intereffect on Nov 17th

LONING MAILS. and 5 Mp.m.

THE TABLE

SPAYIN CURE

CONT. ORD, Dec. 78, DEC.

FREE

the transfer warmed bury

Both of the beating condi-Both letter and create area. We will will aid cases of equal cabo. Ore remove the extreme with our letter when the case seems to the territory with our letter when the case of H americal when the case of H americal who is a seem to care the wholes the case of H americal wholes whol

SCALE WORKS ANADA. STYLES OF

WANTED In every Township. To sell "The Pictorial Cyclopedia of Live Stock and Complete Stock Doctor."

The most complete and comprehensive work ever published. Its authors stand at the head f their profession and have a continental reputation. Worth its weight in gold to any one having Horses, Sheep, Cattle, Swine, Poultry, Dogs or Bees. A grand opportunity to make money. Secure territory at once. Address E. N. MOYER, Publisher,

120 Yonge St. Toronto

WANTED.

ALESMEN to sell Nursery Stock. All Goods warranted first-class. Permanent pleasant profitable positions for the right men. Good salaries and expenses paid weekly. Liberal inducements to beginners. No previous experience necessary Outfit free. Write for terms giving age. CHARLES H. CHASE, Nurserymen,

Acton Free

Mress.

ACTON, ONTARIO, THURSDAY, MARCH 20, 1890.

Poetry.

A Quaker lady rose to speak?

A Quaker lady, agod alid week.

With heir as white as snow.

now gone by.

Whon I was a new-wod wife,

Tottering hard by the fearful brink

And said, "I entrest thee, shen

The evil habit and take the plodge;

Thou art so near the perilous edge-

Abstain, or thou ert undoue."

And serve them all with wine.

And every day your glass I fill:

Of a drunkard's death in life.

We had a servant much given to drink.

"Deeply I grieved o'er the man such his sin

"'At your table, good medam, I wait,' be

'And when company comes to dive,

I place three glasses, by your command,

'And every day by your chair do I stand,

Throughout the whole of the year:

You always drink it, thinking no ili-

And my conscience smote me sore;

I know thou heat done so, James, I said :

"Greatly I fear that my thoughthes ways

But if thou will abetain, by help Divine,

From thy spirits and beer, I will leave

So we took the plodge, and for many a year

Why shouldn't I have my beer?

Thou shalf do so now no more.

May lead thy soul to death;

From now till my latest breath

We kept our temperance vow:

His name and memory now.

As only the dying can,

To sava sinking toan.

"I trust his soul is safe above.

For he sought the Lord of a truth;

For the pledge I took in my youth."

Select Family Reabing.

The Pedagogue's Lesson

BY STLVANTS CORE, JE

Our opening scene-s small country school-house-a simple but in size and England farming district. It could hardly

And I thank my God, now I'm feeble and old,

And a happy home and children dear

Had James : and the whole of us revere

"And when he was dying he thanked God

That the Lord had belped me to make

Against evil ways, and to streich out

A reverent stilluces came over the crowd

"In our household," the said, "many yes

The Acton Free Press FIRE INSURANCE. The subscriber lasures for four stock said four mutual companies; as follows :-EVERY THURSDAY MORNING.

VOLUME XV .-- NO. 38.

Free Pries Steam Printing Office.

WILL STREET, T. . ACTON, ONT.

Trans or Streetinos-Oue dollar per year of raid in advance, or within three months from ecinolag of year; $1.50 per year if not so paid.

H. P. MOORE.

Business Birectorn.

H. LOWRY, M. B., M.C. P. S o Graduate of Trinity College, Member of

PRINCIAN, SCRGEON, ACCOCCRECTA

M.D. CM_F.TM.C. M.CP.&S.O.

195 College St., Toronto.

Late assistant in Control London, Eng., Throat

ETT. EAR, NOSE AND THROAT.

OFTICE - 2 Avenue Street College Avenue,

SCHOLON, DENTIST, GEORGETOWN,

Viets Acton at Agnew's Hotel on the second and fourth Wednesday of each month.

Office in Georgewen, first door south of Bap

Barristers, Solicitors, Notaries, Conveyancers

Office:-Town Hall. Acton

WE A. McLEIX. : JEO. A. McLEIX.

BURESTER, SQUICTION, NOTICE PUBLIC.

Orrice Dars-Tuesday and Saturday.

reter :- Matthews' Block, - Acton, up-stairs

TORONTO AND GROEGETOWN.

T. T. LILLS. 7. SEILTON, B.L. J. ELIED, B.L.

HENEY GRIST, OTTAKL, CANADA.

Twenty Years Practice. No Patent, No Par.

LICENSED ACCHONEER

ARCHITECT,

(Successor to T. F. Chapman

BOOKBINDER,

Academt Books of all kinds made to order Periodicals of every description carefully bound. Ruling neatly and promptly done.

THE HANLAN BARBER SHOP,

MILL STREET, ACTOR. .

An easy share, a stylish hair-cut, a good ses-foam an exhibitrating shampoo, always given. Basors honed and put in first-class condition. Ladies' and children's hair tastily out.

Lumber and Shingles.

Quinec Sterer, Greife.

CLARK & CARTER,

DIEECT Importers of Granite and Marble Monuments and Headstones of all shades and from the newest designs. All work and material warranted first-class. Parties wishing to purchase, will please give us a call and inspect our stock and prices, as we are confident we can compete with any establishment in Ontario.

Having so'd out my interest to the above firm.

J & H. WORDEN, Tonsorial Artists.

Barristers, Solicitors, &c.

FOR INVENTIONS

Money to Loan.

CHILTON, ALLAN & BAIRD,

DATENTS SECURED

WM. HEMSTREET,

same of 8500 and apwards.

MBANCIE NUNAN

TOHN DAY,

F. HALSTED, M.D.

DR. ERNEST HALL.

MCKINLAY, L. D.S.

MCLEAN & MCLEAN

T. MOMIT.

PHYSICIAN, STREET, ETC.

bouse, corner Mill and Frederick streets.

treet Acton. . .

DR. AULD.

C E. STACEY.

STOCE. MUTUAL ETKA WATERLOO MUTHAL ROYAL CANADIAN HUROK & MIDDLESEX THE CITY OF LOSDOK We incure private dwellings three years from Conta up to #1.30 per $100 and mercantile risks from 75 cents to 81.50. Liberal adjustments and promp jayments by the above companies. The date to which every subscription is paid is denoted by the date on the address label: A. LAING, Agent APPERTISING RATES - Transient selectise-

WANTED.

CONTRACT RATHE-The following table shows COOD, reliable men ean fad permanent emour rates for the insertion of advertisements for ployment for Maple Grove Numeries of Waterloo, N. Y. Good Salary and expenses paid weekly. Liberal inducements to becinners. 14 YR. (6 NO. 18 NO. 11 NO. Outst free. Previous experience not required. Established over 2) years. All goods first-class. Write at ouce for terms, Address, J. W. McKar, Gen. Manager, St. Thomas Out. (Mention this

Advertisements, without specific directions, will be inserted till forbid and charged accord-Lumber, Lath & Shingles. ir. Transiett advertisemente must be paid CATERS Will, Nessagareys, bas now in stock all kinds needed for building purposes. This mill has a well established reputation for first-Changes for contract advertisements must be in the office by ? s.m. on Tuesdays, otherwise ther will be left over until the following week. class lumber and reasonable prices. Listh and Shingles on hand. We are prepared to supply efery want in our line. Editor and Projector. PETER SAYERS Namesawtya, P.O AT A LOW PRICE. THE undersigned has been instructed by Dr.

I Rolt. Walter to offer for sale life projecty in Acton, consisting of lot 8 in block 10 On the lot is a good france dwelling, a stable, hard and soft water and a number of fruit trees. For College of Physicians and Surgeons.
Office and residence: -At the bead of Frederick terms and particulars apply at once to H. P. MOOKE. FREE PRESS Office, Acton, Out Wellington Steam Laundry. Money !

COLLURS to Family Washing without frozing tie. per dez. Family Washing with Ironing Se, per doc. Gentleman's Washing and Repairing Sec. per All work guaranteed lest in Canada. Office and Works, 36 Quebec streets. Goods left with Kelly Bros., our abouts at Acton, will be sent to the laundry and returned Brance AND DRUG STORE :- Mill Stree to their more free of charge, at above prices. E. HACKNEY, Profrietor.

BOTAL COLLEGE OF PRYSICIANS, EDINSCROE. Guelph Business College. GUELPH, ONTARIO. ESTABLISHED 1884.

Will be at Wellington Hotel, Guelph, first and third Tuesday of each month, from 10 a.m., tog This institution offers special and appender adventages, obtainable at no other Canadian college. Studente ceter at aby time. Indies are admitted to the same advantages as centlemen. A strict and impartial discipline and thorough instruction by teachers who are all specialists in their line are noteworthy L BENNETT, L.D.S., DENTIST, features of the institution. All a boccutemplate course of practical business training should pot fail to communicate with the undersigned Circulars and fall information mailed free on M. MACCORMICK, Principal.

> W. BARBER & BROS. PAPER MAKERS.

GEORGETOWN, ONT. MAKE A SPECIALITY OF

Machine Finished Book Papers

HIGH GRADE WEEKLY SEWS

The paper used in this journal is from Offices :- Creeiman's Block, Georgetown, and 86 the above mills. WM. BARBER & BROS.

> -ACTON-PUMP FACTORY.

PLANING MILL

For the Counties of Wellington and Halton. Orders left at the FEER PRESS office. Acton. or THOS. EBBAGE, Man. at my residence in Acton, will be promptly attended to. Terms reasonable.

Also money to loan on the most favorable

I have resumed the management of the primp business in Actor and would respectfully inform all parties in want of primps that we are now prepared to supply them from The old Style Wooden Pump to the GUELPH, OST. Best Force Pump made. Orrack:-Queen's Hotel Block, Market Square. supplied on short notice.

Pumps for Wind Mills or Bock Wells Deep Wells a Specialt. PRICES RIGHT EVERY TIME, St. George's Square, - . Guelph, Outario. Our Planing Mill

Lumber dressed while you walt. Mouldings Ac., made to order. We have also a quantity of Lumber for sale, suitable for building purposes. Orders by first will receive prompt and careful Shop at foot of River Street.

THOS. EBBAGE. Manager

HAMILTON'S MARBLE WORKS J. H. Hamilton

recently visited the Bay of Fundy Granite Quar-ries and purchased one of the largest, best and cheapest stocks of Granite Monu-THE understaned have on hand at their mills at Limehouse about 10,000 feet of pine lumber, and are prepared to supply farmers and others with any quantity of lumber for barns of the supply farmers o mente, de ever imported to Ontario. He will continue to sell at other brildings at reasonable prices. A stock of pine and codar shingles is also on hand. TAYLOR BROTHERS. 15 % Discount on Direct Orders himself: With 17 years experience and harminion I dely competition. All new stock and warranted the very best in the market. A call solicited. Wellington Marble Works. OFFICE AND WOMEN,-Hamilton's Block (for-merly Hatches, Cor. Norfolk and Buffilk Ste. GTELPH. ONT.

> MUTUAL FIRE INSURANCE COMPANY,

I respectfully solicit the patronage to my friends and the public on their behalf.

J. H. HAMILTON COUNTY OF WELLINGTON. ESTABLISHED 1940. HEAD OFFICE - GUELPH Insgres Buildings, Merchandise, Manufactories and all other descriptions of insurable property. F. W. STONE, CHAS DAVIDSON, President. JOHN TAYLOR, AGENT.

Coal & Wood.

JAMES BROW

Has on hand a large quantily of excellent coal | Weil Equipped and Stylish Rigs can alwhich he will promptly deliver to any part of the town at reasonable prices.

Hardwood and slabs cut stove length always on hand. Telephone communication.

A TEMPERANCE STORY. At a temperance meeting held in dur town It may be a year ago, 1890.

As we all bent forth to hear While she told a story in Quaker phrase. STOCK RECEIVED Simple and sweet, like her people's ways. In a voice still firm and clear.

700 Volumes Alta Edition 12 mo. Books, strong cloth cover and good paper, at 25 cents each

The new Baby Carriages for 1890 are very fine and a big drop in price.

Village Property for Sale | DAY'S BOOKSTORE GUELPH

In order to exchange part of

SPOT CASH we offer the following extraordinary inducements:-

10 per cent. reduction on all purchases from 10 ceats to $1.00 IS per cent from $1.00 to $3.00.

per cent on all purchases from $5.00 up-Patent Medicines. Fancy Goods. Jewelry, Silverware, Books, Stationery, Library Books. Bibles. Hymnals, &c Uso a fine assortment of Tollet Articles and

M. CARLISLE. -Mrs. Secord's Block, Acton, Unt.

J. V. KANNAWIN Druggist

N. McGARVIN.

My Stock is now complete

Fancy Goods

For the next few weeks

Waters Bros.,

THE PICTURE GALLERY. - GUELP

ORNICE POLES from Me.

Colors, Water Colors, China Colors, Brushe Etc., Etc. Heady Mixed Paints, Aspen-sall's Enamels, Cords, Wires, Nails, Chains, Hooks, Etc.

WATERS BROS.,

YES!

WINTER IS HERE,

W. J. LEE, The Tailor,

East End Clothing Store

-ACTON-

ways be Secured

LIVERY

W. J. LEE.

BUS LINE.

ST. GEORGE'S SQUARE.

BRASS BODS.
BANNER BODS from Lic.
ARTISTS' MATERIALS

with everything found in a first-class drug store.

Big Bargains

ACTON.

hobitants; and yet, as we must now write, that time. -ANDtowns of the State. Stationer.

three-score - a Scotchman by birth, named | estate-au estate of but little value when | aged debtor." Robert Bruce. He was tall and gaunt, his father left it, but very valuable now, with a pleasant, healthful face, though he and growing more and more valuable day could look stern enough when occasion by day. required. He had the head of a philoso-

As we look into the school on a Saturday morning in early spring, the good old peds. | chase. But Charles was wise. He offered corne had been for a considerable time ill at ease. Evidently there was something ing capitalist, but he would not sell outupon his mind which gave him much un- right. He would sell certain rights and rest. At length he spoke, as speaks one privileges, but he would retain an interest. who enters upon an important theme.

"Charles Eddy!" "Here, sir," answered a boy of ten or twelve summers, arising in his place.

with thee." The boy advanced to the space before and a family grew up around him; and the master's desk, and looked up with the time came when he took his own son comething of defiance in the expression of apon his knee, a bright-eyed boy of ten his handsome face. Perhaps he suspected | years - and told him the story of the lifewhat was coming.

"Charles, dost remember of telling me years agone. The boy listened with deepthat thy mother kept thee at home on the est interest; and when the story had been afternoon of Thursday last ?" The boy did not reply.

evening, and she knew nothing of thine "Ah!" answered the father, shaking his absence at that time. Heat any excuse to bead sadly, "he must be dead long ere offer for the falsebood ?" The boy looked up with dogged determination in his countenance, but did not speak. "Charles, thou didst a thing very wrong | twenty years of age, and for seven successin playing truent, but thy falsehood was live years thereafter his townsmen kept worse-that was wicked. Give me thy him in the same office. And he would hand. I dislike much to punish thee-to have been sent on the eighth year had not give thee pain-but the whole school knows | the citizens of a broader circuit demanded thine error, and it must witness the punish-The old pedagogue took the hand of the boy-a fair, plamp, and prettily dimpled Eddy was appointed upon the Committee hand-and proceeded to administer the | on Prisons, and in the course of his round

did not shrink, nor did be wince. He re- largest and most important of the city ceived his punishment without a sign of jeils-the City Prison, it was usually pain, and was then sent back to his seat : | ealled. and during the remainder of the session his face wore an angry and vindicative look. His lips were compressed and bloodless, his hands tightly clenched, and his debtors." whole frame rigidly set, like one resolved upon some vengeful deed. Bobert Bruce saw, and understood, and he determined that the boy should not leave him in such a frame of mind if he could help it. when it came time to dismiss the school he rour winter clothing. Now, in order that all may be well clothed for the cold weather, I have determined to sell my big stock at prices slightbade Charles Eddy remain with him for

You can get good ordered clothing warranted to fit. Good material and honest workmanship at the price of slop made ready-make goods. The boy stood before his aged teacher bold and defiant, with lips pale and eyes fissbing. The old man had closed the door Leave your order at once and I will give you. behind the last retiring solular and returned to his place. "Charles, I have asked thee to tarry cause I love thee so well and so truly that would do thee great good. Look me the eye! Ah! Charles, there is a passion akin to marder in thy bosom. Aye, ever since I punished thee thou has thought only of vengeance. I do not mean thou wouldst ever have done so wicked a thing as to do bodily harm to an old man like me, but thou has thought only of vengeance nevertheless.

The undersigned respectfully solicits the patron-age of the public, and informs them that At his stables. A comfortable has meets all trains between 9 s. m. and 818 p. m.

Careful attention given to every order

The wadts of Commercial Travellers fully met. JOHN WILLIAMS. snother? And thou does well know that is no more business in him than there is in fal.

ment that giveth pain to the body. "O, my child ! if thou couldst have seen ! to thee. She loves thee above all other | the notes negotiable." earthly things, and to thee she looks for "Acother thing, dear boy, for thine own ear. Thou art by far the most promising lad I have in my school. Thy meutal powers are strongest, and the possibilities and the brightest ..

thou let me belp thee to lay the foundation hood that shall command the respect and esteem of all who know thee ! O. dear Three glasses fair at each guest's night hand boy! son of a blossed mother! will thou help me in the work of thine education? Come to me when in doubt or in trouble, and let me be to thee a true and loyal friend. Wilt thou give me thy hand and The words of that man went fome to my good work?" . . .

The old pedagogue had conquered. Charles gave him his hand, and when they | than anything else. And, moreover, they west forth from the little school-bouse | had offered to hire bim, and he would not Thou hast, and I take the blame on my beadthey went hand in hand, friends forever. serve them. Yes, it was vengeful."

> resolutely towards a worthy manhood. Time passed on. The little hamlet was wanted a younger and more polished pedagather up his scanty store and seek a new field of labor. Charles Eddy had then grown to be a stout, rugged youth, healthful and handsome, with an education as good as could have been gained in any academy in the land. Robert Bruce had taught him Greek and Latin ; had led him understandingly through the mazes of Euclid, besides perfecting him in the com-And the days of the years of my life are night mon branches of school education. Charles wept when he bade his faithful friend a final adieg, for he felt that the good old man was passing out from the life of that village for all time. give up all claim." And still time passed on, natil Robert Bruce had well righ passed out from the life and recollection of his loving pupil, assure himself that there was no mistake, sive audience bears up the speaker, who answer, "No." "Well, I will teach thee Charles Eddy's father had been the chief So he walked slowly past the grated door, otherwise would fail. Mr. Gladstone once how to perform a curious chemical experiman in the place, when living. Having and saw standing directly before him, with said, "A speaker gets from his hearers in ment," the old gentleman would answer. owned by far the greater portion of the his grand old face at the bars, his old tutor vapor that which he gives back to them in "Go home, take a piece of soap, put it in territory in and around the little village of the other years. He was forced to hurry flood," and when they have got it they re- water, and rab it briskly on thy hands and and when the village began to grow, and on, not only to hide the tears that would turn it to him with interest. shape—in the central hamlet of a New | prosperity came, the dwellers therein, in | not stay down, but to smother the cry that | regular town meeting assembled, unani- rose to his lips. He did not pass the cell young Christian who has come out from the thy skin will be. That's a chemical ex-

lies made up the sum of its permanent in- Eddyville, and Eddyville it became from that insignificant settlement has grown to The first upward step was the develop- them had beld out in the cruel cause, and Give him a warm hand-shate, a word of uncalled for baggage, after the limited exbe one of the foremost manufacturing ment of an immense water-power within a bought up all claims held against Robert praise, or a smile of recognition when he pistol shot of the centre of the old hamlet, | Bruce. In the little school house were the peds- on land belonging to Charles Eddy; for gogue and a score of pupils. The former | Charles was then of age, and had taken | sinking behind the western hills, the war: | and will be disappointed if he fails. If he was a white haired old man, not far from possession and assumed control of his den and the turnkey came to the cell of the does a noble thing give him a cheer by tell-> "Wherefore at this hour ?? Business men of wealth and experience iron door, and the prisoner had stepped out in your gates. No matter how brief a came on and saw the wonderful possibilities of the water-power and offered to purevery honorable inducement to the incom-

And he did so. So the town grew, and the manufacturing interests prospered; and, in time, Charles Eddy became one of the weathiest remaining hours. I shall not burden you Bring the flowers that you are keeping for swer "Stealing." when Master four-year-"Come hither, Charles. I would speak and most infinential, and one of the most long. If you turn me out upon the wide, their coffins and strew along their paths old exclaimed: "I know what that would honored men in that section. He married, wide world, friendless and forlore, what to-day while they are alive to inhale their be, papa! That would be mutton!" shall I do ?"

lesson given him by Robert Bruce, in the told he blessed, in his childish heart, the Then the warden led him away beyond influence he is exerting? good old pedagogue, and promised that he "Ah! thou didst tell me so; and thy | would never tell a lie. And the little one speech was false. I saw, thy mother last | saked-" Where is old Robert Brace now?

this. God bless him, be where he may Charles Eddy had become almost a permanent fixture in the State Legislature. He had been first elected when-five-and. extended his hand. "Yes answered the old man, in a low quivering whisper, the wan and time-worn his services in the State Senate ; and to the Seuste he was elected. During this session in the Senate Charles usual punishment of the ferule. Charles of duties in that office he visited one of the "Here, geutlemen," said the warden. who was conducting the committee over the place, "is the department of the poor "Yes, yes, I am Charles Eddy : come to The heart of Charles Eddy was keeply repay, so far as I can, a debt that never "Poor debtors! Poor debtors! Alas and in a Christian land! I do not like it. There may be cases where extreme in- your home while life is yours." ducement of force becomes necessary; but he creditor should not have power to im-is a case that might drag sympathy from a heart of stone. An old man, fully fourscore years of age-just tottering on the verge of the grave-shut up here for debt ! One of the committee asked the warden he knew the circumstances of the case. "Yes," he answered. "The old has told me his story ; and I know that told it truly. He was formerly Professor of Greek and Latin, and the higher branches of mathematics, in a private academy. Said academy had been started in opposition to another institution of like character. in a neighboring town, the matter of ing scree s' manufacturing concerns. "Charles, let me speak a gord for thine religion, or seot, being the 'dividing On arriving at his own handsome resiar slope. Hadst thou been mine only line between them. This old man knew dence, Charles led the accient pedagogue pupil, or had all the others been like thee. nothing of that. The academy had been at once to the great drawing-room, where He probably means that the preacher had I should never have administered corporal in operation several months when he was his mother sat, with three of his children. been doing some visiting. panishment; but thou knowest the com- persuaded to join its faculty. In time the Mrs. Eddy recognized the new-comer at position of the school. Hall I refrained projectors of the institution persuaded our sight. She was upon her feet in a moment, business of faithful Christian churches to there be pupils of mine who have not youder kitten; had there been he would ." Mr. Bruce! Dear old friend! O, this minds above the understanding of punish. Dever have suffered himself to be dragged is joy! I hope you have come to leave us into the mess as he did.

" However, they represented to him that | By and by Robert Bruco sat down and thy widowed mother as I saw her! If | things were going on swimmingly, and he | took the children upon his knee, one after thou couldst have seen the marks of bitter | cousented to become one of the corporators. | another, and his heart swelled with a rapanguish that I saw, I think thy heart He thought it was a grand thing. And in | fore beyond the power of tongue to tell. would have been moved. She did not feel that capacity he signed a number of notes | Then the wife and mother came and the so bad because thou hast been a truant, - given by the corporation ; he had not the old man wanted nothing more to ab, no! it was the falsehood that shocked least idea of what he was doing; to him it the cup of his bliss when he had seen that her. Charles, she has been a good mother | was but a mere form, necessary to render | she welcomed him from the very depths of her heart she truly did.

"Well,-in the time the academy burst | And so the good old man had found a the joy and the comfort of her declining up; and this end was chiefly brought about | home of- comfort and of blessedness at by the coming upon them, in a lump of length, and he was not beyond the powers their outstanding notes. It appeared that of usefulness. Not only had the aged one or two of the corporators of the rival widow, now past her three-score years. institution had bought them at a big dis- found a genial companion, but the children count; and thus armed, they came down | had found a valuable helper in their schoolof thy life, now in-its bud, are the broadest apon their opponent, and brought him to fessous, and ere many months had passed grief. But in one sense, they had bitten off the teacher at the village school observed "Charles, think : What manner of man | their own fingers. When the holders of the | that Eddy's children were progressing in wilt thou be in the coming time ? O! wilt | notes presented them for payment, of the | their studies in a truly wonderful manner. signers this old man was the only one to be | "Grandpa," said little Charley, as he sat of a manhood noble and honored - man- found. The others had all dissuppeared. | one evening upon the old man's knee. " ! They found him, however, and as he had know something that you did for my papa, not a dollar of money, they took his body, when he was a little boy just like me. You gave him a lesson so that he couldn's never and sent it hither for safe keeping." "A simple matter of vengeance." said a suy more tell a naughty story; and he dave is to me. That was what made me love you before I ever saw you."

"Give him a cheer," said a voice in the

of his well-prepared oration. "Give him

"Give him a cheer." No matter where r when, or how you come into contact with poor, struggling human souls, lend them hand-give them a cheer that will bely them to live better, nobler lives .- Christian

SULUNON IN ALL HIS GLURY.

The sumptuous palaces which he had erected for his own residence display an opulence and profusion which may vie with the older monarchs of Egypt and Assyria. His great palace stood in Jern-and, landing directly to the temple, united the part either of Acrs or Zion on which the palace stood, with Mount Moriah. In this place was a vast hall for public business, from its codar pillars called the House of the Forest of Lebanon." It was 175 feet long, balf that measurement in width, above fifty feet high. Besides similar dimensions, 10 one of which the throne of justice was placed. The harem, or woman's apartments, adjoined these baildings, with other piles of vast extent particularly, if we may credit Josephus, a informs us that the whole was surrounded by spacious and luxurious gardens. Another palace was built in a romantic part of the country, in the valleys at the foot of Letanon, for his wife, the daughter of the King of Egypt, and as a summer residence.

THINGS SAID AND DONE.

When a christian receives a special bles.

ing, it is a divine command to go work in the vineyard of the Lord. Blessings and

If you begin the day with prayer you wil be very likely to end it with thanksgiving,

and a day thus begun and ended is a bappy

Senator Colquitt said, "It is the or

The Presiding Elder of a district in Cali

"It is," says the Methodist Times, "the formia reports that one of his charges labors for Christ's sake go together.

men." That is the whole of it.

And the second s

this great hall there were two others

"You are right," nolded the warden. "O, my blessed boy !"-holding him "This old man's wonderful capacity for with it the pledge of thy faithfulness to the Greek and Latin, and the very bighest close to his bosom. " May the richest gifts branches of mathematics, had done more of Heaven be thine, now and evermore. towards attracting popils to their rivals God will bless this household, I know." "GIVE HIM A CHEER."

Mr. Eddy the chairman of the committee, came from the lips of some one in the rowd And from that time Charles Eddy turn. had been strangely moved during the later | pathered around the building enveloped in ed over a new leaf. His good old teacher part of this recital, and had not spoken. flames, and were prompted by a momentary had given him new ambition, and under He had started toward the door of the cell, faltering of a brave fireman at the final that teacher's guidance he turned his face | when the warden called him back with the effort that was needed to save a human life.

Instantly hats were waving in the air, and, "If you please, sir, one moment. It above the crackling and roaring of the fire, growing to quite a village, and the people pains the old man to be stared at. If you the cheering of the multitude below fell upwish to see him, do not show that you have on the ears of the wavering fireman. Elecgogue; so Robert Bruce was forced to any curiosity in the matter. If you could trified by the applause he renewed his spare time to converse with him, -ah, that efforts, beat back the flames that scorched would please him."

"What is his name?" "Robert Bruce. He is a Scotchman by through a cloud of smoke and fire bore his birth, and the first forty years of his life was | unconscious barden to her weeping friends spent in the higher educational institutions | below. of Edinburgh."

"What is the amount of his indebtedness? | andience, as the young aspirant for acade-Or, for what could the paper outstanding mical honors began to hesitate in the midst against him be bought up ?"

"The full face amount is something over a cheer," and as the appreciated hozza was four thousand dollars, but the creditors raised, the heart of the youth gathered new have offered to take two thousand, and courage, so that he succeeded in winning old Quaker, thei a boy with a dirty face or with the old man at that time, but he would | the applause of a sympathetic and respon- The boy with a wonderous stare, would have been called a village, for twelve fami- | monely roted that the town should be named | on his return.

On the following day Charles Eddy saw trying to live a consecrated life. He needs the men, or rather man, for only one of more than an interest in your prayers. begins to faint or falter by the way. Let Late on Friday afternoon, as the sun was him know that you appreciate his efforts. ing him he has done well. It will give him strength to meet new trials and tempta "You may come out, Mr. Bruce."

The turnkey had unlocked the heavy "Robert Bruce you are a free man!" I has an interest in his welfare. " Free ! gasped the old man. " Free!

do not understand." "Your debt is paid, and you are free." "Free," he repeated, half to himself, loudly for cheering words and helpful minbrushing his hand across his brow. " Free. istries. Do not keep the cheer that would pasture with his two little boys, and said with earth. Let me rest here for the few around their tombs when they are dead. what would that be?" expecting the an-sweet fragrance. "Give them a cheer." Words of hones "Dear man," said the warden, kindly praise will spoil no man. If you gain and persuasively, at the same time taking blessing from a sermon or prayer, it will him by the arm, "come with me to my encourage the preacher to hear you say so. sitting-room, and we will see what can be If some one's holy living strengthens you done. You shall not be turned out upon and belos you on to a better life, would not the cold world all alone, be you sure he be happing know of the unconscious the confines of the prison to his own quarters; led him into his handsomely furnished drawing room, where a gentleman stood ready to meet him -a gentleman, not young, tall, strong and handsome, one of the grandest-looking men, he thought, that he had ever seen. The gentleman advanced, and "Robert Bruce, do you know me !"

face seeming transformed. "Thou art the angel that fitted across by vision two days ago as I stood at the door of my prisonroom. I know not whence the inspiration, but it seemed to me that thou wert a spirit of life and light, and not of earth. That night I dreamed of thee; and in the dream another form-one of earthly mould-was envolved from thy spirit substance. I saw -No!-No! Is this a fancy of my disordered brain,-or-art thou-" With a low, wailing cry the old man tottered forward, and rested both his bands upon the gentleman's shoulders.

can be wholly paid. Dear old friend, true guide and guardian of my boyhood, you shall come with me and my bome shall be great banqueting hall. The same author-The old man tried to speak but could He could only rest his head upon the shoulder of his new-found friend and burst into "In youder cell," the warden continued. sobbing and tears. That evening Eddy took his old tutor to his own botel, where he dansed suitableclothing to be procured, and on the following morning they took the cars for Eddyville. which place they reached shortly after noon. There had been no railroad in that region when Robert Bruce had last known the place, and he knew not where he was until Charles had informed him. Where the little old hut of a school-house used to stand now stood a stately academy of brick and stone and where once he had fished for trout and perch now arose the walls, cover from the ferule in thy case, how could I old friend to become one of the owners and both her hands nutatretched, with the light atter unpleasant truths, and to make the have conscientionaly administered it to business managers. Poor old man I there of a holy joy making her aged face beauti- devil and all his segvants very uncomfort-

PRICE THREE CENTS.

TO A PRINTING PRESS. Thou great dispenser of the thoughts of man ; What magic changes since thy work began! To count their numbers both on land and see Would task thy I owen, all powerful though the

> Up from the ages of the mighty vast; Trophics by Greece bequeath'd, in hiving light As when her beroes led ber hosts in flight Her Epic Bard-through thee so longer blind Erect before us -miracle of mind. The Greece of sages near, instead of far When Homer sang his mythic atrains of war. Rome claimed " bumanity." yet tot'ring fell : A Carsar's prowess-tho' the living spell That lit up many a field for traumph ripe-Fail'd. Why? He lacaed a legion of the type!

ly thee are gather'd voices of the past

Where winter's fires burn blittlely on the hearth And youth drinks deep of pleasantry and mirth Thy leaden impress tells of love and peace-A cross, a tomb-life shed to save our race, Nor war's dire clang, nor tyrant's hanghiy sway Can stay thy merch in this our later day: As endless as thy circles that impress Shall be the treasure we in thee possess.

and circling west a grat'ful world enfold; How sad to find thy hunger ofti sprpeas'd As if by nutriment from hell released. Sleudet my tribute, conqueror of kines; Thy weapon's "forms" that "lock" such tiny

Il speaking comfort, praise of poisoned blame. And rays effulgent mix'd with tales of shame. woud'ring watch thy swift revolving wheels. And as I watch a vision o'er me steals; see proud bosts array'd on land and sea Vanquished and scattered, gallant Paras, thee! Herald of light! Though villains use thy pow For vilest crime, where low-born passions lower, Yet thou'rt sujureme to comfort and to bless. Our freedom's charter lives in thee, oh! Parss.

PLEASANTRIES. " I was looking at a new stove for you o day, wife," axid Crimsonbeak to the partner of his joys and sorrows the other night, as he was about to leave the house. What was the name of it, John ?"

The Husband, I believe it was called." " O, don's get one of those. It will be ure to go out every night. Lawyer-Are you a brother of John Smith of Nebraska, sir ? his face, burst in the window that would Smith-I am ; but I haven't heard anynot vield to the young girl s strength, and thing from him for years. "Well, he died last month." "Indeed! Did he leave anything?" "Yes ; he left everything he had in the world to you."

" Good - how much ? " Eight children and the mortgage on the When Issac, Hooper, the distinguished the scholarship, which to him meant much | with dirty hands, be would stop him and Eddy concluded that he would not speak | more than empty bonors. In this very way | inquire," Has thee ever studied chemistry?".

face. Thou hast no idea what a beautiful "Give him a cheer." Who? Why, that froth it will make, and how much whiter world, and in the midst of temptation is periment. I advise thee to try it."

> The man who sits down and waits to be appreciated will find himself among the press had gone by. " Look at Brown over there in the cor-

Smith-" Yes : baried in deep thought," Jones - Shallow grave, isn't it?"

FUNNY LITTLE FULKS. Affittle girl who had mastered her cate-"Give him a cheer "-the stranger withditte confessed herself disappointed "bedause," she said, "though I obey the fifth tarrying he may make, bid him welcome. commandment and honor my pape and Do not let him go away feeling that no one mamma, yet my days are not a bit longer in the sand, because I am put to bed at "Give them a cheer." A host of weary, seven o'clock." toiling men and women are to-day calling Mr. A. was walking past Mr. B.'s sheep Ah! and where now shall I rest my weary bless them lying idly in your bearts or to the elder: " If I should go Into that head? O! this is mockery! I have done trembling unsaid upon your lips to scatter pasture and take one of the sheep home,

> One of the school board, going his rounds as an amateur, put this question to a scholar in a country school; " How do you parse 'Mary milked the cow?" The last word was disposed of thus : ! Cow is a noun feminine gender, ringular number, third person, and stands for Mary." "Stands for Mary!" exclaimed be of the board. How do you make that out?" "Because," added the intelligent popil, at if the cow didn's stand for Mary, how could Mary

Little Willie (to the minister at the dinper table): " Was that your carriage you came here in?" Rev. Mr. Frontpew: "Why, yes, Willie." Little Willie: "There, papa; he drove two horses, and you said he was a one horse preacher."

A Sanday-school teacher asked his class what passage of the Scripture they would give to prove that a man should not have two wives at the same time. One little fellow replied, " No! man can serve two salem : it occupied thirteen years in building. A causeway-bridged the deep ravine masters.

A SAD DISEASE

There are many very bad diseases, and some of them have very strange symptoms. Rome of the nick are worse in the nightsome are worse in the day time, some are worse on particular days, some are quite sure to be ill when work drives, and when t is very important that they should be nont, where little Eddie and Georgie heard their mamma say one cold Sunday "I do not feel very well this morning. I have a very hard cold, and my lungs feel so bad and sore I think I shall not be able to go church to-day. I shall be very sorry to stay at home." The two little boys heard what their mamma said, and remained in bed after she went down stairs, talking together. After a little time Georgie, the younger, appear-at the foot of the stairs and said : " Mamma, I don't feel very well to-day! And Eddie dou't feel very well; need he go to thurch to day ? He's got the beadsche, and the neck-ache, and the back-ache, and stomach-ache, and leg-ache, andam-d. -calling to Eddie upstairs, What is it, Eddie?" - Eddie replies, "Head-ache!"

Zion's Herald tells of a parsonage in Ver-

"Oh, yes, head-ache; that's all! Need Eddie and I go to church to-day? Poor children! What a dreadful thing to have all these diseases come on so andbeing " carefully manipulated pastorally." denly Sunday morning. And we are afreid poor George will have a touch of tongue ache and heart-ache if he tells such stories

> We hope none of our resders will have an attack of this disease. The true dame of it, we believe, is-Sunday sickness. Watch against the first symptoms.

DN & SON. STREET EAST TORONTC, ONT.

