THE SUNDAY SCHOOLS.

The Methodist Entertainment A Great Success.

LIKEWISE THE DISCIPLES.

A striking feature of the holiday season in Acton is the general interest taken by those engaged in Sabbath School work to ensure the children an enjoyable time.

For a number of years the Methodist Sunday School Anniversary has been held on the evening of Christmas day.

The right presented when the proceedings were opened was a pretty one indeed. The schoolery in the number of about 100 were arranged in decorative seats, and in front of the spacious platform were two rows of decorated Christmas trees laden with beautiful presents for the children and their friends.

Don't Miss It! A new and attractive publication containing many useful, interesting and instructive features has just been issued by T. Milburn & Co., of Toronto, under the title of "Birds of Blood, Bitters for Anemia for 1891." It is now in the hands of druggists and merchants for free distribution and we would advise our readers to secure a copy before the supply is exhausted.

EDITOR'S TABLE. Our Hints. The December number of "Our Home" shows a marked improvement over the November number, both in literary matter and general make-up. It is only in accordance with the promise of the publishers, and they promise still further improvements in each succeeding number. The contents of the current number are varied and interesting, embracing fiction, poetry, fashion, books, furnishings, and household decoration, and many kindred topics. The December number is the one upon which the prize error competition is based, and the publishers announce that in order to make the competition more easy, a number of mistakes have been purposely made. A sample copy, with rules for the competition, will be sent to any address on receipt of fifteen cents in stamps, by addressing "Our Home Publishing Company, Brockville, Ont."

A sleigh load of 22 young people broke through the ice on Rice Lake early on Christmas morning. They all got to shore but one of the young ladies died from the exposure, and others are in a critical condition.
