The Young Folks.

OUR MINISTER'S SERMON.

The minister said last night, said he,
"Don't be afraid of givin';
If your life ain't worth nothing to other folks,
Why, what's the use of livin'?"
And that's what I said to my wife, said I,
"There's Brown, the mis'rable sinner,
He'd sooner a beggar would starve than give
A cent toward buying a dinner."

I tell you our minister's prime, he is,
But I couldn't quite determine,
When I heard him a-givin' it right and left,
Just who was hit by his sermon.
Of course there couldn't be no mistake
When he talked of long-winded prayin',
For Peters and Johnson, they sot and scowled
At every word he was sayin'.

And the minister he went on to say,
"There's various kinds of cheatin',
And religion's as good for every day
As it is to bring to meetin'.
I don't think much of the man that gives
The loud amen at preachin',
And spends his time the followin' week
In cheatin' and over-reachin'."

I guess that dose was bitter enough
For a man like Jones to swallow,
But I noticed that he didn't open his mouth
But once after that to holler.
"Hurrah," said I, "for the minister"—
Of course I said it quiet—
"Give us some more of this open talk,
It's very refreshin' diet."

The minister hit 'em every time,
And when he spoke of fashion,
And riggin's out in bows and things,
As woman's rulin' passion,
And cryin' to church to see the styles,
Couldn't help a-winkin'
And a-hedgin my wife, and says I, "That's you,"
And I guess it sot her a-thinkin'.

Says I to myself, "That sermon's pat,
But man's a queer creation,
And I'm much afraid that most of the folks
Won't take the application."
Now, if he had said a word about
My personal mode of stinin',
I'd have gone to work to right myself,
And not sat there a-grinnin'.

Just then the minister, said he,
"And now I've come to the fellers
Who've lost this shower by goin' their friends
As a sort o' moral umbrellas;
Go home," says he, "and find your faults,
Instead of hintin' your brothers';
Go home," says he, "and wear the coats
That fit and to fit for others."

My wife she nudged, and Brown he winked,
And there were lots o' smilin',
And lots a looking at our pew,
It sot my blood a-boilin';
Says I to myself, "Our minister
Is gettin' a little bitter,
I'll tell him when the meetin's out that I
Am not that kind of a critter."

A BRIEF HARANGUE ON SLANG.

This "sermonette" is especially for you, dear girls. The advice could be put in three words—Don't do it. Possibly there might come an occasion—say once in a lifetime—when a good round bit of the genuine article "slang" would prove funny. But to hear vulgar words used by a girl is almost invariably shocking. I remember passing two girls in the street, and hearing one of them say "I'll bet you a quarter." It gave me a shiver. And when a group of school-girls fill their conversation—as, alas! they often do—with one slang phrase after another, the effect on an outsider is painfully disagreeable.

The habit of talking slang grows rapidly. It is like reporting a bit of scandal. Have you ever noticed if you say an unkind word against a neighbor, how quickly a chance comes to say another? And with just that same appalling ease a habit of using careless coarse words increases. Weeds grow rapidly.

There is plenty of good strong English to give expression to wit, drollery, indignation or sympathy, without recourse to the phrases which belong to jockeys, gamblers, tipplers and vagabonds. The street Arab picks up slang as he does the ends of old cigars from the gutter. Surely a well-bred girl is not on the same level in her speech and manner. Why should she use vulgar words any more than she would stain her hands?

There ought to be something akin to flowers in a fresh young girl. She need not be prudish or priggish. No one wishes her to say "prunes and prisms" to coax her lips into the proper curves, but refined and dainty in speech as well as in dress she surely ought to be. Won't you please think about it for five minutes, and see if you do not agree with me?—MARY S. McCONE, in Harper's Young People.

MEAN WILLS.

Husbands who profess to love their wives intensely, sometimes play them a very mean trick when about to depart for that better land where there is "neither marrying nor giving in marriage." One might suppose that a tender spouse, on the eve of being divorced by death from the partner of his joys and sorrows, would be governed in the disposition of his worldly goods by an earnest desire to render her earthly future a happy one. If he has a fortune to bequeath to her, why should he make a dog-in-the-manger will, providing that she shall enjoy it only during widowhood? What right has he to condemn her to a life of loneliness, under penalty of pauperism, in case she shall marry again? Husbands about to shuffle off this mortal coil, if you desire to be tenderly borne in mind by your relicts, don't deal with them after this contemptable fashion.—N. Y. Ledger.

WHERE THEY HAVE HOT WEATHER.

On the principle that misery loves company Americans who have to endure the discomforts of particularly torrid sections of the country will be glad to know that the warmest supply of caloric at any place on this continent cannot begin to equal that possessed by a strip of territory in the southern part of Persia. During July and August the temperature of that unfortunate region rarely falls below 100 degrees in the shade, and often runs as high as 130

WHY COUGH?

WHEN a few doses of Ayer's Cherry Pectoral will relieve you? Try it. Keep it in the house. You are liable to have a cough at any time, and no other remedy is so effective as this world-renowned preparation. No household, with young children, should be without it. Scores of lives are saved every year by its timely use.

Amanda B. Jenner, Northampton, Mass., writes: "Common gratitude impels me to acknowledge the great benefits I have derived for my children from the use of Ayer's most excellent Cherry Pectoral. I had lost two dear children from croup and consumption, and had the greatest fear of losing my only remaining daughter and son, as they were delicate. Happily, I find that by giving them Ayer's Cherry Pectoral, on the first symptoms of throat or lung trouble, they are relieved from danger, and are becoming robust, healthy children."

"In the winter of 1883 I took a bad cold, which, in spite of every known remedy, grew worse, so that the family physician considered me incurable, and pooh-poohed me to be in consumption. As a last resort I tried Ayer's Cherry Pectoral, and, in a short time, the cure was complete. Since then I have never been without this medicine. I am fifty years of age, weigh over 180 pounds, and attribute my good health to the use of Ayer's Cherry Pectoral."—G. W. Souker, Salem, N. J.

"Last winter I contracted a severe cold, which by repeated exposure, became quite obstinate. I was much troubled with hoarseness and bronchial irritation. After trying various medicines, without relief, I at last purchased a bottle of Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. On taking this medicine, my cough ceased almost immediately, and I have been well ever since."—Rev. Thos. B. Russell, Secretary Holston Conference and P. E. of the Greenville District, M. E. C., Jonesboro, Tenn.

NOTES HERE AND THERE.

Items of General Interest to Free Press Readers.

When a great truth really fills the mind, it naturally seeks to find expression in speech. It is then more difficult to restrain one's self from speaking than to speak. "All repression is grievious when a man is full of some truth."

A burn or cut will heal quickly and leave less scar if Victoria Carbolic Salve is applied at once.

The darkest night that ever fell upon the earth never hid the light, never put out the stars. It only made the stars more keenly kindly glancing, as if in protest against the darkness.

"I was troubled with catarrh for over two years. I tried various remedies, and was treated by a number of physicians, but received no benefit until I began to take Ayer's Sarsaparilla. A few bottles of this medicine cured me."—Jessie M. Boggs, Holman's Mills, N. C.

Never whip your brain. All high pressure is dangerous. Study to think as easily and as quietly as you breathe. Never force yourself to learn what you have not talent for.

Malarial fever and chills are best broken up and prevented by using Milburn's Aromatic Quinine Wine.

Many People Lie

awake nights suffering from acute dyspepsia, caused by eating food in which alum and other cheap Baking Powders are used. The most reliable is Imperial Cream Tartar Baking Powder.

National Pills are sugar-coated, mild but thorough, and are the best Stomach and Liver Pills in use.

Worms cause feverishness, moaning and restlessness during sleep. Mother Graves' Worm Exterminator is pleasant, sure and effectual. If your druggist has none in stock, get him to procure it for you.

Daughter: "Papa, George has asked me to marry him and I have said 'yes.'" Papa: "And I would have said 'no.'" Daughter (respectfully): "That's what you should have said, Papa, if a young man asked you to marry him."

Vigilant Care.

Vigilance is necessary against unexpected attacks of summer complaints. No remedy is so well-known or so successful in this class of diseases as Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry. Keep it in the house as a safe-guard.

Destroy the worms or they may destroy the children. Freeman's Worm Powders destroy and expel all kinds of worms.

Many people make drug shops of their stomach, in the attempt to relieve a simple attack of liver complaint, when with a dose or two of Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil the complaint might be easily and pleasantly obviated. Colic, piles, hurts, corns, lame back and swelled neck, are also among the troubles which it cures.

The human race is divided into two classes—those who go ahead and do something, and those who sit still and inquire, "Why wasn't it done the other way?"

Sixteen Ugly Sores.

Inflammatory rheumatism through wrong treatment left me with stiff joints and ugly running sores on my limbs, and for seven years I could not walk. With I commenced taking Burdock Blood Bitters I had sixteen sores, but they are all healed save one and I can now walk with crutches.

LOVED FOR HERSELF ALONE.

A young lady of this city who is said to be worth not less than $50,000 in prospective was the object of the attentions of a young man with whom she was very favorably impressed, but who with encouragement continued to pause just short of a proposal. The young lady managed to put in circulation what appeared to be a reliable report that her pecuniary expectations were simply in the public mind, and in two days the young fellow had proposed and been accepted. It is not often that $50,000 constitutes an obstacle to a young lady's matrimonial success, but it did in this case; and the lady in question does'nt feel in the least put out about it.—Binghamton Leader.

Ayer's Cathartic Pills are recommended by the best physicians, because they are free from calomel and other injurious drugs being composed of purely vegetable ingredients. While thorough in their action, they stimulate and strengthen the bowels and secretory organs.

No man's spirit was ever hurt by doing his duty; on the contrary, one good action, one temptation resisted and overcome, one sacrifice of desire or interest, purely for conscience' sake, will prove a cordial for weak and low spirits far beyond what indulgence or diversion can do for them.

Mrs. H. Hall, Navarino, N. Y., writes: "For years I have been troubled with Liver Complaint. The doctors said my liver was hardened and enlarged, I was troubled with dizziness, pain in my shoulder, constipation, and gradually losing flesh all the time. I was under the care of three physicians, but did not get any relief. A friend sent me a bottle of Northrop & Lyman's Vegetable Discovery, and the benefit I have received from it is far beyond my expectation. I feel better now than I have done for years."

Pause before you follow example. A mule laden with salt and an ass laden with wool went over a brook together. By chance the mule's pack became wetted, the salt melted, and his burden became lighter. After they had passed, the mule told his good fortune to the ass, who, thinking to speed as well, wetted his pack at the next water; but his load became the heavier, and he broke down under it. That which helps one may hinder another.

ADVICE TO MOTHERS.—Are you disturbed at night and broken of your rest by a sick child suffering and crying with the pain of Cutting Teeth? If so send at once and get a bottle of "Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup" for Children Teething. Its value is incalculable. It will relieve the poor little sufferer immediately. Depend upon it, mothers; there is no mistake about it. It cures Dysentery and Diarrhœa, regulates the Stomach and bowels, cures Wind Colic, softens the Gums, reduces Inflammation, and gives tone and energy to the whole system. "Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup" for children teething is pleasant to the taste and is the prescription of one of the oldest and best female physicians and nurses in the United States, and is for sale by all druggists throughout the world. Price twenty-five cents a bottle. Be sure and ask for "MRS. WINSLOW'S SOOTHING SYRUP," and take no other kind.

J. H. Earl, West Shefford, P. Q., writes: "I have been troubled with Liver Complaint for several years, and have tried different medicines with little or no benefit, until I used Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil, which gave me immediate relief, and I would say that I have used it since with the best effect. No one should be without it. I have tried it on my horse in cases of cuts, wounds, etc., and I think it equally as good for horse as for man."

Mr. John Anderson, Grassmere, Ont, writes:—"The Vegetable Discovery you sent me is all gone, and I am glad to say that it has greatly benefited those who have used it. One man in particular says it has made him a new man, and he cannot say too much for its cleansing and curative qualities."

A Natural Inference

is the experience of Mr. A. E. Fish, of Belleville, and will prove valuable to sufferers from catarrh and cold in the head. Mr. Fish says:—I take great pleasure in recommending your Nasal Balm to any one troubled with that dreadful disease, catarrh. I have been troubled with it for the past fifteen years, and can say candidly that I never had anything that gave me half so much relief as your Nasal Balm. I have only used two bottles and I feel like a new man.

Nothing so suddenly obstructs the perspiration as sudden transitions from heat to cold. Heat rarifies the blood, quickens the circulation and increases the perspiration, but when these are suddenly checked the consequences must be bad. The most common cause of disease is obstructed perspiration, or what commonly goes by the name of catching cold. Coughs, colds, sore throat, etc., if attended to in time are easily subdued, but if allowed to run their own course, generally prove the fore-runner of more dangerous diseases. Nine-tenths of the consumptives date their affliction from a neglected cold, and the diseases that are caused by wet feet, damp clothes, or exposure are more numerous than are generally supposed. One of the most efficacious medicines for all diseases of the throat and lungs is Bickle's Anti-Consumptive Syrup. It promotes a free and easy expectoration, which frees the lungs from viscid phlegm by changing the secretions from a diseased to a healthy state.

Consumption Cured.

An old physician, retired from practice having had placed in his hands by an East India missionary the formula of a simple vegetable remedy for the speedy and permanent cure of consumption, bronchitis, catarrh, asthma and all throat and lung affections, also a positive and radical cure after having tested its wonderful curative powers in thousand of cases, has felt it his duty to make it known to his suffering fellows. Actuated by this motive and a desire to relieve human suffering, I will send free of charge, to all who desire it, this recipe, in German, French or English, with full directions for preparing and using. Sent by mail by addressing with stamp naming this paper. W. A. NOYES, 820 Powers' Block, Rochester, N. Y.
