The Young Folks.

WILD OATS.

I saw a fair youth, with low broad and white, And an eye that was laughing with intellect's light.

And his face seemed to glow with the wealth of his mind, And I said, "He will grow and exult in mankind."

He is a man's own king, We met you again, I saw the young man, With bow that was glowing and red in his hand, His eyes lit with a gleam that was glad.

And his friends gathered round him, and said with a laugh, "He is a man's own king."

Ab! his eye was too bright, and his cheek was too red, And I gazed on the youth with a feeling of dread, And again he was laughing and glad, And again he was laughing and glad.

We met but once more, I found in the street, A corpse that lay in mud and in mire, A foot, bloodied thing, but I saw in the face, A something that told of his boyhood's prize.

Oh, youth, who are you, who are you, who are you, That the terrible deed you are planning will grow?

Have you thought how your God will require some day, An account of the life you are throwing away?

It will soon be too late, it will soon be too late, Then throw down the cup, do not touch, do not taste, It is filled with destruction, and sorrow, and pain.

Throw it down! throw it down! do not lift it again, It will soon be too late!

HIS PROPOSAL REJECTED. Some months since a gentleman had the misfortune to lose his wife, a literary lady of some reputation.

"Myrrha," said he with downcast eye, as he took her hand, "you knew my wife."

"Yes," "It is not good for a man to be alone," "Perhaps not."

"Did you ever reflect upon that part of the marriage service which requires couples to cleave unto each other until death parts them?"

"I have," "I have often reflected upon it myself, Now death has parted me from my wife and I feel very lonely."

"I should think it likely," "I think I must do something to restore to me her kind consolations and the memory of her many virtues."

"He pressed the lady's hand and sighed, She returned the pressure and also suffused a tinge to escape her."

"My dear," he said after a long pause, "I will come to the point at once. I have a proposal to make."

"A proposal?" "Yes," "Ah," she said blushing and covering her face with her hands.

"I have considered to write my wife's biography, now, I have but little skill in literary exercises, and if you will correct my manuscript and give the headings of the chapters I will give you $5."

"She sprang from his side and her eyes flashed with anger, "I'll see you hanged first, and then I will give you $5."

"She left the room, not being able to express her rage. The widower sighed, took his hat and went home."

In Brief And to the Point. Disordered liver, indigestion or a foe to good nature.

The human digestive apparatus is one of the most complicated and wonderful things in existence. It is easily put out of order.

Greasy food, tough food, starchy food, and cookery, mental worry, late hours, irregular habits, and many other things which ought not to be heeded by the American people.

But Green's August Flower has done a wonderful work in reforming this bad business and making the American people healthy and happy.

Remember—No laxatives without health. But Green's August Flower brings health and happiness to the dyspeptic. Ask your druggist for a bottle. Seventy-five cents.

Attesting Success. It is the duty of every person who has used Boecher's German Syrup to let his friends in coming Consumption, severe Coughs, Croup, Asthma, Pneumonia, and in fact all throat and lung diseases.

Dangerous Counterfeits. Counterfeits are always dangerous, more so that they always closely imitate the original in appearance and name.

Rest and Comfort to the suffering. "Brown's Household Remedies" has no equal for relieving pain, both internal and external.

JINGLES AND JOKELETS.

Half an Hour with the Wire Men, the Wit and the Anagrams of the Day.

Burdock Pills cure sick headache by regulating the stomach, liver and bowels.

There is no better remedy for worms of any kind in children or adults than Dr. Low's Worm Syrup.

Mulberry's Beef, Iron and Wine is prepared from the finest beef, soluble iron, and pure cherry wine, combined with choice ingredients.

Skin Diseases are most annoying because so noticeable. Dr. Egan's Sulphur Soap, cleans and cures the skin.

From Manitoba. I have been cured of chronic diarrhoea by the use of Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry.

Gladiators. The grand old gentleman seems to grow younger as the days go by.

It is extremely interesting to visit some of the leading manufacturing houses in Toronto. Perhaps the most interesting and surprising of them are the extensive Ornamental Stained Glass and Decorative works of the McCasland & Son.

A Dear Youth. "Dear Sir,—For twelve years I suffered from dyspepsia and liver complaint and was so weak I could not leave my bed for eight months, and had little hope of ever being cured."

"I have suffered for years from a bronchial trouble that, whenever I take cold or am exposed to inclement weather, closes my throat, and I am unable to breathe, and I feel very lonely."

Whooping, gasping sufferer from Asthma, receive quick and permanent relief by using Southern Balm for Coughs, Sold by all druggists or by mail on receipt of price.

N. Mellis, Wyrebridge, writes:—"I have sold large quantities of Dr. Thomas' Electrolytic Oil, which does not generate heat, and is thorough and pure."

An old Favorite. This has been popular with the people for thirty years is Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry for all varieties of summer complaints of children and adults.

"I have sold large quantities of Dr. Thomas' Electrolytic Oil, which does not generate heat, and is thorough and pure."

Out of Sorts.—Symptoms, Headache, loss of appetite, torpid tongue, and general indisposition. These symptoms, if neglected, develop into acute disease.

Compensatory Remedies. are only indicated, but the disease itself may gain a foothold through impure blood, bad diet, unventilated rooms, etc.

Prompt Results. "I was very sick with bowel complaint last summer. I tried other medicines but all was no use until I tried Dr. Fowler's Wild Strawberry."

An Endorsed Proof of the beneficial qualities of Burdock Blood Bitters is found in the thousands of authentic testimonials published by the proprietors.

With a feeble appetite and imperfect digestion, it is impossible for the body to secure the requisite amount of nourishment.

Give Holloway's Corn Cure a trial. It removed ten corns from one pair of feet without any pain.

Cure and Effect. Many persons wonder at the speed, rapidity and feeling that oppresses them without any apparent cause.

Each number is made up of sixteen pages, beautifully printed on paper of extra weight, so as to be easily preserved.

These publications should be read by every American citizen, and at low prices.

Mechanics' Beef, Iron and Wine.

If you are languid and weak, and your appetite poor, my Beef, Iron and Wine is the tonic, be sure.

As an invigorating tonic it is recognized by the Medical Profession as the best strengthening medicine thus far produced.

It is invaluable as a blood-and-muscle maker, especially in those cases where weakness is the result of imperfect or infrequent, or staid fevers or excess of any sort.

It contains the nutrient of Beef, the stimulant property of Wine and the tonic powers of Iron, and is admirably calculated to build up the emaciated system.

Advice to Mothers.—Are you disturbed at night and broken of your rest by a sick child suffering and crying with pain of cutting teeth?

It is a well adapted to children that I recommend it as superior to any prescription known to me.
