KOTES AND COMMENTS.

The Postmaster General is receiving abuse from all sides for the recent change in the postal tariff-and he deserves it. Why should Canadians sot have as chosp a tariff as the United States.

Great excitement exist in Victoria, B. C. consequent on the orders recired by the naval authorities a Bearing sea early in June. It is stated a number of scaling ressels have left with the distinct assurance of the naval authorities that they will be

Judge Gill, in Montreal last week dis missed an action to recover the value of commercial traveller's trunk lost on the Canadian Pacific railway, on the ground that the ticket had been lasted at a reduced rate; with the express understanding that the company would not be responsible for the loss of baggage.

Anticosti is once more for sale, but ter ders must be in before the twenty-ninth of the present month. The island, which is private property, comprises about two million and a half of acres. It is a good place for sport, but settlers do not appear to proser upon it for the Canadians who went there some years are returned wiser but poorer men.

The weather reports show that a great amount of damage was done in many parts of Ontario by the frost last week. Barley and corn have suffered severely, and wheat in low-lying lands has been badly bitten. Garden vegetables and small fruits have been almost annihilated. Large areas of wheat, perticularly in low-lying lands, have been badly damaged. One night's frest has considerably darkened the bright bopes of a few days ago in many places.

Companies have issued a joint circular stating that on and after June 1st next rates on freight from all paints in the United States, for points in Canada, will be exclusive of delivery at destination. When such freight is delivered to consignee by the railway companies at cartage points, a charge of two cents per 100 lbs., minimum ten cents for any con signment, will be added to the freigh charges and collected for partage service r points where cartage is performed by the railway companies.

The Sheiburne Economist compares matters as follows :- Let any intelligent man or woman who has been in the habit of attending public celebrations in Shelburne make a comparison of the number of drunks to be seen last Pridar, with those, attending any celebration during the Scott Act regime, and we feel certain he will be convinced that the old stock argument, that the Scott Act does not diminish drinking, is, to use a common expression, pure rot. The Crooks Act that grand license law the stringent regulations of which were landed to the skies by the liquor men during the campaign for the repeal of the Scott Act did its work in great style on the 24th. The drinking and fighting, the cursing and swearing was fearful. The fighting was kept up until about midnight, preventing those who were peaceably inclined from sleeping, and about 8 a.m. the shouting of men and the clanging of the fire bell called up all hands to stay the progrees of flames which, it is generally beindividual who had assumed the contract of " painting the town." ## BIXDING TWINE

Farmers are at present a good deal exercised about the rise in the price of binding twine. It is alleged by some that this is due to a combine among manufacturers and by others to the fact that the rise is due to a shortage of the hemp, manife and sisal crops, from which the twine is manufactured. We notice that a meeting to discuss the subject was held in East York last Saturday, at which the subject was theroughly ventilated. One farmer who has given a good deal of attention to the subject, cave it as his opinion that the scarcity of raw material was the cause of the rise in price. He said he did not suppres they could do anything towards making the After the business had been-transacted the twine cheater this year. ### A MODERN DELUGE.

10,000 People Drowned in a Flood in Pennsyl vania-Fire adds Its Terrors to the Heart-Rebding Scene.

MILLIONS OF PROPERTY ANXIHILATE The most disastrous calamity that has ver occurred on this continent was enacted n the state of Pennsylvania on Friday and Baturday. It is impossible to give oven a faint idea of the heart rending disaster. It seems clear that something like ten thousand people have lost their lives, while millions of dollars worth of property have been swept away. The estimate of the loss of both life and property is put beyond this, but the most that can be said is that the disaster is the most destructive of human life; outside of war, that has yet overtaken North America.

storms of the past week swelled the Conemaugh river which runs through Johnstown, where there was an immense artificial dam with a sheer height of a hundred feet above the level, making a lake at least three miles long and a mile wide. The dam had loaky foundations, and Johnstown being in a hol low, lying between two rivers, felt the full force of the flood. To add to the borror of the situation hundreds of persons were burned to death at a railway bridge while seeking safety from the flood, and as if it were not enough that the elements should do their worst, ghouls went about robbing the bodies of the dead of such jewellery and valuables as they could find upon them. Other places in the neighborhood of Johns town also suffered, such as Sang Hollow Cambria City, Conemaugh, New Florence imintas and Alleghany rivers, the bodies of the victims being strewn slong the banks. The population of the valley numbered about 55,000, and of these over 10,000 are estimated to have perished. Everybody seems dazed. The calamity has over- among us. med the inhabitants. A TERRIELE DELEGIL

Pirrisered, Jone 3 .- Shortly after no the dam gave way about five miles above Johnstown and sweeping everything before it burst apon the town with terrible force. The water in the river rose from five fee deep to forty in ten mhautes. Everything was carried before the rush of waters, and not in instant's time was given the people to seek safety. Houses were demolished wept from their foundations and carrie in a flood to a culvert near the town. mass of all manner of debris soon lodged, and by evening it had damned the water back into the city over the tops of many of the still remaining chimneys. A telegram received about 11 o'clock last night, said the blockade at the Johnstown bridge was three-fourths of a mile long and forty feet high, and was all on fire. The exten of the damage could not possibly be estimated. The number of bodies under this pile England, France and other countries, is enormous, being placed as high as six thousand, but this probably an exaggeration, although the number is something is unbearable, and the survivors.

> HIXGET, COLD AND BEARTEROKEN, are sickening at the nauscons odors. There are not enough coffins to bury the dead, although the resources of Pittsburg have seen taxed to the utmost to secure them and 2,200 were sent out to day.

JOHNSTORN, June 3 .- The developments d every hour make it more and more apexent that the exact number of lives lost well. by the flood will never be known. At present there are said to be 2,200 recovered bodies here, and at six o'clock this evening the 630th body had been received at Cambria. Probably one-third of the dead will never be recovered. The estimate can never be accurate, for in many instances who amilies and their relatives were drowned. The Hungarians and Negroes are causing much trouble. THE NEW PASTOR OF ST ALBAN'S. Ber. G. B. Oooke, Held in the Bighest Esteen by his Late Parishioners. Rev George B. Cooks, the new incombent of St. Alban's church, and formerly of BE. Paul's church, Palmerston, arrived in Acton last Thorsday and preached his inaugura sermons on Sunday to good-sized congregations. On Monday evening Mr. Cooke's in duction took place. An interesting and mpressive sermon was preached by Rev. Thos. Smith of Elora.

That Rev. Mr. Cooks was greatly beloved by his congregation at Palmerston is evi lent from the very complimentary refer ences to his successful pastorate, and the eports of the interesting services held the purpose of saying farewell to himself and family, published in last issue of the Palmerston Telegraph. At a farewell gath. ering on Tuesday evening, the 28th May JOHNSTOWN, Pa., June 8 .- The heavy rain when Rev. Rural Deau Belt occupied the chair, the following address was read Mr. J. T. Lacy, at the conclusion of which Mr. F. Hazelwood handed Mr. Cooke well-filled purse :-

our pastor, after the happy relations that have long subsisted between us, we cannot bring urselves to utter our farewell wishes without expressing to you our deep sense of regret that duty has called you away from those among rhom you have so long and so usefully labored and is about to sever the bond between us, than which none is more sensitive or sympatheticthat between pastor and flock. It is now more than four years since this con-

regation first bade you welcome, and looking ress and advancement that have, under God's race, heen added both to the parochial and Bolivar, Merrill, Nineveh and villages and spiritual welfare of this congregation, not withstanding the many and discouraging difficulties ed and in which you have had our sincerest sympathy, we realize that in your departure this parish will experience a loss that it will be diffe cult to replace, and one which will fix in the memory of us all the recollection of the earnes and able efforts that have marked your ministry

Whatever Orillia's fature may be it is at present as lively and enterprising a town as the Dominion holds and if it is not incorporated as a city within very few years it will not be the fault of its present business men and prominent citizens. We are glad to note that a former resident of Acton is dentified with its progress as the following from the Daily Times will show :-

The local press has frequently advocated the cetablishment in this locality, of a convalescent home; the well-known salubrity. of our lake climate making Orillia an eminently desirable place for a sanitorium, or almost any kind of a health resort. After years of consideration, a project having such for his object has at length emerged into actuality, thanks to the superior enterprise of a small coterie of public-spirited men, of whom Mr. J. P. Secord is a prime mover .- A site for the hospital has been selected on the shore of Lake Simcoe, and an admirable spot it is. In a few days,or at the longest, weeks, - excavating for the foundation of the new building will be commenced, and before another year has passed, a handsome building, in every way suited to the requirements of the public, will grace that picturesque section of the
