Postery.
Come and gather round, my friends!
We'll sing a vintage song
Sing it, spirits that will start the cause
Sing it, as we roam about in fifty thousand strong
While we are waiting for temperance.

I don't care if you are sick. It's good enough for you.
I had nothing to say. All my accents, tied up with blue strings, were stored away when I could not reach them.

Postery.
I don't think that I was near, say that I was losing my mind. He was wrong.
I had too much of my mind. I wrote a book and sent him the "Caucasian."
It was a dry, rather than a volume of sentiment, but the people bought it. How surprised I was. Why do you people like to read lines of sadness, why does the gladly of the withered flower?
I don't know.
