OAKVILLE.

A meeting of the young people of the resbyterian church was held on Thursday vening last in the echoolroom of the church. The object of the meeting was to consider the advisability of organizing themselves into a Christian Endeavor Society. This is a society which does good work in connection with the progress of every congregation where young people took it up. Some twenty years ago Mr. John Ion had his initials and the words "Faith,

Hope and Charity " engraved on a five sir ?" cent piece, which be carried on his watch chain for some affecteen years. About twelve years ago be lost it some place on his premises and failed to find it any place. Recently he killed a hen, and when Mrs. Iou was dressing it she discovered the lost five cent piece in the gizzard of the fowl. It was worn down to about the thickness of two pieces of paper and the initials and wording is just visible.
