The Acton Free Press.
 THURSDAY, APRIL 3, 1930.

MANY MINOR LOCALS
 Edited by the Best Thoughtful and Alert Free Press Reporter.

—Maple sugar weather.
 —Good Friday to-morrow.
 —Eggs are down to ten cents.
 —Easter Sunday next Monday.
 —Council meeting next Monday evening.
 —County of Peel Spring Show will be held on the 10th inst.

—Oakville publishes its miscellany, by laws, etc., in pamphlet form.
 —The military displays are commanding the attention of the ladies.
 —H. T. Law, of Toronto, is expected to preach in the Disciple church, next Sunday.

—The Board of Education will meet in the Public Library room on Monday evening next.
 —Guthrie has gone into partnership with McHenry. The firm will deal in "diamonds."
 —With Easter, the traditional date for new spring garments, etc., the spring head-gear will appear.
 —You're all for number one," the widow cried, "and you for number two," the bachelor replied.

—Palm Sunday services were held in the Episcopalian and Roman Catholic churches last Sunday.
 —Friday's storm gave another day or two of sleighing. A number of loads of logs were brought in to the mills.
 —The town bell rings at six a.m. again. Windmills should be early ready.
 —Divine service will be held in St. Alban's church on Good Friday morning, at half-past ten, and at St. John's Rockwood, at 6 p.m.
 —Tickets will be issued during Easter on the G. T. R. from Thursday, Friday and Saturday, at a fare and a third, good to return on Tuesday.
 —The assessor is a man who puts you down at his own valuation, and is the only person you complain of having too high an opinion of your own worth.
 —Ladies, the man found guilty at the Grand's assize of the manslaughter of the infant child of his daughter, was last week sentenced to imprisonment for life.
 —Rev. W. E. Norton will conduct Divine services in the Baptist church on Sun. day. On Monday evening at 7:30 Rev. Mr. Beattie of Galt will preach.
 —The Hamilton Spectator tells of the marriage in Burlington, Ont., the other day, of Samuel Fraser aged 75 and wealthy, to his adopted niece, aged 16.
 —Now that spring is opening the trading season is being talked about. For very neat and pretty wedding cards and invitations call at the Free Press office and see samples.
 —The military show, rooms of R. B. Jermyn will be opened on Wednesday, April 3rd. All the novelties of the season will be shown. Ladies are cordially invited to be present.
 —The storm of Thursday night and Friday was the most severe of the season. The snow drifts were higher than at any other time during the winter. A good deal of it has disappeared again.
 —Mr. Edward Tolson of lot 10, on the second line, Erie, near Spring, is about to build a new residence. Mr. Joseph Allan of lot 7, on the same line, is also arranging to build a residence this season.
 —The last sign of spring, to our way of thinking, is the demand made for advertising space by our town merchants. They understand the value of making their announcements in a widely read home paper.
 —Mrs. James Conley, of Speyville, having given up farming will dispose of her stock and implements by public auction on her property at Speyville on Friday afternoon, 11th April.—Wm. Heintzner, Auctioneer.
 —A very interesting evening with Canadian scenery and poetry was spent at the meeting of the Royal Templars on Monday evening. About twenty authors, and selections from the works of a number of them, were presented.
 —Upon the approach of spring the sportsman's fancy "lightly turns to thoughts of life"—love of the woods, the fields, the brooks, the rivers, the lakes, and the pure air of the country. But the fishing season doesn't open until four weeks from today.
 —The clothing announcements of Messrs. Kelly Bros. on the next page will command general attention. They are enterprising young men, have great faith in printer's ink, and invite the readers of the Free Press to call and verify the truth of their advertisement. They show a fine range of of suitings, etc., for ordered work.

HOME GLEANINGS
 Which are Mostly of a Local Character and All-Interesting.

Death of Miss Morton.
 Miss Lavinia Morton died at her residence on Bower Avenue last Saturday morning. She had suffered for several years from consumption. The funeral was held on Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the residence of her father, Mr. James Morton, of Guelph, who is in the highest terms of the Christian character of the deceased. The interment was made at Everton.

A Recreant Lover Molested.
 At the Assize at Guelph last week in a breach of promise case of Miss Grace Morrison, of Nichol township, against W. H. Allard, a well-to-do farmer of the same township, was tried before Judge Falconbridge. The jury awarded Miss Morrison $1000 damages. Miss Morrison's father also brought an action against Allard for seduction, and Allard was assessed an additional $750 on this charge.

Odd Fellowship's 69th Anniversary.
 The Grand Master of the Odd Fellowship of Ontario has issued his annual proclamation, setting forth April 26th as a day of thanksgiving for the mercies and blessings vouchsafed to the Order during the past year. Acton Lodge No. 201 has decided to observe the sixty-ninth anniversary by holding an "At Home" in the lodge room on the 25th inst. and having a special sermon preached on the following Sunday.

Goose on the Par-West.
 Yesterday morning Dr. N. McGarrin accompanied by his son George, left Acton for Butte City, Montana, with the intention of establishing a practice there. It is thirty-five years since Dr. McGarrin settled in Acton, then a small hamlet. For many years he was successful in his profession, but as he generally practiced in the winter months, he was unable to realize anticipated, and the result is well known. The circumstances attending the Dr.'s recent business troubles are generally regretted, but he leaves with good prospects for the future and the Free Press wishes with his friends in wishing him success in his far western home.

Acton Spring Show—April 10th.
 The excellence of Acton Spring Show of Stallions in former years is well known both far and near, and the show this spring will no doubt equal, if it does not excel that of any former year. The date has been fixed for Wednesday, 10th inst. and an attractive list of cash prizes has been arranged for all the classes of horses in demand for this section. The officers and directors for the present year are:—
 PRESIDENT—Wm. Henderson.
 SECRETARY—T. H. Harding.
 DIRECTORS—Joseph Hillman, F. Lindsay, H. H. Hocking, Samuel Johnson, T. Cameron, J. Lawson, V. S. John Harvey, Joseph Anderson.
 With such a list of active horsemen the show this spring is sure to be successful. A large number of entries have already been promised.

Horrible Death From Diphtheria.
 Wm. Hopkins, a resident of Suroed, died on Tuesday morning from diphtheria. It is said that in a foolish moment, and as an act of bravado, he purposely entered the room where a child suffering from diphtheria was being cared for and rubbed the clothing worn by the child over his face in order to contract the infection, and that he did other foolish acts to prove that he feared not the terrible scourge. He was taken ill and lived only a few days. He could not be prevailed upon to keep to his bed or room, and actually walked around until the last moment, when he fell down and expired by actual strangulation and complete collapse of the system. He was buried on Tuesday evening.—Brampton Chronicle.

PERSONAL MENTION
 Paragraphs Respecting Visitors and From Acton, With Whom Free Press Readers Are Interested.

Mr. W. Clark of Berlin, visited friends here this week.
 Mr. John A. Henderson, of Toronto, was at home over Sunday.
 Mr. W. Worden, of Toronto, visited friends here this week.
 Miss Esderbrook, of Nainburg, visited friends here this week.
 Rev. Dr. Gifford spent a day or two in this week assisting Rev. Mr. Chown in special services at Elora.
 Messrs. Samuel McLean, Hugh Cameron and John Easton, of Sarma, made Acton friends short visits last week.
 Mr. James Matthews attended the Supreme Court at Toronto last week, as a representative from Acton Circuit.
 On Tuesday evening Mr. William Waddie and family, Mr. John Watson and Mr. Bobt. Robertson left for Manitoba.
 Mr. J. E. Horseman, of Rice Lake, Wisconsin, formerly of Guelph, has been nominated as one of the aldermen for that city.
 The names of Messrs. H. J. Stinger, of Nainburg, and J. H. Fall, of Burlington, stood first and second in the list of the successful candidates at the recent primary examinations at the Royal College of Dental Surgeons. Good for the Halton boys!
 In referring to Dr. Gifford's sermon at Berlin the Daily News says:—The Rev. Dr. Gifford, who is a graceful and eloquent speaker, chose for his subject the universal reign of the Lord, which he treated in a most learned and interesting manner. He was attentively listened to by a large congregation.

—Maps and full information concerning rates, etc., over any route to Manitoba, the North West or the Western States may be had at the Grand Trunk Station, Acton.

—Mr. John Cameron has commenced operations at his new planing mill on Main street, and is prepared to handle all classes of dress, matching and moulding on short notice.

—The boy that shovelled snow last week off though he let a hard "no, and now when lovely spring is here, he breaks his shovel with a cheer; but, lo! his father's striding near, he holds a spade and pulls his ear.—"Go, Johnny, dig the garden."

—The Stratford Advertiser announces that the issue last week of the last issue of the newspaper published by the publishers, Messrs. Pratt & Tracy, have not found the newspaper publisher's representative, in face of the competition raging there and the slowness of subscribers in paying up.

—ADVERTISEMENTS WANTED—At once to learn price and best making. Apply to KELLY BROS.

—Everyone should call and see our $10.00, $12.00 and $14.00 Suits made to order. They are better value than can be got at any other place in town by three dollars or more. Inspection invited. Fit guaranteed. KELLY BROS.

—Messrs. Sippel & Co., opened their new tailoring establishment over Hancock's Drug store, on Monday. They have a nice stock and guarantee first-class clothing. They will not do much big talking but will make their work speak for itself as satisfactorily as they can.

NEIGHBORHOOD NEWS.
 Furnished by Correspondents, Called From Exchange and Picked up by the Way.

GEORGETOWN.
 The Congregational church will give a jubilation of Mrs. Jarvis's work, in the town hall on April 10th.
 Chancellor McVicar is announced to preach in the Baptist church on Sunday 6th April.
 It is about decided that the people want a steam fire engine.

ESKATCHELW.
 "Last Friday's storm was the heaviest this winter." During the early part of the day the wind blew a regular tornado, piling the snow up in many places 4 or 5 feet high, but by noon the storm had spent its fury, although snow continued to fall heavily. About 8 or 9 inches of snow fell on the level.
 Several of the farmers are engaged in sugar-making this week.
 Next Sunday is Easter, egg-hunts will be quite numerous.
 Not much news hereabouts this week.

ROCKWOOD.
 Rev. W. H. Leary, of Rockwood, occupied the pulpit of the Norfolk street Methodist church on Sunday in the absence of the pastor, Rev. Dr. Willoughby, who was preaching military sermons at Elora. Mr. Leary's morning discourse from Matthew 18, 2-3, was excellent, while his evening subject, 1st Corinthians, 18th chap., was treated in a most inspiring manner. Mr. Leary is a young man who preaches for the love of the Master's cause. He gave up a position as teacher in Upper Canada College at $800 per year to enter the probationary ranks of the ministry.
 Squire Strang, on the information of Henry Roth, Constable, Rockwood, fined a roadside dealer last Friday for peddling goods in the place without a license. The fine was $10, and costs $5.00.

MILTON.
 The Y. L. A. Society of the Methodist Church purpose giving a "Festival of Nations" in the town hall on Monday evening next.
 At a meeting last night of the congregation of Knox Church it was resolved to purchase Roselawn, Mr. W. L. P. Eager's residence property on Main street for $3,500 and the present manse, which will be accepted by Mr. Eager at a valuation of $1,500. A fine brick church will be erected during the coming summer on the Main street property, and a committee has been appointed to make the necessary arrangements.—Champion.
 At the meeting of Toronto Presbytery on Tuesday, on motion of Rev. W. G. Wallace and Rev. Dr. Parsons, the application of the Milton congregation was granted giving permission to change the present site of their church to the Eager property, also to sell the old church and manse property, and apply the proceeds towards the purchase of the new site.
 Messrs. Darnett and Iredale, of the Royal Temple Rescue Det., closed their meetings on Thursday night. A large audience was present. The Rescue Det. have done good work in Milton, and a number of our members have been added to the Royal Temple.—Reformer.

OAKVILLE.
 Three boys were arrested on Wednesday night on two charges of house-breaking and five of entering stores and burglarizing. For some time past this work has been going on in our town and lately to such an extent that the people were becoming alarmed. Seemingly, they did not care to take anything very valuable but chiefly carried away with them cigars, candies, matches and small tools. These they had stored in straw-berry cases and buried in the ground. A basket full of tools was sent to the police. The boys and keys was sent to the police. The boys and keys was sent to the police. The boys and keys was sent to the police.

Spring Goods.
 Grand preparations being made at the Lion of Guelph, for the Spring Campaign.

Almost every steamship brings us an addition to our stock. Our goods are all bought by our Glasgow buyer who has been in the European markets for the last fifty years and knows all the ins and outs of the trade. He is no mere novice whose knowledge is limited to an occasional visit of two or three weeks, but who is as familiar with the English markets as the average Guelph buyer is with the Toronto market. This is fine of the great secrets of the wonderful value always to be had at

THE LION
 Guelph & Glasgow.

Before buying your spring goods at least visit our establishment and compare our prices. This is all we ask and we are assured it will be mutually beneficial.
