WHAT "NETWORK" IS. Mr. George G. Channing, writing til old times in Nawport, H. I., mentions the introduction of seines for the extehing of mechides. The selue-twins was imported for Europe and the reines were manufactured by persons experienced in 'ngtwork.' One day while examining Jolinson's, cottero Diction: ary; I noticed this word- 'network,' and stopped to real the eli pedant's definition

I was a mere boy, and, naturally, was more perplexed with the definition than I ever had been with the word itself. Indeel, the terms of the definition frightened me so that I had ast the courage to look them sp. and I proposied to learn the definition by heart, meaning to use it whenever I felt like making a display of my learning. Here it de :

"Network: saything reticulated, decossated, between the interstices of the intersections."

WANTED ONE, TOO.

An awning maker, who had received a postal card asking him to call at a house on Porter street, pat in an appearance as soon as possible; and the woman of the boase, pointed out the window she wanted provided with a shade. "But you don't get any san on this window" protested the man. - Well, emppose I don't "But an awning is to keep the san out." "Is it ! Perhaps' you are not too old to learn something." . "But ms'am, do fou really want an awning here ! "Of course, I do. Do you see that awning on the next house?" "Yes, but the sun strikes that window." "Can't help that, That woman thinks she owns the earth. She put that awning up to spite me. I am now going to show her that she can't run this town. Go shead and have it done as soon as possible; and I want it to be firery red with 'white stripes

WHAT IS A CARLOAD?

The Age of Steel says that " nominally a carload is 2),602 pounds. It is also 70 barrels of Balt, 70 barrels of lime, 93 barrels of flour, six cords of soft wood, 18 to 20 head of cattle, 50 or 50 head of hogs, 90 or 100 head of sheep, 8,000 feet of solid boards, 17,000 feet of siding, 13,000 feet of flooring 40,000 shingles, one-half less of hard lum ber, one-fourth less of green lumber, one tenth less of joist scantling and other large timbers, 310 bashels of wheat, 490 bashels of barley, 100 tushels of corn. 650 bushels of oats, 500 bushels of fixxs-ed, 300 bushels of apples, 340 bashels of Irish potatoes, 340 bashels of sweet potatoes, and 1,000 bashels of bran."-Trade Reces.

A Painful Silence Followed.

A couple of young ladies in a railway carriage ou a suburi so line, while waiting language, they made some very pointed faction. remarks about gentleman citting directly opposite to them. They received a wellmerited lesson in propriety when, in very load, but classical French, the gentleman teferred to a solchbor, "All grown up Isdies are women, but all women are not ladies." The columnity of the silence that followed was painful.

The Alphabet in one Sentence.

The following is said to be the eliortest sentence in the English language containing all the letters of the alphabet: "John P. Brady gave me a black waitlut box of onite small size." The cutire contence contains less than twice the number of letters in the alphabet.

Old lady (to boy who isr tring tin kettle to a dog'e taill: "Little boy, don't you know that it is a very wicked to freat a poor demb animal so?" Little boy : Dumb? Jest wait till I let him go."

It is one of the easiest things in the world to cure a corn. Do not use acids or other caustic preparations, and don't cut a hole in your boot. It is simply to apply Potnam's Painless Corn Extractor, and in three days the corn can be removed without pain. Sure, safe, painless. Take only Painam's Corn Estractor.

"In May last, my youngest child, fourseen months old, began to have sores rather on its head and body. We applied various simple remedies without avail. The sores increased in number and discharged copiously. A physician was called, but the sores continued to multiply until in a few months they nearly covered the child's head and body At last we began the use of Ayer's Sarsaparilla. In a few days a marked change for the better was manifest. The sores assumed a more healthy condition the discharges were gradually dimin-ished, and finally ceased altogether. #### The Deadliest of Scrpents.

The cobra destroys less life in the aggregate than the various forms of cholers, cholera morbos, cholera infantom, diarr burs, dysentery, cramps, colic, etc. Mortality in Canada from these causes is light, owing to the general use of Dr. Fowler's Eftract of Wild Strawberry, which is an unfailing specific for all bowel complaints.

Nothing impure or injurious contaminates the popular antidote to pain, throat and nog remedy, and general corrective, Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil. It may be used without the slightest apprehension of any other than salutary consequences. Coughs. rheumatism, ear-ache, bruises, cuts and sores, succumb to its action.

A Credit to Canada

The unstituted praise which H. M. Stan ley felt constrained to publicly bestow upon Lieutenant Stairs, his most trusted subordinate officer, whom he represented as the soul of fidelity and obodience, whose ability to apprehend orders and power and skill to execute them, whose energy and tact mark him out as one in many thousands, is a tribute in which Canadians may well feel a pardonable pride. Naturally the authoritice of the Military College at Ottaws, where Lieutenant Stairs received his Military training are gratified that the young Canadian has acquitted himself so heroically. Moreover they claim that the very qualities for which Lieut. Stairs is chiefly praised are the qualities which the methods pursued in the college are calculated to imprint on the plastic nature of young men. The college is turning out year by your Extract of Wild Strawberry always at young Canadians who will be fit to cope with any crisis that may occur in the country's development.

- WAYS - OF -BUSINESS.

Have been told many times, but they need to be told again, and may have to be told many times again

We buy and make various sorts of merchandise just as cheap as possible. We tell the truth about it all. We sell everything at the very least prices, and every time we are as low as the market, or lower. The business is simple as can be. The price is named distinctly for each article. And anything you make or save thereby is yours, not ours.

You are perhaps accustomed to read the reckless talk of thoughtless or unscrupnlous advertisers that you discount the statements of careful merchants. You know our ways, but we need to remind you again that nothing is printed about our goods and prices that will not bear examination. Every word is impor-

Blow Centle Breezes,

Blow,

A city swell-aristocrat!

Hold on, that ain't all yet,

Some groceries too, I'm going to buy

Tea, sugar, and other things I'll get,

We intend to live till we have to quit,

For my dear wife as well as I

To Kelly Bros.' Store I'll Co.

A hat, a tie, a shirt, a collar, I'll get the lot for about a dollar. They sell so cheap, it is really funny, What a lot you get for a little money; A pair of boots and steckings, too They sell for cash, and buy goods right My poor old toes are looking blue. Because they say to draw at sight. Other merchants can't buy so cheap, I'll go a five for a new suit, Yes, ten-and get an overcoat; I'll be a dude, I will you bet, Because they don't go in so steep, They sell on tick, their money is out,

And they've to mind what they're about And do you think I have the stuff, An undershirt and pants I'll get Of which few if any get enough, To buy a suit from head to toes, . I'll buy a pair of gloves unlined, If they don't show a better kind, If not, I'm here as grab for crows. A pair of braces in they'll give. For I'm the stuff that's going to live, To travel the country o'er and o'er And recommend Kelly Bros.' store I'll tell you in the next two verses.

If I sin't good-looking I have conceit That I can pay for what I wear and ear For credit is one of the greatest ourses. I look like a man that's chased by dogs, Oh worse than that, they were really hoge, They charged two prices for their goods,

They chased me to the very woods.

Because the bill I couldn't pay, My grain was poor and cheep was hay; I'm honest, boys, yes I'm a dandy, Would give them the money if I had it

Before I left I'll tell you square, While the wind is whiteling through my I happened to put in my left hip pocke Twenty in cash—in there I socked it. That's all I have, not one cent more. But it will buy most at Kelly Bros. store. And after this I intend to buy At Kelly's Store until I die.

You think this rhyme contains no sense, We'll let you say so without deferoe. But to buy goods cheep and to save a fuse, Pay the cash and deal with us.
