The Young Folks.

PRESS ON, LITTLE PILGRIMS.

Press on, little pilgrims, and never give up,
Tho' often the desert is dreary;
Press on, little pilgrims, replenish your cup
From wells of salvation when weary.

Cho.—When you've crossed the river,
You'll be happy ever;
Safe on Canaan's shore,
You'll be happy evermore.

Press on, little pilgrims, and lean on the Friend
Whose heart is the empire of pity;
Whose wisdom shall guide you, whose arm shall defend,
Till safe in the beautiful city.

Press on, little pilgrims, and never retreat
When Satan comes forth to annoy you;
The darts which he hurls with a merciless hate,
May wound, but shall never destroy you.

Press on, little pilgrims, your home is in view;
Its doors are thrown wide to receive you,
A bright crown of glory is laid up for you,
And sorrow and sin shall soon leave you.

A BIT OF A SUGGESTION.

"How is your Latin class getting along, Herbert?" asked his father at the breakfast-table.

"Oh, tolerably, sir," said Herbert, with a half scowl which was becoming very familiar with his face. "I don't like Latin much myself. And some of the boys are such poor scholars that they keep the whole class back, I wish I was in some other class."

"Will you have some more potato, Herbert?" asked his mother.

"Well I don't believe I want any; I don't think this is a very nice way of cooking potatoes. We used to have them a great deal nicer."

"Can you spare a quarter of an hour after breakfast to help me with my examples, Herbert?" asked his sister.

"Oh, I suppose so. I did want to stop and speak to Jack Lee about that book of mine he borrowed and hasn't returned. I wish folks wouldn't borrow; but if they will borrow, I wish they'd return things. What are your examples?"

"In the least common multiple."

"That's easy enough, I'm sure. I wonder if you're bright at arithmetic, Lill? But of course I'll show you. Seems to me this steak is tough."

"We'll have to be looking after the wood supply soon," suggested mother.

"And then there'll be more piling for me, of course," remarked Herbert. "Bridget must burn a lot of wood in the kitchen."

"While you are helping your sister with the examples, Herbert," said his mother, "I'll put a stitch into that necktie if you'll hand it to me. Something about it seems to be wrong."

"It's a miserable fitting thing, scarcely worth mending. I wore it last night, and it bothered me all the evening."

"By the way, did you have a pleasant time last night?"

"Oh, rather. But I expected to hear something finer. I could have done almost as well myself."

Herbert's father folded up the newspaper he had been reading, laid it beside his plate, and, turning towards the boy, gazed at him so fixedly and so critically that he looked inquiringly at him, at length asking.

"Well, what is it father?"

"Herbert, do you know that we all love you?"

"Why," exclaimed Herbert, greatly astonished at the question, "I—suppose you do."

"Are you sure of it?"

"Yes," said Herbert, laughing a little, "I am quite sure of it."

"You are sure that you, with your sister, are objects of the most constant and loving care and solicitude on the part of your mother and myself?"

"Yes, father," said Herbert, more thoughtfully. "But why do you ask?"

"You are sure that your best and highest welfare is the thing most earnestly sought by us?"

"Yes, sir."

"And that there is nothing in the world so precious to us four at this table as just we four?"

"Yes, sir."

"You are a bright boy—yes, bright as the average, perhaps a little brighter, although my thinking so may come of my being slightly partial to you—well-looking too, well kept and healthy. You are able to take in the full delights of out-door boy-life; and you enjoy your school in a general way, don't you?"

"Yes, sir."

"And are fairly happy in your home surroundings?"

"Yes, father in everything. But will you please tell me what all this means?"

"Yes, I've come to that now. You awake in the morning in the full enjoyment of every blessing. You come to the table surrounded by those to whom your happiness is dear."

"Herbert looked into his father's eyes waiting to hear more, as he made a slight pause.

"It seems as if a boy in your condition in life ought to find happiness in everything. But instead of this, everything, according to your own showing, seems to bear a thorn for you. Of the half a dozen things touched upon within the last fifteen minutes, some pertaining to your studies, some to your amusements, some to your small duties to others, everything has been met by you with a direct or indirect complaint or fault finding. I really am afraid, my boy, that life is becoming a burdensome, unhappy thing to you."

"Oh, you are mistaken, father," said Herbert, with a rising color. "I really don't mean to keep up a scowl and a growl about things. I don't think of it half the time."

"Then," said his father with a half-jesting expression on his face giving way to one wholly serious, "isn't it time you were thinking of making dear to you the happiness of those to whom your happiness is dear? Do you ever reflect how a spirit of fault-finding casts a shadow about you upon those entitled to something better than shadows from you—how a complaining voice and scowling face take away all the sweetness and beauty from the hours which should be highly prized—hours in which we who love each other are together?"

"Indeed, father, I never took it to heart before. But I will."

There are many boys in the homes all over the world. Wouldn't they do well also to take it to heart?—Sydney Dayre in Exchange.

The New Word.

Eupepsia is derived from the Greek, and means a condition of perfect digestion. This condition is always attained by those who use Burdock Blood Bitters, the only guaranteed medicine for all forms of dyspepsia, constipation, biliousness, rheumatism, scrofula and all blood diseases.

SING HALLELUJAH.

Shout the glad praises the Saviour is born,
Sing hallelujah this bright Christmas morn,
Jesus, Messiah, the Lord of us all,
Now for Thy glory, so fondly we call.

Cho.—Shout hallelujahs to Jesus your King,
Loud let your music this happy day ring,
Chime out your voices, ye gay, merry bells,
What a bright message your pealing now tells.

Peace be on earth and good will to all men,
Send out the message, yes, tell it again,
Glory and honor to Jesus be giv'n,
God of all creatures triumphant in heav'n.

Honor and homage to Jesus on high,
Christ reigns triumphant above yonder sky,
Here with glad voices hosannas we raise,
Singing our anthems in notes of sweet praise.

JINGLES AND JOKELETS

Half an Hour With the Wise Men, the Wits and the Paragraphs of the Day.

Have you tried Holloway's Corn Cure? It has no equal for removing these troublesome excrescences, as many have testified who have tried it.

Expensive Economy

is practiced when people buy cheap baking powder. The best is the cheapest and Imperial Cream Tartar Baking Powder is the best. Sold by all grocers.

N. McRae, Wyebridge, writes:—"I have sold large quantities of Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil: it is used for colds, sore throat, croup, &c., and in fact for any affection of the throat it works like magic. It is a sure cure for burns, wounds, and bruises.

Down by the Sounding Sea.

D. S. McDonald, Mabou, C. B. writes:—Nasal Balm has helped my Catarrh very much. It is the best remedy I ever used.

Valuable to Know.

Consumption may be more easily prevented than cured. The irritating and harrassing cough will be greatly relieved by the use of Hagyard's Pectoral Balsam that cures coughs, colds, bronchitis and pulmonary troubles.

The Third page of the Toronto Daily Mail is noted for "Want" advertisements. If you want to buy or sell anything. If you want a situation, a mechanic, a business, machinery, lodgings, if you have lost or found anything, or if you want to find out where anyone is, advertise in the Toronto Daily Mail and read the advertisements on the Third page of that paper. The charge is Two Cents a word each insertion. Address The Mail, Toronto, Canada.

A Big Nugget.

Of gold you can make a man rich, but it cannot make him healthy. If afflicted with any form of dyspepsia, biliousness, constipation, scrofula, bad blood, kidney complaint or skin disease, the remedy that will make you well is Burdock Blood Bitters. It is the best blood cleanser known.

Not Only For Man.

I say that your Hagyard's Yellow Oil is the best thing I ever saw for croup, coughs, colds, cuts or burns, and it is good for man or beast. Miss E. M. Hopkins, Claremont, Ont. Yellow Oil cures rheumatism, neuralgia and all pain.

Consumption Surely Cured.

To the Editor:—

Please inform your readers that I have a positive remedy for the above named disease. By its timely use thousands of hopeless cases have been permanently cured, I shall be glad to send two bottles of my remedy FREE to any of your readers who have consumption if they will send me their Express and P. O. address.

Respectfully, Dr. T. A. Slocum,
164 West Adelaide st., Toronto, Ont.

If you want to buy or sell a Farm, advertise in the Toronto Weekly Mail. That paper reaches 100,000 Farmers' homes every week, and your advertisement should meet the eye of someone who wants to purchase. Advertisements of this class are inserted in the Toronto Weekly Mail for Five Cents a word each insertion, or Twenty Cents a word for five insertions. Address The Mail, Toronto, Canada.

Gents.—We consider Minard's Liniment the best in the market and cheerfully recommend its use.

Advice to Mothers.—Are you disturbed at night and broken of your rest by a sick child suffering and crying with pain of cutting teeth? If so send at once and get a bottle of "Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup" for children teething. Its value is incalculable. It will relieve the poor little sufferer immediately. Depend upon it, mothers; there is no mistake about it. It cures dysentry and diarrhœa, regulates the stomach and bowels, cures wind colic, softens the gums, reduces inflammation, and gives tone and energy to the whole system. "Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup" for children teething is pleasant to the taste and is the prescription of one of the oldest and best female physicians and nurses in the United States, and is for sale by all druggists throughout the world. Price twenty-five cents a bottle. Be sure and ask for "Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup," and take no other kind.

A Plain Statement.

All poisonous waste, and worn out matter ought to escape from the system through the secretions of the bowels, kidneys and skin. B. B. B. cleanses, opens and regulates these natural outlets for the removal of disease.

It is worse than madness to neglect a cough or a cold which is easily subdued if taken in time, becomes, when left to itself, the fore-runner of consumption and premature death. Inflammation, when it attacks the delicate tissue of the lungs and bronchial tubes, travels with perilous rapidity; therefore do not delay, get a bottle of Bickle's Anti-Consumptive Syrup, the medicine that grasps this formidable foe of the human body, and drives it from the system. This medicine promotes a free and easy expectoration, subdues the cough, heals the diseased parts, and exerts a most wonderful influence in curing consumption, and other diseases of the throat and lungs. If parents wish to save the lives of their children, and themselves from much anxiety, trouble and expense, let them procure a bottle of Bickle's Anti-Consumptive Syrup, and whenever a child has taken cold has a cough or hoarseness, give the Syrup according to directions.

Minard's Liniment Cures Garget in Cows.

A STARLESS CROWN.

Oh, shall I wear a starless crown
In yonder world of glory?
Or will some little friend be found
To whom I've told the story—
The wondrous story of the cross,
The sufferings of the Saviour,
Who died that he from worldly dross
Might win us to his favor.

Cho.—O happy day! O happy place!
We shall soon meet together,
Where Jesus stands with smiling face
To crown us His forever.

A youthful army now we stand,
Our Captain's word is given,
We'll onward move, his blest command
Will guide us on to heaven.
When ransom'd hosts shall gather round
The Lamb on Zion's mountain,
Oh, there may we each one be found
Beside the living fountain.

TO OUR SUBSCRIBERS.

The special announcement which appeared in our columns some time since, announcing a special arrangement with Dr. B. J. Kendall Co., of Enosburgh Falls, Vt., publishers of "A Treatise on the Horse and his Diseases," whereby our subscribers were enabled to obtain a copy of that valuable work free by sending their address to B. J. Kendall Co., and enclosing a two-cent stamp for mailing the same) is renewed for a limited period. We trust all will avail themselves of the opportunity of obtaining this valuable work. To every lover of the horse it is indispensable, as it treats in a simple manner all the diseases which afflict this noble animal. Its phenominal sale throughout the United States and Canada, make it standard authority. Mention this paper when sending for "Treatise."

A Night Alarm.

I awoke last night to find my boy so bad with croup that he could hardly breathe, but on giving him some Hagyard's Yellow Oil on sugar, and rubbing his chest, throat and back with it also, he soon was sleeping quietly and awoke next morning completely cured. John Elliot,
Eglinton, Ont.

CATARRH.

Catarrhal Deafness—Hay Fever & new Home Treatment.

Sufferers are not generally aware that these diseases are contagious, or that they are due to the presence of living parasites in the lining membrane and eustachian tubes. Microscopic research, however, has proved this to be a fact, and the result of this discovery is that a simple remedy has been formulated, whereby catarrh, catarrhal deafness and hay fever are permanently cured in from one to three simple applications made at home by the patient once in two weeks. N B.—This treatment is not a snuff or an ointment; both have been discarded by reputable physicians as injurious. A pamphlet explaining this new treatment is sent on receipt of ten cents by A. H. Dixon & Son, 303 West King Street Toronto, Canada.—Toronto Globe.

Sufferers from Catarrh troubles should carefully read the above.

Volumes of bombast have been published about the multifarious irreconcilable effects of many proprietary remedies. The proprietors of Northrop & Lyman's Vegetable Discovery content themselves with facts susceptible of proof. They state their Purifier to be what it has proved itself to be, an eradicator of Dyspepsia, Constipation Liver and Kidney troubles and a fine general alterative

Rest and Comfort to the Suffering.

"Brown's Household Panacea" has no equal for relieving pain both internal and external. It cures prin in the side, back, or bowels, sore throat, rheumatism, toothache, lumbago and any kind of pain or ache. "It will most surely quicken the Blood and Heal as its acting power is wonderful." "Brown's Household Panacea," being acknowledged as the great Pain Reliever, and of double the strength of any other Elixir or Liniment in the world, should be in every family handy for use when wanted, "as it really is the best remedy in the world for cramps in the stomach, and pains and aches of all kinds and is for sale by all druggists at 25 cents a bottle.

To lessen mortality and stop the inroads of disease, use Northrop & Lyman's Vegetable Discovery and Dyspeptic Cure. For all diseases arising from impure Blood, such as Pimples, Blotches, Biliousness, Indigestion, etc., etc., it has no equal. Mrs. Thomas Smith, Elm, writes: "I am using this medicine for Dyspepsia. I have tried many remedies, but this is the only one that has done me any good."

CATARRH AND COLD IN HEAD HOW CURED

NASAL BALM

NASAL BALM CURES
COLD IN THE HEAD
CATARRH

A certain and speedy cure for Cold in the Head and Catarrh in all its stages.

SOOTHING, CLEANSING, HEALING.

Instant Relief, Permanent Cure. Failure Impossible.

Many so-called diseases are simply symptoms of Catarrh, such as headache, partial deafness, ringing sense of fullness, foul breath, hawking and spitting, mental dullness, general feeling of debility, etc. If you are troubled with any of the above symptoms you may have Catarrh, and should lose no time in procuring a bottle of Nasal Balm. Be sure and try it, for neglected cold in head results in Catarrh, followed by consumption and death. Nasal Balm is sold by all druggists, or will be sent, free by mail, on receipt of price (50 cents and $1.00) by addressing

FULFORD & CO., BROCKVILLE, ONT.

A NEW DEPARTURE IN MEDICINE.

The four great test medical centres of the world are London, Paris, Berlin and Vienna. These have immense hospitals teeming with suffering humanity. Crowds of students throng the wards studying under the Professors in charge. The most renowned physicians of the world teach and practice here, and the institutions are storehouses of medical knowledge and experience. With a view of making this experience available to the public the Hospital Remedy Co at great expense secured the prescriptions of these hospitals, patented the specifics, and although it would cost from $25 to $100 to secure the attention of their distinguished originators, yet in this way their prepared specifics are offered at the price of the quack patent medicines that flood the market and absurdly claim to cure every ill from a single bottle. The want always felt for a reliable class of domestic remedies is now filled with perfect satisfaction. The Hospital Remedies make no unreasonable claims. The specific for Catarrh cures that and nothing else; so with the specific for Bronchitis, Consumption and Lung Troubles; Rheumatism is cured by No 3, while troubles of Digestion, Stomach, Liver and Kidneys have their own cure. To these is added a specific for Fever and Ague, one for female weaknesses, a general tonic and Blood-maker that makes blood and gives form and fulness, and an incomparable remedy for Nervous Debility.

No. 1—CURES CATARRH, HAY FEVER, ROSE COLD, CATARRHAL DEAFNESS &c—The only authentic cure emanating from scientific sources now before the public. This is not a snuff or ointment—both are discarded as injurious. $1.00.

No. 2—COUGHS, COLDS, BRONCHITIS, ASTHMA, CONSUMPTION—An incomparable remedy; does not merely stop a cough, but eradicates the disease and strengthens the lungs and restores wasted tissues, giving a new lease of life. $1.00.

No. 3—RHEUMATISM—A distinguished and well-known specialist in this disease in Paris, who treats nothing else, built his reputation on this remedy. $1.

No. 4—LIVER AND KIDNEYS, DYSPEPSIA AND INDIGESTION, CONSTIPATION, BRIGHT'S DISEASE—A favorite slaughter-all for the clergy who have gained more enemies than sixpence. Use a remedy sanctioned in high places. $1.00.

No. 5—FEVER AND AGUE, DUMB AGUE, MALARIA, NEURALGIA—Few know what grave damage this does the system; it is treated to break it for all time. Use a remedy that eradicates it. $1.00.

No. 6—FEMALE WEAKNESS, IRREGULARITIES, WHITES—Many women are broken down because they neglect these diseases until it is too late to be cured. Use No. 6 and regain health and strength. $1.00.

No. 7—HEALTH, FORM AND FULNESS—Quick and good blood and lots of it. If weak, ill-fed & poor, if scrawny, use this perfect tonic. $1.00.

No. 8—NERVOUS DEBILITY, LOSS OF POWER—A quack cure-ridden public will hail a remedy for an unfortunate condition. No. 8 Cures it, one trial will prove. Beware of ignorant quacks who charge high prices for cheap worthless drugs and plus, the properties of which they are utterly ignorant, and who expose your confidential letters to others in the same unfortunate business. Use No. 8 and like again. $1.00.

ONE DOLLAR EACH.
TO BE HAD OF ALL DRUGGISTS.

If your druggist does not keep these remedies remit price to us and we will ship to you direct. Take no other remedy. Our name stands for all medicines and you cannot make a mistake. Take Hospital Remedies, which cause from immediate success, and thus prolong your life. Avoid high priced and worthless imitations that flood the country, and which are sold and lavished to others in the same disreputable localities. For memory, see specialists. The Quick Cure stores neither the morning mists of the coming day of a consumptive, and its promise firm during functions under a genuine name and last under some foreign name. We guarantee one bottle of any of our medicines to give more genuine benefit than a dozen of any special or patent medicine in the world.

ECONOMY.

Waiting for something to turn up is a poor way of acquiring wealth. Neither is spending every dollar you earn a good way. There is a happy medium and that is to make sure every dollar you pay out for the necessities and luxuries of life does full duty. If you buy your goods from second or third hands, the purchasing power of your money is decreased in proportion to the amount the middleman expects to make as his share of the profits.

Now we buy your goods just where they are made, and from those who make them. By buying in large quantities (and the nature of our trade in Guelph makes this necessary) we are able to purchase from the very people the wholesale houses buy from, so that we actually undersell others in the trade by the amount of the wholesale man's profit. This is the secret of the importer's success, that he can offer customers the very finest class of goods at prices paid elsewhere for goods of a low quality. The daily growth of our trade is ample proof of the truth of these remarks. As a rule people will buy where they obtain the best value, and a glance at the customers lining our counters in business hours shows the popular opinion of our advantages in purchasing as compared with those of other Guelph merchants.

We have been devoting particular attention to Ladies' and Children's Mantles and Jackets this season, and can offer you an almost endless variety to choose from—our Goods in this department ranging all the way from $2 to $65

MANHOOD
How Lost. How Restored!

Just published, a new edition of Dr. Culverwell's Celebrated Essay on the Radical cure of Spermatorrhœa or Seminal Weakness induced by excess or early indiscretion.

The celebrated author in this admirable essay, clearly demonstrates from a thirty years successful practice, that the alarming consequences of early error may be radically cured; pointing out a mode of cure at once simple, certain and effectual, by means of which every sufferer, no matter what his condition may be, may cure himself cheaply, privately and radically.

I CURE FITS!

When I say CURE I do not mean merely to stop them for a time and then have them return again. I MEAN A RADICAL CURE. I have made the disease of

FITS, EPILEPSY or FALLING SICKNESS

A life long study. I warrant my remedy to CURE the worst cases. Because others have failed is no reason for not now receiving a cure. Send at once for a treatise and a Free Bottle of my infallible remedy. Give Express and Post Office. It costs you nothing for a trial, and I will cure you. Address H. G. ROOT, M.C.
