The Young Men's Entertainment.

The ice cream social and concert under the auspices of the Young Peoples' U ion o the Methodist church given by the young men on Tresday evening was quite successful. Everything in connection with the affair was provided by the male members of the Union and there was considerable curiosity manifested by ladies as to how the matter would turn out. As the time for serving tes arrived ten young men wearing snow-white aprons and white shirts appeared to attend to the wants of the company. The ladies admitted that they succeeded admirably with their work and even in the matter of washing dishes proved themselves to be adepts. The programme after tea included vocal solos by Mr. Charles Williams, of Glenwilliams. Orchestral selections by Mesers. Hill, Brown, Lawson, Peters, Williams and Nicklin. Moath organ solos by Mr. Jos. Peters. A recitation by Rev. J. W. Rae, and male quartetts
