JINGLES AND JOKELETS.

Hallowe'en With the Wise Men, the Wits and the Paragraphics of the Day:
Worms cause feverishness, moaning and restlessness during sleep. Mother Greed. Worm Exterminator is pleasant, sure, and effectual. If your droppings have none in stock, get him to procure it for you.

Popular People.
are invariably pleasant people. Popular remedies are also as invariably pleasant to use and certain in their results. Mr. John McConnell, of Chester, Ont., says:—Nasal Balm is a good medicine for cold in the head. It is a popular remedy.

A beautiful young lady became so badly disfigured with pimples and blisters that it was feared she would die of grief. A friend recommended Ayer's Sarsaparilla, which she took, and was completely cured. She is now one of the fairest of the fair.

The Candid Truth.

I used Hayardi's Yellow Oil this winter for the first time for croup and I must say I found it better remedy for it. Miss Linton, Out. Yellow Oil is a specific for croup and sore throat; it never fails.

Gilbert Laird, St. Margaret's Hope, Orkney, Scotland, writes:—"I am requested by several friends to order another parcel of Dr. Thomas' Electroic Oil. The last I got from you having been tested in several cases of rheumatism, has given relief when doctors' medicine had failed to have any effect. The excellent qualities of this medicine should be made known, that the millions of sufferers throughout the world may benefit by its providential discovery."

Would Not Be Without.

Sizes.—We have sold your Hayardi's Pectoral Balsam for severe coughs and colds and can recommend it to be just what it is represented to be. We would not be without it.

II. SIRIN.

Cateret, Ont.
All boils seem hard to the rheumatic. Then harken ye peevish sufferers! I apply Dr. Thomas' Electroic Oil to your aching joints and muscles. Rely on it that you will experience speedy relief. Such is least, is the testimony of those who have used it. The remedy is likewise successfully resorted to for the throat and lungs.

Swimming Nurses.
is an easy way to life and suffering dyspepsia to exist in an easy way to make it miserable. Taking Burdock Blood Bitter is an easy way to cure dyspepsia and it never fails to strengthen tone and strengthen the entire system at the same time.

Fate, woe-begone invalids suffering from poverty of the blood, bilious sufferers and those whose circulation is depressed, should use without delay Northrop & Lyman's Vegetable Discovery and Dyspeptic Cure, the celebrated blood purifier, which stimulates digestion, increases the nutritive properties of the blood, and expels impurities from the system.

The oranges do not look quite so bright if the skins are not peeled with the care than those which are, but they are easier to eat. Eat every household knows of ways of eating oranges for the table. After all our oranges are something like a watermelon. However beautiful and palatable it may be when prepared for the table, it never tastes quite so sweet as when it is plucked from the tree and tucked with the vigorous assistance of both hands to squeeze out the juice.—Leicester House Journal.

IMPOLITE BOYS.

It is frequently remarked that polite behavior ought to be taught in our public schools, as it used to be taught in the older time. It would be highly proper to do so and the more because almost all Canadian boys, down in the bottom of their hearts, wish to be polite, and desire to know the best ways of behaving.

But it is said by persons who have observed the conduct of young people that the boys who pay the least regard to the rights and feelings of others are the pupils of private schools.

A young lady who has had much experience with dancing classes remarks that the rough, troublesome, sky-larking girls generally come from the most luxurious homes. They have been told often enough how to behave, they know what is proper and becoming, but, unhappily, the desire to be polite is wanting. They do not care whether their teacher is happy or miserable, unsuccessful or not successful, nor whether the children who really wish to learn are aided or hindered. They have yet to learn the merest rudiments of good behavior, for it originates in good feeling, and is developed by practice into principle. Every school and every family is a school of politeness. It maintains order and discipline. If in addition, there is an occasional lesson in the mode of good behavior, so much the better; but the essential thing is to tame the wilful heart by just discipline.

A LESSON.

A bar of iron worth $5, worked into horse shoes, is worth $10.00; made into needles, it is worth $35; made into pen knife blades, it is worth $300; made into balance springs for watches, it is worth about $500,000.

What's drilling the poor honest under-gos to such affliction? But, hammered and beaten and pounded and rolled and polished, how was its value increased? It might well have quivered and complained under the hand knuckles it got; but were they not all necessary to draw out its fine qualities and fit for such offices. And, so, children, all the drilling and training to which you are subjected to in youth, and which often seems so hard to you, serve to bring out your nobler and finer qualities, and fit you for more responsible posts and greater usefulness in the world.

CATARACT.

Cataract—Has Peter & new Home Treatment.

Sufferers are not generally aware that these diseases are contagious, or that they are due to the presence of living parasites in the living membrane and crustaceous tubes. Microscopic research, however, has proved this to be a fact, and the result of this discovery is that a simple remedy has been formulated, whereby cataract, cataract deafness and eye fever are permanently cured in from one to three simple applications made at home by the patient once in two weeks. N.B.—This treatment is not a poultice or an ointment; both have been discarded by reputable physicians as injurious. A pamphlet explaining this new treatment is sent on request of ten cents by A. H. Wilson & Son, 301 West King Street, Toronto, Canada.—Toronto Globe.

Sufferers from Cataract trouble should consult the above.

Medical treatment is used by Physicians.

USE YOUR LENIURE.

"The Devil finds some mischief still for idle hands to do." Dean Stanley gives the following advice, which will enable us not only to keep the Devil out of our leisure hours, but make them serve the good. Leisure禁锢—an idle hour waiting to be employed, idle hands with no occupation, idle and empty minds with nothing to think; these are the main temptations to evil. Full up the empty void, employ these vacuous hours, occupy these silent hands and the evil will depart, because it has no place to enter, because it is conquered by good. The best antidote against evil of all kinds, against the needless perplexities which distract the conscience, is to keep hold of the good we have. Impure thoughts will not stand against pure words and prayers and deeds. Little doubt will not avail against great certainties. Fix your attention on things above, and then you will be less taken by the cords of the temptation, the troubles of things on earth.

STEPPING ON A SHADOW.

One dark night a man who was about to leave a steamboat saw what he supposed to be a long plank, but it was only a shadow. He stepped upon it, and of course fell into the water below. He thought he was taking the right way, but his thinking so could not make any difference in the result, so long as he really did not take it. Just in matters of far greater importance, you must be right, not merely suppose you are right, if you are to avert the evil consequences of wrong doing. That man might have put it to the proof whether it was the gang-plank or not before treating himself upon it. Do not be like him, but test your beliefs and see if they are well grounded. Many a young man has been ruined by a course of conduct which at first he felt sure would do him no harm. Many a man has followed his own notions of what is right, instead of taking God's word as a guide, and awakened in eternity to find that he had stepped upon a shadow and had fallen.

THE PRINTER'S TOWER.

When I think of the tower, the old fashioned tower, that used to hang up by the printing house door, I think that nobody, in those days of shoddy can hammer out iron to wear it, worse. The trump who abased itself, the devil who set it, the compo who got it, the whores who wore it, the mason and foreman, the editor, poorman, who rubbed some grime off while they put a heap on. In over and under, 'twas harder than poverty, rougher than sin, from the ruler suspended, it never was bended, and it clapped on the wall like a banner of its own. It grew thicker and rougher, and harder and longer, and daily put on a more inky hue, until one windy morning without any warning, it fell on the floor and was broken in two.—Burdett.

QUEER HUMAN NATURE.

"Human nature is very queer, isn't it?" he observed to the man on the rear platform of the street car. "Yes, I suppose," replied the other. "People are too sensitive—altogether too sensitive." "I don't know about that." "Well, I do. For instance, now, you have a red nose. You are not to blame for it, perhaps; but you are so sensitive that if I should offer you a remedy for it you would rather have it off." "Liberate the red-nosed man as he squared off." "Told you so!" replied the other as he dropped off. "Human nature is the queerest thing on earth."—Detroit Free Press.

NELLIE MCNAUL.

Leith, Ont.
If you want to buy or sell Farm, advertising in the Toronto Weekly Mail. That paper reaches 100,000 Farmers' homes every week, and your advertisement should meet the eye of someone who wants to purchase. A Cure for Deafness.

There have been many remarkable cures of deafness made by the use of Hayardi's Yellow Oil, the great household remedy for pain, inflammation and soreness. Yellow Oil cures rheumatism, sore throat and croup, and is useful internally and externally for all pains and injuries.

For the restoration of faded and gray hair to its original color and freshness, Ayer's Wig Vapor remains unrivaled. This is the most popular and valuable toilet preparation in the world; all who use it are perfectly satisfied.

Amberacknowledges that the good received from Burdock Blood Bitter, had constipation, irregular bowel and accumulation of wind, causing severe pain in my stomach. Two bottles of B. B. B. cured me. It is all you claim it to be."—Atlas & Chase, Amherst, N. S.

The Third page of the Toronto Daily Mail is noted for "Want" advertisements. If you want to give or sell anything. If you want a cistern, a machine, a business, machinery, lodgings, if you have lost or found anything, or if you want to find where anyone is, advertise in the Toronto Daily Mail and read the advertisements on the Third page of that paper. The charge is Two Cents a word each insertion. Address The Mail, Toronto, Canada.

Mr. John Magwood, Victoria Road, writes: "Northrop & Lyman's Vegetable Discovery and Dyspeptic Cure a splendid medicine. My customers say they never use anything more effectual. Good results immediately follow its use. I know it from personal experience, having been troubled for 9 or 10 years with Dyspepsia. Since using it digestion goes on without that depressing feeling so well known as dyspepsia. I have no hesitation in recommending it in any case of Indigestion, Constipation, Heartburn, or troubles arising from a disordered stomach."

It is worse than madness to neglect a cough or a cold which is easily subdued if taken in time, becomes, when left to itself, the forerunner of consumption and premature death. Inflammation, when it attacks the delicate tissue of the lungs and bronchial tubes, travels with pernicious rapidity; then do not delay, get a bottle of Bickley's Anti-Consumptive Syrup, the medicine that grinds this formidable force of the human body, and drives it from the system. This medicine promotes free and easy expectoration, subdues the cough, heals the diseased parts, and exerts a strong wonderful influence in curing consumption, and other diseases of the throat and lungs. If parents wish to save the lives of their children, and themselves from much anxiety, trouble and expense, let them procure a bottle of Bickley's Anti-Consumptive Syrup, and whenever a child has taken cold it has a cough or hoarseness, give the syrup according to directions.

Rest and comfort to the suffering.

"Brown's Household Panacea" has no equal for relieving both internal and external. It cures ills in the side, neck, or bowels, sore throat, rheumatism, toothache, lameness and any kind of pain or ache. "It will most surely quicken the blood and heal as its acting power is wonderful." "Brown's Household Panacea," being acknowledged as the great "Ailment Remover, and of double the strength of any other Elixir or Balsam in the world, should be in every family handy for use when wanted. "It is really the best remedy in the world for cramps in the stomach, and pains and aches of all kinds and is for sale by all druggists at 25 cents a bottle."
