The Young Folks.

FORGET-ME-NOT.

A mother's last good-bye, a dear little parting light, a message from on high, "Forget-me-not."

A love which God hath blessed, a mother's heart content, a father's last request, "Forget-me-not."

A patriot's love of fame, a sweet, familiar strain, a poet's last refrain, "Forget-me-not."

A wish all hearts contain, a noble deed above the main, a hero's last appeal, "Forget-me-not."

FOOD FOR THOUGHT.

The complicated, protracted, and wretched will case in our courts should suggest to sensible men who have property the propriety of disposing of it to suit themselves before they die.

If under the invidious approach of foreign ideas and customs, we allow our Christian Sabbath to be taken from us, will it go all that is most precious in our civilization. Let every Christian citizen stand guard now.

The slightest compliance with evil weakens the will and repels Divine assistance. If you once bow in the house of Rimmon, your moral backbone may never be strong and straight again.

The pessimistic leads backward. Don't follow him. If you can't get ahead, keep him from coming back. If you can't get ahead, keep him from coming back.

JUDGMENT IN COOKERY.

If cookery were only an exact science, then weights, measures, temperatures and exact times could always be given and not a margin left to the judgment of the cook.

Many diseases result from neglected cookery, such as sick headache, bad blood, indigestion, heartburn, diarrhoea, and the list is especially necessary where economy is important.

If the stomach has taken a little more pains to meet the pressing needs of the preserver, there would be a lighter burden on his heart, more sunshine on his face, and perhaps more hopefulness and power in his sermon.

AN INTERESTING IMPROVEMENT.

This rare bit of inspiration was written at Bellows Falls, Vermont, in the summer of 1859, by the well-known poet John G. Shea.

"My dearest Sarah, Sometimes I Your sick thoughts With thoughts of 'Sore,' -Harper's Magazine.

The Chicago Morning News estimates that more than four thousand soldiers were open in that city on a recent Sunday, and that $75,000 must have been spent for wine, spirits and beer during this one day.

As a side-track and water-tank between Greenboro and Salisbury, the hour between the train and the boat is a time for the brain to work and the body to rest.

"How far are you getting on?" "Hadin' time." "Why didn't you get on there?" "Hadin' time." "How far are you getting on?" "As far as this fifty cents will take me."

"You ain't home in the land, are you?" "No, if the court knows herself! The people of Blackville rode me on a rail, and gave me ten minutes in which to leave the town. I got out in five. That shows a level head, doesn't it? I want fifty cents' worth of more distance - as fast as I can get it!"

It is worse than madness to neglect a cough or a cold which is easily subdued, if the fore-runner of consumption and premature death. Inflammation, when it attacks the delicate tissues of the lungs and bronchial tubes, travels with perilous rapidity; then do not delay, get a bottle of Bickel's Anti-Consumptive Syrup, and whenever a child has taken cold, has a cough or hoarseness, give the Syrup according to directions.

Never allow the bowels to remain constipated lest serious evil ensue. National Pills are unsurpassed as a remedy for constipation.

Pleasant as syrup; nothing equals it as worm medicine; the same is Mother Gray's Worm Exterminator. The greatest worm destroyer of the age.

O. Bortle of Manchester, Ontario Co., N. Y. writes: "I obtained immediate relief from the use of Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil. I have had Asthma for eleven years. Have been obliged to sit up all night for ten or twelve nights in succession. I can now sleep soundly all night on a feather bed, which I had not been able to previous to using the Oil."

JINGLES AND JOKELETS.

Half an Hour With the Wine Men, the Wits and the Paragons of the Day. Milburn's Aromatic Quinine Wine fortifies the system against attacks of ague, chills, bilious fever, dumb ague and like troubles.

Cannot Fall. Mrs. John E. Thompson, of Shelburne, P. O. writes: My two children received great benefit from Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry for Diarrhoea and summer complaint. I give it according to direction and they soon recovered. Be sure and get the genuine.

Victory's Carbolic Salve is a wonderful healing ointment for cuts, wounds, bruises, burns, scalds, boils, pimples, &c.

Tried! Tried! Promised! A year ago last summer I was troubled with dysentery. I procured Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry and took according to directions, which completely cured me. Robert E. Green, Lyndhurst, Ont. This medicine cures all looseness of bowels.

In Many Forms. Dyspepsia assumes many phases, all disagreeable to the sufferer, yet it takes no form which from two to four bottles of Burdock Blood Bitters will not cure. B. B. B. cures the appetite and renovates the entire system.

Excellent reasons exist why Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil should be used by persons troubled with affections of the throat or lungs, such as whooping cough, croup, corns, tenons, or external injuries. The reasons are, that it is speedy, pure and unobjectionable, whether taken internally or applied externally.

From Bad to Worse. Sore feet leads to consumption. From three to six bottles of Burdock Blood Bitters will cure scrofula, salt rheum, boils, erysipelas, pimples, tetter, shingles, head-ache, sore eyes, and all skin affections, by cleansing the system and removing all impure matter that causes bad blood.

Makes multiply one another. A simple fit of digestion may - especially if the condition of the liver and bowels out of gear. Sick headache follows, poisoning the blood by bile excess, and there is grave and serious disturbance of the entire system.

C. C. RICHMOND & CO. GENTLERS - I took a severe cold, which settled in my throat and lungs and caused me to entirely lose my voice. For six weeks I suffered great pain. My wife advised me to try Winslow's Liniment and the effect was magical, for, after only three doses and an outward application, my voice returned and I was able to speak in the Army that night. A privilege I had been unable to enjoy for six weeks. Yarmouth. CHARLES PICKER.

What Toronto's Well-Known Good Samaritan Says: "I have been troubled with Dyspepsia and Liver Complaint for over 20 years, and have tried many remedies, but never found an article that has done me as much good as Northrop & Lyman's Vegetable Dipsyrry and Dipsyrry Corns." CHAS. E. PETER.
