important letter from its usually reliable | lame foot, is able to walk out again. London Correspondent, in which are discassed the probable import requirements of wheat by Europe for the twelve months beginning Sept. 1st, 1889. The aggregate is placed at about 250,000,000 bushels, as compared with 170,000,000 bushels within the past year. Russia, India and Hungary all have less to sell, but the United States have more. Europe's needs in this direction probably mean bigher prices.

It will begin in the November Calary and run through four numbers. The story takes its name from a vessel which started from a Massachusetts port on peculiar cruise. The owners, a young narried couple, are on board, and the vessel is manned by four village captains of unusual experience. Mr. Dana Gibson will illustrate it. The November Cutury is also to contain a new story by Mark Twain.

- The several persons who are to attend at the various polling places and at the final summing up of the votes on behalf the persons interested in the promoting and opposing the passage of the Park By.law will be appointed at the town hall on Satorday morning at ten o'clock. -The secret of success in certain lines I advertising is to catch the drift of public necessity at the proper time and then to to make your announcement that you possess something with which " to fill the longfelt want." Your advertisement must offivey its information to the reader in the simplest and most direct form and this is accomplished most effectively through the columns of the paper read by your custom.

Successful Buying.

A successful dealer must be a well-known one. He must keep his name before the public. He must be up with the times. lis stock must be such that if any one desires an article she will say, "If it's not at Mr. A's there is no use in looking."-

To accomplish this he must be known as enterprising, reasonable in price, of recognized taste in selecting goods, and last, but not least, he must ascertain which are the best markets of the world for goods, and buy there.

The manufacturing centres of the Old World are, as every one will acknowledge, the fountain, head and source of the dry goods trade. The great London wholesale houses buy their goods there, and later on the wholesale men of Toronto and Montreal purchase theirs in turn from these London bouses. Now it will at once be apparent that if by any means the Canadian retailer can arrange to buy his stock from the manufacturing centres, the consequence will be he will be able to not only underself the non-importer, but to piace before his customers the very latest and freshest goods designed.

These advantages we are now offering our customers the benefit of. For nearly two months Mr. Ryan has been visiting the Old Country manufacturing centres, and writes us that he has placed orders for our Fall and Winter goods at prices which will enable us to convince our dustomers in the usual practical manner of the advantages of importing .--

In the meantime we are anxious to reduce our stock before the arrival of our Fall Goods, and are offering the balance of our Dress Goods, Colored Silks, Prints, etc., at prices to clear. An examination of our goods and prices is all that is needed to con-
