POETRY.

TO THE LINE.

The Christmas carols had been sung;
The guests had turned to go;
Down from the chandelier there hung
A spray of candlelight.

Heath, along the polished floor,
A clear-mooned line there ran:
No face was peering at the door;
I was alone with Nan.

SELECT FAMILY READING.

One Christmas Eve.

"Charles," said Mrs. Winship coating
ly, "Charles, dear,"

"What is it, Molly?" said Charles, dear,
uttering his well-remembered smile.

WELCOMES TO CHRISTMAS.

Beautiful anthem the Christmas
wakened.
"Ages ago Bethlehem's plain
Greeted the shepherd's with magical Breathing delivered from sin's deep slain."

A CHRISTMAS PIE.

It was a day in November, one of those unpleasant stormy days that come at the beginning of winter; a raw penetrating wind, and a damp snow falling that would stick to you, and wet you more than rain.
