An Enterprise Paper.
Last week the Streetsville Review entered upon its twenty-second year (including the old series) or its fourth year in the new series. It was first established in the year 1867, and was published continuously for eighteen years, when the plant was removed.
It was re-established Jan. 1st, 1886, by Messrs. Watson & Bell; for August, 1886, it came into the hands of its present proprietor, Mr. A. W. Fawcett, whose uniting seal has made a model newspaper, both from typographical and editorial standpoints.

INDUCTION AT STRATFORD.

On Tuesday, the 22nd ult., the Rev. Mr.
Cameron, formerly of Dungannon, was inducted into the charge Stratford and Kil-kilee congregations, and in the evening a tea meeting was held which was quite a success, considering the bad night. Speeches were delivered by the Rev. Messrs. Carterruthers, Cameron and Blafield, also by Mr. Bain, M.P., and Robert McQueen, readings by Miss Kate Robertson, Miss Mary Birken, songs were given by Mr.
Blafield and Mr. Watson. Robertson, as soon as the tea meeting was over, went to the Township that would result from the re-erection of his factory, where she should receive the serious attention of the public. We recommended some time since the calling of a public meeting for that purpose at an early date but no such meeting has yet been held. We commend the matter to the serious consideration of the new Council, as soon as they enter on their duties for the present year.
We think it would pay the townsfolk of Nassagaweya and Nelson to give each of them a chance to rebuild the factory, and thus retain a very valuable industry in their midst. It should not be passed over lightly, and thus be allowed to slip.

The Methodist Sabbath School in this place held their annual celebration on Monday evening, Dec. 30th, and had a very pleasant time. The "tree" was loaded with nice presents for the scholars. The pastor, Rev. J. Hough, was in the chair, and he and Rev. R. W. Williams addressed the assembly. The school children gave some excellent recitations, one especially by a boy who was called again. Mr. Williams recited a thrilling temperance piece with good effect and a very pleasant evening was spent. At the close of the meeting, the friends presented Miss Vickerman with a very fine and valuable set of form, in appreciation of her services, for several years past, as organist of the Methodist church in this place. The present was well deserved and reflects great credit on the deacons. We wish her health and long life to wear them.
