James G. Blaine, Secretary of State for the United States, one of the ablest men the Republican party, says of the McKinley Bill, "There is not a section or a line in the entire bill that will open a market for another bushel of wheat or another barrel of pork."

The London Chronicle on Saturday printed an editorial highly sulogistic o Gen. Middleton, remarking that his services have been as unique as they have been brilliant, and of a character that should commend him to the good will of every patriotic citizen of Canada.

In a letter to the Globe Mr. T. Conant claims that the offerings of the people of this Province reach $3 per head sunnally trade. to the churches, while $5 are devoted to life insurance. This he takes to be liberal giving, and he must have spent some considerable time to figure it out.

Up to date no less than twenty elections to the Ontario House of Assembly have been protested. All the petitions are based on the usual charges of bribery and other illegal acts on the part of the members elect and their agents. The larger number of protests are against members of the Opposition.

Music is to play an important part at the World's Fair when it comes. It has been suggested, and it is probable that the suggestion will be followed, that concerts will be given illustrating the progress of music from its infancy. The music of all nations will be represented, and a great presentation of 'American productions is to be

The policy of taxing the people in order to spend the proceeds among them may be a wise one; but if they were spared the tax, it is reasonable to suppose that diere Palls. they would at least mave the cost of collection, management and distribution.

The peach crop in Ontario does not promise wall this season. One of the high tariff journals observes that "it seems as though peach growing in Ontario has bepeach tree is subject to injury and disease over and above all other fruit frees." of course, if the tariff be raised high enough we can grow the inxurious fruit under glass

Spain has decided to build a model so successfully produced by inventor Peral. Each boat will be constructed with secommodations for from twenty to fifty men. Peral is for the time being the greatest man in Spain, and the Spaniards believe that his inventions place the nation in the forefront of the nel, two sailors who caused the drowning great naval powers of the world.

A test case of some interest took place in St. Catharines recently in reference to per sons under 21 years of age being held sponsible for debts which they have co tracted. The usual impression that honest debt can be evaded under the Ba Act was in this case proved erroneous. The case was tried before His Honor Juds Senkler at the last sitting of the division court. Mr. E. Chapman, tailor, sued Mr E. West, son of Mr. D. Mrs. Annie Josephs told a sample story. She had sent to the banker $75 to be forwarded for a ticket to her sister and children in Poland. After her sister travelled 300 miles to the steamer's pier she found her ticket was no good. There were 100 people in the same fix and the scene of misery was pitiable.

A Wedding in High Life.

On Monday morning Mr. Alexander A Macdonald, third son of the late Senator Macdonald, and Annie C. B. Laidlaw daughter of the late George Laidlaw, the All-known railway contractor were united in matrimony by Rev. J. V. Smith, paster of Yonge St. Methodist church. The bride's costume, a traveling suit of slate-blue cashmere, looked charming. Mr. Lawrence Boyd was best man and Misses Dewar and Lewis were the bridesmaids. After a re ception at "Oaklands," the newly-wedder couple left for Breslau, Germany, where they will reside for three years, during which time Mr. Macdonald will pursue his studies at the university!

Newfoundland's Position.

St. John's, Nfid., July 22.- As significant of the irritated feeling against the British Government, for agreeing to the modus rivendi without the consent of Newfoundland and the spaths of the Colonial Office in dealing with the French shore difficulties generally, the Chamber of Commerce at St. John's has refused to adopt the usual course of presenting the Vice-Admiral on his first visit to this port with an address. It was thought that doing so would stultify them in the present strained relations with the Colonial Office. Admiral atson feels the lack of cordiality manifested toward himself and officers keenly, and will cut his visit short.

PARTY AND PRINCIPLES Sermon by Rev. Dr. Carman .--

Principles Sacrificed for Party. Pictos, July 21 .- Bev. Dr. Carman, General Superintendent of the Methodist terms the use which political parties make of rallying cries and catch phrases to hold cries cease to have any meaning and the events which called them into existence have passed away. He denounced those Christians who considered it obligatory on them to stand by their party at the sacrafice of the principles which they profess to have at heart. He said if the Methodist Church would as a whole stand firm in the demand for prohibition and make their demand felt through the ballot box, prohibition would be assured in three years.

RANDFATHER AND GRANDSON Perish Together in the River at Bolton Last Week.

Bolrox, July 17 .- Yesterday William Griffin, the nine-year-old son of Griffin, contractor, Toronto, fell into the river here and was drowned. His grandfather, Mr. William Griffin, et Bolton, who is over eighty years old, was also drowned while endeavoring to resone his grandson. The lad had gone up to spend the holidays with his grandfather, who is a well-known citizen of the village.
