

THE METHODIST CHURCH, ACTON.

REV. G. A. GIFFORD, M.A., PH.D.
PASTOR.
Parsonage, Lower Avenue.

Public Services 10:30 a.m. and 8:30 p.m.
School E.D. Broughton, 10:30 a.m. by his pastor. All cordially invited.

Strangers and visitors always welcome. All entire others at the door.

Histories are desired apply to H. P. Moore,

Rev. Stewart.

BANK OF HAMILTON.

HEAD OFFICE . . . HAMILTON.
CAPITAL DED UP $100,000.
RESERVE FUND $40,000.

4. TURNBULL,
H. S. STEPHENS,
CASHIER.

DIRECTORS—JOHN STEWART, President; A.
G. RAMSEY, Vice-Pres.; JOHN PROCTOR, CHA.
CHIEF ACCOUNTANT; T. WOOD, A. B. LEWIS.

GOVERNMENT AGENCY.

Notes discounted and advances made on all selected certificates. Drafts on all parts of Canada and the United States. Telegraphic and the COUNTRY of Europe bought and sold at most favorable terms.

SAVINGS DEPARTMENT.

Deposits received of all kinds and interest allowed from date of deposit to date of withdrawal.

SPECIAL DEPOSITS.

Also received at current rates of interest. No notice of withdrawal required.

H. M. WATSON, Agent.

GEO: HYND, ACTON,
Where the Many readers of the Park Paper
Merry Xmas and Happy New Year.

HEADQUARTERS FOR
New Year, Wedding and Birthdays.

The Acton Free Press
THURSDAY, DECEMBER 25, 1890.

LITTLE LOCAL BRIEFLETS

Which Caught the Eyes or Ears of
Free Press Reporters this Week.

Merry Merry Christmas.

No green Christmas this year.

Cheer fares on the railroad this week.

The Disciples' S. S. entertainment next Monday evening.

Service in St. Albans' church this morning at 10:30 o'clock.

Knox church Christmas S. S. anniversary on New Year's evening.

The Hillsboro' Baptist has been considerably enlarged and improved.

Mr. W. P. Campbell has sold his new house and lot on Brock street to Mr. Adam Cook for $150.

You are invited to attend the Christmas entertainment in the Methodist church to-night.

The Free Press carrier boys will present their annual address to their parents in town on New Year's morning.

According to the list of convictions $132 was paid in for violation of the license laws in this country the past three months.

Prof. P. S. Campbell, B.A., of McMaster Hall, Toronto, is expected to preach in the Baptist church on Sunday, Dec. 31, at 1 p.m.

The New York Hospital subscribes $1,000 and asks the public to "chip in" the rest of the money to buy 1,000 pie-jackets for the newsboys of New York.

Doors open at 7 o'clock at the Methodist School entertainment this evening. Proceedings commence at 7:30 sharp. Admission only fifteen cents.

The Rockwood Mills and farm in connection were offered for sale by public auction at Guelph, on Tuesday morning, but were withdrawn, the bid not reaching the reserve price.

The public event of the day will be the Christmas Entertainment for the Sabbath School children in the Methodist Church this evening. The Christmas tree will be worth seeing.

Santa Claus has come to the help of the money market this month by emptying some of the old stockings of hoarded gold for the purpose of filling them with Christmas tokens.

The husband's present. Wife—Oh, George, I've picked out the loveliest Christmas present for you. Now give me $50, please. Husband—For what? Wife—Why, to pay for it, to be sure!—Show Record.

While assisting in the Christmas decorations of St. Joseph's church on Tuesday evening, Mr. Joe Flynn fell from one of the windows to the ground, about eight feet, sustaining a dislocation of the shoulder.

It has been a pleasant sight this week to observe the crowds of eager purchasers in the past few days. Buyers' hearts were gladdened, with their Christmas purchases and the merchants were pleased to supply their wants.

—Physiology. Miss L. Henderson, graduate of Phenix College, New York, lectures at Acton Town Hall on Monday, Dec. 29th. Dozens of pictures shown to illustrate heads and faces. Don't fail to get a chair of your head. Find out what you're best fitted to do in life.

The estimations in the public schools last Friday proved creditable, alike to teachers and scholars. The number of visitors was not equal to that in attendance at the midwinter examinations. At the conclusion of the day's proceedings the schools were closed for the Christmas vacation.

The Leamington Post issued one of the most interesting Christmas numbers we have seen this year outside the cities. It contains not only a large amount of Christ-mas matter, but an interesting and comprehensible description of the town with illustrations of public buildings and portraits of citizens.

—Mr. A. E. Nocklin, chairman of the Board of Education, received this week from the taxidermist, at Wixson the head of the stag shot, by him in Bruce during his hunting trip the fall. It is a fine trophy, the fine large head and beautiful antlers presents splendid appearance. The curd carried to hand and a number of Mr. Nocklin's friends will have prime review on their Christmas bill of fare.

—WAZZU.—A few car loads of choice ponies for which the highest market price will be paid in cash. —T. H. HARVEY

—J. P. Marshall M.B.S., D.D.S., L.D.S. Dentist will be at the Clark's Hotel every Friday. Special attention to the preservation of the natural teeth. Highest grades of artificial teeth. Perfect fit guaranteed.

Sudden Death of a Boy.
Guelph, Dec. 22.—John Jefferson of the 12th ave. Post, went with an older brother to the woods for a load of wood. On arrival at the wood pile the older brother proceeded to put a load. Noticing that the boy did not return he went to him and to his comrade who found that he was dead.

THE NEWS AT HOME. Mostly of a Local Character, and Every Item Interesting.

Municipal Nominations.

The nomination for Reeve and Councilors of this municipality will take place next Monday, Dec. 31st, at noon. The nomination of three school trustees to fill the vacancy caused by the expiration of the term of office of Meads, Storey, Nickin and Hardling, will take place the following Wednesday at noon.

Postmaster Enjoyment.

The first assembly that has been held in Acton for some two years took place in the town hall on Friday evening. Some seventy people participated and expressed themselves well pleased with the arrangements and the programme presented. Guests were present from many parts of the province. It is claimed to have been a brilliant affair and the Guelph Herald said:—The young bachelors of Acton are to be congratulated on their enterprise in providing so delightful an evening's entertainment!

SAVINGS DEPARTMENT.

Deposits received of all kinds and interest allowed from date of deposit to date of withdrawal.

SPECIAL DEPOSITS.

Also received at current rates of interest. No notice of withdrawal required.

H. M. WATSON, Agent.

GEO: HYND, ACTON,

Where the Many readers of the Park Paper
Merry Xmas and Happy New Year.

HEADQUARTERS FOR New Year, Wedding and Birthdays.

The Acton Free Press

THURSDAY, DECEMBER 25, 1890.

LITTLE LOCAL BRIEFLETS

Which Caught the Eyes or Ears of
Free Press Reporters this Week.

Merry Merry Christmas.

No green Christmas this year.

Cheer fares on the railroad this week.

The Disciples' S. S. entertainment next Monday evening.

Service in St. Albans' church this morning at 10:30 o'clock.

Knox church Christmas S. S. anniversary on New Year's evening.

The Hillsboro' Baptist has been considerably enlarged and improved.

Mr. W. P. Campbell has sold his new house and lot on Brock street to Mr. Adam Cook for $150.

You are invited to attend the Christmas entertainment in the Methodist church to-night.

The Free Press carrier boys will present their annual address to their parents in town on New Year's morning.

According to the list of convictions

$132 was paid in for violation of the license laws in this country the past three months.

Prof. P. S. Campbell, B.A., of McMaster Hall, Toronto, is expected to preach in the Baptist church on Sunday, Dec. 31, at 1 p.m.

The New York Hospital subscribes $1,000 and asks the public to "chip in" the rest of the money to buy 1,000 pie-jackets for the newsboys of New York.

Doors open at 7 o'clock at the Methodist School entertainment this evening. Proceedings commence at 7:30 sharp. Admission only fifteen cents.

The Rockwood Mills and farm in connection were offered for sale by public auction at Guelph, on Tuesday morning, but were withdrawn, the bid not reaching the reserve price.

The public event of the day will be the

Christmas Entertainment for the Sabbath

School children in the Methodist Church this evening. The Christmas tree will be worth seeing.

Santa Claus has come to the help of the money market this month by emptying

some of the old stockings of hoarded

gold for the purpose of filling them with

Christmas tokens.

The husband's present. Wife—Oh,

George, I've picked out the loveliest

Christmas present for you. Now give me

$50, please. Husband—For what? Wife—

Why, to pay for it, to be sure!—Show Record.

While assisting in the Christmas decorations of St. Joseph's church on Tuesday evening, Mr. Joe Flynn fell from one of the windows to the ground, about eight

feet, sustaining a dislocation of the shoulder.

Doors open at 7 o'clock at the Methodist School entertainment this evening.

Proceedings commence at 7:30 sharp.

Admission only fifteen cents.

The Rockwood Mills and farm in connection were offered for sale by public auction at Guelph, on Tuesday morning, but

were withdrawn, the bid not reaching the reserve price.

The public event of the day will be the

Christmas Entertainment for the Sabbath

School children in the Methodist Church this evening. The Christmas tree will be worth seeing.

Santa Claus has come to the help of

the money market this month by emptying

some of the old stockings of hoarded

gold for the purpose of filling them with

Christmas tokens.

The husband's present. Wife—Oh,

George, I've picked out the loveliest

Christmas present for you. Now give me

$50, please. Husband—For what? Wife—

Why, to pay for it, to be sure!—Show Record.

While assisting in the Christmas decorations of St. Joseph's church on Tuesday evening, Mr. Joe Flynn fell from one of the windows to the ground, about eight

feet, sustaining a dislocation of the shoulder.

Doors open at 7 o'clock at the Methodist School entertainment this evening.

Proceedings commence at 7:30 sharp.

Admission only fifteen cents.

The Rockwood Mills and farm in connection were offered for sale by public auction at Guelph, on Tuesday morning, but

were withdrawn, the bid not reaching the

reserve price.

The public event of the day will be the

Christmas Entertainment for the Sabbath

School children in the Methodist Church this evening. The Christmas tree will be worth seeing.

Santa Claus has come to the help of

the money market this month by emptying

some of the old stockings of hoarded

gold for the purpose of filling them with

Christmas tokens.

The husband's present. Wife—Oh,

George, I've picked out the loveliest

Christmas present for you. Now give me

$50, please. Husband—For what? Wife—

Why, to pay for it, to be sure!—Show Record.

While assisting in the Christmas decorations of St. Joseph's church on Tuesday evening, Mr. Joe Flynn fell from one