It is high time for Acton to make a similar move.

A ruffle of ill feeling has been caused among local politicians owing to the rumored "boycott" by one or two firms of another establishment, whose head voted in opposition to the others' wishes. Considerable business has heretofore been transacted between the firms interested. The general public is of the opinion that it would be better to allow political feelings to subside with the election contest.

We have just received the following letter from our resident buyer in Clasgow. J. D. WILLIAMSON & CO.

Glasgow, Aug. 17th, 1888; MESSES. J. D. WILLIAMSON & Co. Guelph, Ont.

OF GUELPH,

DEAR SIR: -I have just returned from a trip to the Continent in your interest and have succeeded in completing your order for French Dress Goods, Silks, Satins and Trimmings. 'I secured some of the most exquisite Suit Patterns in French Dress Goods ranging from 40 to 75 Frances which are marvels of beauty.

I also bought some novelties in the way of Buttons and Trimmings such as other houses in your city will not have as they are not in the English Market.

I visited a number of German Manufacturers and purchased a full range, of Mantles and Fur Goods. On my return Hisited London and completed your order In Leeds I purchased a large line of Tweeds and Cloths and also a job lot of Dress Goods which I cleared at 15s. in the £. If there are more than you can handle you can no doubt sell a portion of them to other Merchants in Guelph.

On Monday I shall run over to Belfast for a week and complete your Linen order as there are many lines I can get better there than in Manchester.

I was glad to hear of your good season's trade and hope it will continue, you cannot fail to do a good business this fall with the splendid values you will have.

Yours very faithfully, D. WILLIAMSON.
