: a Bb tenor Trombone for $32, and an Eb Cornet for $32, A new first Bass and several other instruments are desirable and the Band is prepared to receive donations from citizens or others to assist them in their object. For nearly five years the Band has refrained rom asking any donation from the Council while other places allow the local Band an annual grant : our Band can consequently look with greater expectancy for help from the general public. Another Esteemed Pastor Resigns.

The members of the Congregational Church; at Church Hill, about two miles from Acton, are grieved at the conclusion of Rev. Mr. Richardson to bid them adieu as their pastor. His resignation has been tendered and his farewell sermon will be presched next Sunday afternoon at Mr. Richardson has been the very accept--The farmers throughout this county | ible pastor of this church. We understand that Mr. Richardson leaves shortly for Australia. We trust God's blessing will follow him to that distant shore:

> A Successful Lawn Social. The garden party at Cedar Creek Farm, he! residence of Mr. John Warren, Friday vening, under the auspices of the Baptist Church, was an unqualified success. The regiher was very agreeable, bright moon light adding to the general attractions. A liberal number of teams engaged in transfering the visitors over to the scene of it terest, and as a result a liberal attendance was secured. The spacious grounds were brilliantly illuminated with Chinese lanterns. A samptages tes was served. The Band played a large number of selections in their own excellent style, and Rev. Mr.

Walton sang several solos which called forth repeated encore. The proceeds amounted to $56.00. The Committee was somewhat disappointed at the absence of the Misses Orr of Georgetown who were expected to assist in the entertainment. A Horse Thief Sentenced. A year ago W. W.
