Mr. Isaac Orr, a resident of Rockwood from his boyhood, shook the dust of our village from his feet on Saturday last, and headed for Keewatin where he has a position assured with the "Lake of the Woods Milling Company." With Mr. Orr's departure a good citizen went from our midst. The excursion of the United Sabbath schools on Tuesday was a pronounced success, nearly 400 being present. The early rain of the morning was but an encouragement to the weather prophets who saw in it an absence of dust and heat and if it did keep some at home the enjoyment they missed is offset by an increased reception of the attributes common to them and Moses Oates. Arrived at an early hour in the forenoon, everybody took lanch to "get rid of it." Then the fun commenced and was kept up all day. Boating, swimming,and what a glorious place is the bay for a dip-fishing, etc., were the amusements for the minor portion, while a crowd went to Hamilton where they were fortunate enough to meet a gentleman who conducted them to the tower of the new city hall where a splendid view of the city, bay, etc., is obtainable.
