NOTES AND COMMENTS.

Stratford is booming. The new assessment shows an increase in the value of taxable property over last year of $1,377,430, the total present value being put at $4,133,430, as compared with $2,735,040 last year.

A gentleman, now a resident of Monck County, who lived in Halton some years ago, when the Dominion voters' list was made up, and who went there to vote and did vote at the late election, says the young men of that county are beginning to fear they will be too old to vote before the next voters' list is revised.—Welland Tribune. Hear! hear!

At a recent meeting of the Halton License Commissioners, among the regulations then passed was that no liquor shall be supplied to any person under the age of 21 years in any licensed tavern, and the barrooms must close at 10.30 p.m., except on Saturday, when they close at 7 p.m.

Sir John Rose, who died in London, England, one day last week, fought his way up unaided from a Canadian school-teachership into a Cabinet office and thence to practically the head of the great banking institution. Had he stayed in the political arena of Canada he would doubtless have been one of Sir John Macdonald's most able advisers.—Huron Record.

Lord Stanley, our new Governor-General, made his first visit to the western section of Ontario on Monday. His reception at Toronto was most enthusiastic, and his affable manner seems to have pleased all classes of people. No less than eight addresses were presented to him on Monday and several more on Tuesday in connection with the formal opening of the exhibition. The visit of Lord Stanley has created very favorable impressions.

Up at Battleford a saloon-keeper advertises that his place is a resort for the mounted police, and that he has "good drinks." Another saloon appears to be of the concert hall sort, where beer is the principal attraction. Battleford is in the Northwest Territory, and the mounted police are supposed to arrest violators of the liquor law. There is evidently a state of affairs that will stand a little looking into, if not a good deal.

Of the crop of 1887 there were exported out of Manitoba, according to the Winnipeg Board of Trade, 7,500,000 bushels of wheat. This sold, we might venture to say, at an average price of 55 cents, and the amount realized by the province would at that price be $4,675,000. This year there will be at least 10,000,000 bushels for export and to-day the price quoted for new wheat is 87 cents a bushel; and this large amount is not taking into account the large quantities of oats, barley and other crops.

Refering to the subject of retaliation which is at present an uppermost topic, the World says:—The St. Clair Canal is not the only portion of the regular navigable channel through the Great Lakes which is in Canadian waters. The Lime Kiln crossing near Amherstburg is in Canadian waters, and from this crossing to Point au Pelee passage, the navigable channel through Lake Erie is entirely in Canadian waters. If the United States persists in stirring up these back number boundary questions, we may get back to the Ashburton deal and lop off Maine and place it where it belongs in the Dominion of Canada, and after we get the Maine boundary settled we may tackle the Oregon. We warn the United States that Canada is now taking care of her boundaries for herself and there are going to be no more treaty surrenders—not if the court knows itself.

The Scott Act has been repealed in Simcoe and Muskoka, but still they sell no liquor in Parry Sound. At that place never has liquor been sold. When Mr. Wm. Beatty sold the land on which most of the town is built, a clause in each deed provided that the sale should become void in case liquor were sold on the premises. It is pretty well admitted, however, that this precaution would not be enough to keep the traffic in liquor out of Parry Sound if it were not that public sentiment is firmly against the introduction of the saloon. It is understood, in fact, that in one ward of the town, the land is not subject to the Beatty provision, and there it was proposed by a few persons to plant saloons, but the residents protested against being made the whiskey ward, and the saloons were not opened. The town is growing and prospering splendidly without whiskey, and public sentiment holds with substantial unanimity that the wise intention of Father Beatty should still have effect, and that it is better for the morals and as well for the prosperity of the place that the saloon and the bar trade should not be introduced.—Orillia Times.

Hurled Over a Bridge.

ST. THOMAS, Sept. 11.—The large Michigan Central bridge over Kettle Creek, just to the west of the city, was the scene of another most deplorable accident this morning, whereby Henry Smith, track foreman of a portion of the St. Clair branch lost his life. Smith had been in the city last night and was returning home this morning on a track velocipede. There was a dense fog hanging over the bridge, and almost before Smith could realize his position he was struck by an engine and hurled to the ground below—a distance of 70 feet. when picked up life was extinct. He leaves a widow and large family of small children.

Burned to Death.

HAMILTON, Sept. 11.—About 8 o'clock last evening Mrs. Vernon wife of Dr. Vernon, was entering the bath room in her residence, 78 James street south, when she stumbled on a rug. The lamp fell from her hand and was dashed to pieces; the contents blazed up and caught the clothing of Mrs. Vernon who had fallen among the liquid. She was unable to do anything to save herself, and was fatally burned. She died early this morning from the effects of her injuries in great agony.

THE RATE FOR 1888.

As will be seen by the minutes of last meeting of the Municipal Council published in another column, the rate of taxation for the present year has been struck at twenty-three mills. Notwithstanding that this is the highest rate we have ever had in the municipality, and several mills higher than last year, it is an exceedingly creditable showing for the present Council, when the extent and importance of public improvements is considered. The uncontrollable expenditure has also increased this year; notably in the Public School Estimates and the County Rate.

The expenditures for the year and the rates for each are as follows:—Town Hall and Cemetery Debentures and interest, $537,—three mills; Public Schools, $1760,—nine and one mills; expenses of the Municipality, $1932.27,—ten and one half mills.

While the rate has been up as high as twenty-two mills before, the public improvements effected have never begun to approach what has been accomplished this year. The $1350 expended in macadamizing Mill street has been well spent and the work is appreciated not only by our citizens but the hundreds of farmers who do their marketing here. The bridging of the creek at Harvey's mill and cutting down and gravelling the hills at the same point at a cost of $250—one half of which was paid by Mr. Harvey—was an excellent and economical piece of work and receives general approbation. The new sidewalks and repairs; the ditching and draining; the raking and cleaning of the streets have given our little town a clean, tidy and attractive appearance, such as is enjoyed by few places of Acton's size, and has been money well spent.

Considering all the above the rate for the present year cannot be looked upon as at all unreasonable. Indeed the rate is several mills lower than citizens who have taken careful cognizance of the extent of improvements of the year anticipated it could possibly be, and the ratepayers may congratulate themselves that twenty-five mills is not the mark instead of twenty-three.

Acton's rate is really no higher than that of surrounding municipalities, many of which do not enjoy the public conveniences which we possess. The majority of those places whose rates run from 17 to 20 mills are really paying more taxes than we are, for the reason that the municipal assessments are invariably higher than that of Acton.

We have referred to this particular concerning our low assessment frequently in the past, and again call the attention of the members of the Council, and citizens generally to the importance of effecting a more uniform assessment, and one which would more closely represent the real value of the properties in the municipality. With a low assessment and a high rate a wrong impression is apt to be formed by outsiders who do not understand the circumstances in the case. Let there be a change in the direction suggested.

INCENDIARY FIRES AT DUNDALK.

Ten Thousand Dollars Worth of Property Destroyed.

DUNDALK, Sept. 10.—About 1.30 yesterday morning fire was discovered in the store owned by John Conner and occupied by James Egerton as a liquor store. Despite the efforts of the people the fire spread and soon J. D. Morgan's store and dwelling, C. H. Jewell's furniture workshop, the Banbury block, occupied by Jeweller Johnston, and James Connor's store and dwelling, were in flames. The total loss is estimated at about $10,000; partly covered by insurance. Jewell's furniture store and Banbury's store being built of brick these buildings were saved, though badly damaged at the back. The fire was undoubtedly the work of an incendiary.

"BINGEN ON THE RHINE."

(A TYPICAL PARODY.)

The editor of a newspaper lay dying in his lair, and the dew of death had gathered on his brow so calm and fair; but a printer knelt beside him as his life blood ebbed away, and asked the dying writer if he had a word to say. The doomed man murmured softly, as he grasped the printer's fist: "Well, at last the struggle's over, and I never will be missed; take a message and a token to that city man of mine, that all his wormout chestnuts he had better put in brine. There's his joke about the weather, which he's used these many years, and the gag about the fellow who is always hunting bears, and the item he's so fond of on the man who peddles books, and the chestnut based on people who go fishing at the brooks; just to save the paper's credit and cast no slurs on mine, I would ask him as a favor, just to put such gags in brine. And the lie he's fond of telling of the street-cars and the tracks, and ancient joke about the man who steps upon some tacks; and the one about some dandy who will never pay for clothes, and the one on women—its weary, goodness knows; Oh, I know I'll slumber happy in my grave beneath the vine, if the man who does the city work will put these jokes in brine. Tell the man who tends to business not to weep when I am dead, but to buy himself a club and hit the first man on the head who comes in with strings of items and requests them printed free when the regular rates are cheaper than they really ought to be. Tell the foreman when he makes up not to turn a rule for me, but to simply print an item saying that my soul is free; for I want no eulogistic taffy of that kind in mine, and I think such hoary chestnuts should be pickled well in brine. Have that gay and fresh reporter I engaged the other day, put a stop to saying 'selah,' also 'we have come to stay; and if he should say 'ye local' you must trample him in his gore, for you know I'd never allow it in the happy days of yore. And the man who comes to tell you how to run the paper well, should be greeted when he enters with a pewter chestnut bell; and you'll print the paper promptly, be the weather fair or storms, and the foreman must be careful, when he's making up the forms, that the beauty of the paper may through all the ages shine, and not be like its neighbors, only fit to put in brine." The dying writer faltered, as these simple words he spoke, and the printer knew directly that he was about to croak. So he propped him as gently as a child; but the writer's soul had wandered to the land of undefiled. And the printer sobbed a little, as he gave one last caress, and he muttered: "I must leave him, for it's time to go to press. Very few could beat him writing, for his writings were divine, and he never had to place them in a bucketful of brine."

James H. Gilmour, of T. Gilmour & Co., Wholesale Grocers, Brockville, says—I have used Tamarac Elixir for a severe cold and cough, which it immediately relieved and cured.

ROCKWOOD NEWS.

From our Own Correspondent.

Miss Hyde, daughter of Dr. Hyde of Stratford, is visiting at Mr. Pasmore's.

Jas. Forrester, painter and general store keeper, Everton, has assigned to his creditors.

A large number of our young folks took advantage of the cheap excursion to Niagara Falls from Guelph on Friday last.

Mr. Wm. Farrish has re-opened his oatmeal mill which will be a great convenience to the farmers of this neighborhood. This is one of the mills which has been rented and shut up by the oatmeal millers combine for the past year.

Some daring thieves broke into Mrs. Duffield's hotel cellar on Friday night and besides stealing a lot of preserved fruit and other eatables emptied the contents of a port wine keg, kept for private use into a couple of pails which they took with them. These sneak thieves are supposed to belong to the same gang that has been infesting Everton and neighborhood for some time.

ORANGEVILLE, Sept. 10.—E. Wilson sustained serious if not fatal injuries by a large portion of the brick ruins of the Paisley House stables toppling over on him, terribly injuring the poor fellow and breaking his legs in three places.

A Young Rascal Lashed.

BARRIE, Sept. 8.—James Glennie, a 16-year-old boy, was sentenced on Friday to receive twelve lashes for committing an indecent assault upon a little girl about six years old. He received the first six lashes to-day and will get the rest next Saturday.

Heavy Seizure of Liquor.

CHARLOTTETOWN, P. E. I., Sept. 9.—Charlottetown police officers raided the wholesale grocery store of Connoly Brothers, nephews of the recently deceased millionaire Owen Connolly, and, under recent amendments to the Scott Act, seized 160 cases, 10 casks, 180 bottles and 160 casks of liquor. This is the biggest haul ever made under the Scott Act in this part of Canada. The officers had a warrant to arrest John Connolly, but he escaped.

MANHOOD

How Lost. How Restored!

Just published, a new edition of Dr. Culverwell's Celebrated Essay on the Radical cure of Spermatorrhœa or incapacity induced by excess or early indiscretion.

The celebrated author, in this admirable essay, clearly demonstrates from a thirty years' successful practice, that the alarming consequences of early error may be radically cured: pointing out a mode of cure at once simple, certain and effectual, by means of which every sufferer, no matter what his condition may be, may cure himself cheaply, privately and radically.

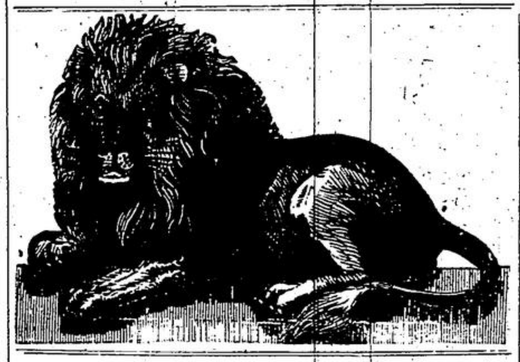
THE LION, OF GUELPH,



We have just received the following letter from our resident buyer in Glasgow.

J. D. WILLIAMSON & CO.

Glasgow, Aug. 17th, 1888.

MESSRS. J. D. WILLIAMSON & CO,
Guelph, Ont.

DEAR SIRS:—I have just returned from a trip to the Continent in your interest and have succeeded in completing your order for French Dress goods, Silks, Satins and Trimmings. I secured some of the most exquisite Suit Patterns in French Dress goods ranging from 40 to 75 Francs which are marvels of beauty.

I also bought some novelties in the way of Buttons and Trimmings such as other houses in your city will not have as they are not in the English Market.

I visited a number of erman Manufacturers and purchased a full range of Mantles and Fur Goods. On my return I visited London and completed town order. In Leeds I purchased a large line of Tweeds and Cloths and also a job lot of Dress Goods which I cleared at 15s. in the £. If there are more than you can handle you can no doubt sell a portion of them to other Merchants in Guelph.

On Monday I shall run over to Belfast for a week and complete your Linen order as there are many lines I can get better there than in Manchester.

I was glad to hear of your good season's trade and hope it will continue, you cannot fail to do a good business this fall with the splendid values you will have.

Yours very faithfully,

D. WILLIAMON.

SAULT STE. MARIE CANAL.

Notice to Contractors.

SEALED TENDERS addressed to the undersigned and endorsed "Tenders for the Sault Ste. Marie Canal," will be received at this office until the arrival of the eastern and western mails on TUESDAY, the 23rd day of October, next, for the formation and construction of a Canal on the Canadian side of the river, through the Island of St. Mary.

The works will be let in two sections, one of which will embrace the formation of the canal through the Island; the construction of locks, &c. The other, the deepening and widening of the channel-way at both ends of the canal; construction of piers, &c.

A map of the locality, together with plans and specifications of the works, can be seen at this office on and after TUESDAY, the 9th day of October, next, where printed forms of tender can also be obtained. A like class of information relative to the works, can be seen at this office of the Local Officer in the Town of Sault Ste. Marie, Ont.

Intending contractors are requested to bear in mind that tenders will not be considered unless made strictly in accordance with the printed forms and be accompanied by a letter stating that the person or persons tendering have carefully examined the locality and the nature of the material found in the trial pits.

In the case of firms, there must be attached the actual signatures of the full name, the nature of the occupation and residence of each member of the same; and further, a bank deposit receipt for the sum of $20,000 must accompany the tender for the canal and locks; and a bank deposit receipt for the sum of $7,500 must accompany the tender for the deepening and widening of the channel way at both ends, piers, &c.

The respective deposit receipts—cheques will not be accepted—must be endorsed over to the Minister of Railways and Canals, and will be forfeited if the party tendering declines entering into contract for the works, at the rates and to the terms stated in the offer submitted.

The deposit receipt thus sent in will be returned to the respective parties whose tenders are not accepted.

This Department does not, however, bind itself to accept the lowest or any tenders.

By order,
