

THE METHODIST CHURCH, ACTON.

REV. JOSEPH EDGE, PASTOR.
The annual reunion of the members of the Young People's Class of the Methodist Church, at "The Maple" last Friday evening was a most enjoyable event. The delightful evening, the brilliantly illuminated grounds and the happy and exuberant spirits of the large company of young people united to make the occasion one to be remembered. Mrs. Moore's Sabbath School class was also present. This evening was spent in popular games, pleasant conversation and several short addresses. The guests freely expressed their appreciation of the attention of the pastor and Mrs. Moore in thus providing this pleasant reunion year after year.

"Don't Give me Away." "Keep it out of the paper" is the cry which the local newspaper editor hears almost every week. To oblige often costs considerable thought. The newspaper is a public utility and it is a public utility which is a peculiar article in the public utility. The newspaper is a public utility which is a peculiar article in the public utility. RE-OPENING SERVICES. The Methodist Church Attended by Large and Well Pleas'd Congregation Sunday and Monday. Fifteen years ago this month the Methodist Church, then one of the finest country churches in the Conference, was opened and dedicated to the worship of God with interesting and appropriate services. The interlocking services, held in the church on the 15th and 16th inst., were held in honor of the 15th anniversary of the church's opening. The congregation was unusually large and well-pleas'd. Concerning Prices.

There are several reasons why we sell our goods cheap. We buy from head-quarters. We purchase in large quantities and sell widely. We pay cash for our goods, which means buying at even a closer figure than the manufacturer's ordinary price. And we mark our goods at moderate rates, on the closest possible margin.

Summer Clearing Sale.

Summer Clearing Sale. We have a large stock of summer goods, including dresses, blouses, and accessories. We are clearing these goods at a special price to make room for our new arrivals. This is a great opportunity to buy high quality goods at a low price. Don't miss this chance.
