WHEN SNOW-FLAKES FAY.

Libink that every season brings To every boy some pleasant things. While many choose the summer, I I'refer the time when snew-finkes ar. What fun it is to harry out.

Clad in my thickest " roundabout," To take my sled and climb the bill Above the clatter of the will, Where toils the miller hour by bour, His hat and clother as white as fipur. There do I meet the other boys. And no one scolds as for our noise. All in a line we downward go Across the race course of the snow; Our steel shot steeds they perer tire. And never have to seck the fire: Though sometimes, when the north win

We have to warm our cars and toes. Although of coasting I am fond. I love to shate upon the pond. To have a game of " tag," or play. At "prisoner's goal" or "pull away." Or out of broken branch or twig And reeds to build a bonare big. Rut no one finds it very nice To tumble down upon the ice, For if you chance to hit your bead. It seems as though you must be dead, And carried to some land on high Among the stars up in the sky,

Some boys like summer best, but I Prefer the time when snow-dakes fir -Cliston Scollard

Since stars and stars are all you see.

And it gets dark as dark can be.

The Little Girl's Trouble.

Mr. Henry Macombe, Layland St., Black born, London, Eng., states that his little girl fell and struck ber knees on a curbstone. The knee began to swell, became very painful and terminated in what doctors call " white swelling" She was treated by the best medical men, but grew worse. Finally, St. Jacob's Oil was used. The contents of one bottle completely reduced the swelling, killed the pain and

The people of this country have spoken. They doclare by their patronage of Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil, that they believe it to be an article of genuine merit, adapted to care soreness or lameness, burts of varjour kinds, tumors, throat and lung complaints, liver and kidney disorders, and other maladies.

tems of General Interest to Free Press Readers. The Toronto Home for Incurables.

Parkdale, Ont., Feb. Tich, 1888 .- Gentlemen, it gives me pleasure to let you know I have derived great benefit from the use of Nerviliue. I have been a great sufferer from Neuralgia in the face, and last two years was quite a mertyr to the malady. So soon as I observed the Nerviline advertised I obtained a bottle from our druggists, Messros, John Gray & Co., Parkdale, and the effect was marvellous; pain coased and I can enjoy sound sleep at night, and rice refreshed. I cannot speak too highly of it and heartily recommend it. Alexander Steeu.

Upper Otnabog, N. B. The Spring Medicine.

The popularity which Hood's Sarsapar lla has gained as a spring medicine is wonderfal. It possesses just those ele ments of health-giving, blood-parifying and appetite-restoring which everybody seems at this season. Do not continue in a dull, tired, unsatisfactory condition when you may be so much benefited by Hood's Sarsaparilla. It purifies the blood and makes the weak strong.

It is worse than madness to neglect a s cough or cold which is easily subdued it taken in time becomes, when left to itself the fore runner of consumption and premaure death. Infiamation, when it attacks the delicate tissue of the lungs and bronchial tabes, travels with perilous rapidity; then do not delay, get a bottle of Bickle's Anti-Consumption Syrup, the medicine that grasps this formidable foe of the human body, and drives it from the system. This medcine promotes a free and easy expectoration, subdues the cough heals the diseased parts, and exerts a most wonderful influence in caring consumption. and other diseases of the throat and lungs.
