The Opening and Speech from th Throne. A short and Disappointing Debate COMMENTS AT THE CAPITAL.

OTTAWA, May 6 .- All things connected with the opening of Parliament came off last week as anticipated. Senators and Commoners met in their respective cham bers, the latter were summoned to mer! the Deputy-Governor, Sir William Ritchio, in the presence of the members of the Upper House, and there they were told tha they would be informed of the reasons for calling them together when they shosen a Speaker. The motley procession trooped back in disorder to the green chamber, and on motion of Sir John Mac donald, seconded by Sir Hector Langevin chose Peter White, of Renfrew, to preside over their deliberations. In his graceful way, Hon. Wilfrid Laurier, as leader of the Opposition, said 'nice things about the Government's nominee and when he ha made a little speech of thanks the House
