The death of Hon. James Patton, collect or of customs at Toronto, vacated an office for which there will no doubt be a lively race. It was stated some time ago that Mr. Patton was to be superannuated and his place given to Mr. John Small, M. P. for East Toronto, who was to be succeeded in the House of Commons by Mr. E. F. Clarke, the present mayor of Toronto.

The report is sent out that counterfeit ten dollar bills of the Bank of Commerc are in circulation. It does not take the counterfeiters long to get hold of a new l and make a copy of it. They find that i is easier to pass of a bill of a new issue than a bill of an old one, as people have not become used to the look of the new issue and are more easily deceived by it.

Since the cotton combination went to pieces, a couple of months ago, the price of Canadian cotton has fallen from twenty. three to sixteen and three quarter cents per pound, a decline of about twenty-seven per cent, which is somewhat less than the rate of the protective daty upon these goods The difference in prices represents the difference between prices determined by competition and those fixed by combination.

LION, OF GUELPH

We have just received the following letter from our resident buyer in Clasgow J. D. WILLIAMSON & CO.

Glasgow, Aug. 17th, 1888.

MESSRS. [. D. WILLIAMSON & Co.

DEAR Sirs: - I have just returned from a trip to the Continent in your interest and have succeeded in completing your order for Frenck Dress Goods, Silks, Satins and Trimmings. I secured some of the most exquisite Suit Patterns in French Dress Goods ranging from 40 to 75 Francs which are marvels of beauty. I also bought some novelties in the way of Buttons and Trimmings such as other houses in your city will not have as they are not in the English Market.

I visited a number of Cerman Manufacturers and purchased a full range of Mantles and Fur Goods. On my return I visited London and completed town order. In Leeds I purchased a large line of Tweeds and Cloths and also a job lot of Dress Goods which I cleared at 15s. in the £. If there are more than you can handle you can no doubt sell a portion of them to other Merchants in Guelph.

On Monday I shall run over to Belfast for a week and complete your Linen order as there are many lines : I can get better there than in Manchester.

I was glad to hear of your good season's trade and hope it will continue, you cannot fail to do a good business this fall with the splendid values you will have. Yours very faithfully,
