SHAPING THE FUTURE.

We shape ourselves for the joy or fear of which the coming life is made.

And all our future's atmosphere.

With sunshine or with shade.

The time of the life to be we weave our colors all our own.

And in the loom of destiny.

We reap as we have sown.

Still shall the seed around us call

The shadows which it gathered here

And, painted on the eternal wall,

The part shall re-appear.

Think ye the notes of boyhood song

On Milton's temple ever last did?

Think ye that Raphael's angel through

Has vanished from the sky?

O no! we live our life again:

Or warmly touched, or coldly dim,

The picture of the past returns

Man's words shall follow him!

"SO IT IS!"

Congratulating an Episcopal congregation

in the Township lately upon the opening of their new church, a gentleman of another denomination instead of hoping for the time when, instead of Presbyterian churches,

Methodist churches and Episcopal churches,

we should all unite in one church, which should be called "Christ's Church." Considerable amusement was caused by a member of the new church jumping to his feet and announcing that he had been decided to call it "Christ's Church," and was treated the hopes of the last speaker would be at once carried into effect.

Public speakers, actors and vocalists find and state that Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil relieves hoarseness and irritation in the variety of other unhealthy conditions.
