NOTES AND COMMENTS.

Evidently there are bright prospects in store for the Sudbury nickel mines. The Crown Lands Department of Ontario has received the following telegram from Pittsburg, Pa., recently.—Andrew Carnegie has received from the War Department the contract to supply $5,000,000 of nickel steel for the new American cruisers. He will order the nickel from Sudbury, and mixing will be by the Harvey process."

It is reported that Col. Domville, who opposed Mr. Foster in King's county last March, is already stumping the constituency in anticipation of another election at an early date. Some of the prominent New Brunswick Liberals, it is also said, are in favor of "cawing off" the protest against Mr. Foster's return with one of the three in which the seats of their friends are attacked, but as Col. Domville is not a Liberal he does not see the force of sacrificing his own interests for their advantage. He does not propose to pull their chestnuts out of the fire.

The exports from the Dominion for the fiscal year ended June 30th amounted to $95,566,504, as compared with $94,439,845 for the year ending June 30th, 1890, show an increase last year of $1,185,659. The imports show a decrease of $415,764, the figures being:—1889-90, $107,969,470, and 1890 91, $107,553,707. The duty on the imports also shows a decrease of $781,018, the figures being:—1889-90, $22,814,703; 1890-91, $22,012,671, as compared with $10,983,871, as compared with $10,423,306 for June of last year, an increase of $570,565. Over $400,000 of the increase was in the product of the fisheries. The June imports also show an increase over June, 1890, of $827,919.

It is estimated that at least 90,000 Americans go to Europe annually to make the grand tour. It is further estimated that they pay $12,000,000 to the steamship companies for fares, $32,000,000 for travelling expenses abroad, and $4,000,000 for presents to their friends at home. Assuming these figures to be approximately correct, American tourists, it will be seen, expend nearly $50,000,000 annually abroad, for the steamship fares go to foreign companies. If, however, every immigrant is worth $1,000 to the country of their adoption, as statisticians assert, the account is much more than balanced. New York alone received 405,554 of these arrivals during the last fiscal year.—Mail.

Mr. W. T. Stead makes the statement in his publication, Review of Reviews, that the Prince of Wales is not head over ears in debt, and that he has in fact no obligations that he could not readily pay off in twenty-four hours, if need were. "Such an assurance," Mr. Stead says, "given to me for publication on the very highest authority, will be read throughout the empire with pleasant surprise. It is hardly too much to say that almost everyone believed exactly the opposite, nor would I have printed the above statement if I had not received it from one who was undoubtedly in a position to know, and who, as a gentleman and a man of honor, is incapable of misleading the public."

The next convention of the Christian Endeavor Societies is to be held in New York in 1892. Judging by the recent meeting at Minneapolis, it will be a vast assemblage of the faithful from every State of the Union from Canada, and from across the Atlantic. The conventions have increased steadily and rapidly in magnitude, 10,000 persons having been in attendance at the meeting in St. Louis last year, and the number growing to 15,000 at Minneapolis last week. The enrolled membership of the societies now amounts to one million, and if it increases in the ratio of the ten years since their organization it is likely to be a million and a half when the New York convention meets.

OUR MUNICIPAL AFFAIRS.

Not Much Business at Last Meeting of the Council.

Council met in their regular session on Monday evening. The passing of accounts occupied the attention of the public's servants.

In the absence of the Reeve, Councillor Pearson occupied the chair.

All the Councillors were in their places.

The fourteenth report of the committee on finance was presented and the following accounts recommended for payment:—

Adam Cook, 128 loads of gravel	$51 20
Robert Snyder, shingling grand stand	15 00
do work on armory	5 63
do work in Park	5 00
Thos. Arthurs, do	3 00
Chas. Kirkpatrick, work on street	2 50
William Lynd, do	2 50
	$84 63

Upon motion of Councillors Harvey and Anderson the report was adopted.

The progress of the work on Main street was reported. It was decided to extend the gravelling a few rods farther than at first intended. A good piece of road bed is being laid.

ANOTHER JONAH.

The Remarkable Story Told by the Captain of a Tea Vessel.

Tacoma, Wash., July 26.—The barque Guy C. Goss, with a cargo of $500,000 worth of tea, dropped anchor here yesterday, 44 days from Yokohama, long overdue. When 15 days out, "Tom" Hiskizaki, a Japanese sailor, mounted to the topsail to reef it during a gale. A lurch of the vessel threw him headlong into the sea, and he was seen suddenly to disappear. The lifeboat was put out, but no trace of the missing sailor could be found. When returning to the vessel, a whale rose on the surface. The crew then suspected what had become of Hiskizaki. The whale seemed in great distress. Suddenly, after a violent convulsion, Hiskizaki was thrown from the whale's mouth onto the crest of a wave and upon the deck of the Goss. He was unconscious and badly injured. Careful nursing brought him around, and he is now in his normal health. Capt. Mallette vouches for the truth of this story, and the sailor was pointed out.

Sir George Stephen Takes the Oath.

London, July 27.—In the House of Lords to-day Lord Mountstephen, more generally known as Sir George Stephen, president of the Canadian Pacific Railway, who was in May last raised to the peerage, took the usual oath and subscribed to the roll of peers. This is the first instance of a native of a British colony being made a peer.

THE CAPITAL BUDGET.

The Budget Debate Continues.—Mr. Henderson Delivers His Maiden Speech.—Another Civil Servant Suspended.

FINAL VOTERS' LIST REVISION.

Ottawa, July 29.—The budget debate has served its main purpose in that it has kept the House in running order pending the close of the Tarte-McGreevy and departmental investigations. A further explanation of the willingness of the members of that body to talk for hours to empty benches is supplied by the appearance of weekly papers throughout the country with supplements containing the budget speeches of their respective representatives. There have, however, been delivered some excellent addresses delivered and one of the best of the whole debate was that of Mr. Henderson, your member for Halton, and by the way, one of your own townsmen, I believe. As stated above the debate at times has been continued with hardly a score of members in their places. Mr. Henderson commenced his speech to a very thin house but his remarks drew many listeners and before he was through he had a large and interested audience. His delivery is clear and impressive; his arguments were well thought out and merited the attention they received from the House. His political friends here consider him quite a decided acquisition to the debating talent of the House. He certainly made a speech last evening bristling with new arguments in a debate which had practically reached that stage when it was doubtful if any argument that had not been heard before could be adduced.

ROBERT CONTRACTIONS(?)

In the light of the revelations of the investigations showing that the inspectors on the Quebec harbor works were bribed and the contractors' account books mutilated to conceal corrupt payments, Mr. Perley should revise the speech in which he declared that Messrs. Connolly & Co. were the most honest and faithful contractors in Canada.

CIVIL SERVANTS' HOURS.

A new order in council has been promulgated regarding the hours of attendance of civil servants at their offices. It provides that in future the hours of work shall be from 9.30 a.m. to 5 p.m. every day except Sundays and statutory holidays, and no dinner hour will be allowed. Hereafter no extra clerks in the civil service will be allowed holidays at the expense of the departments. If they take them they will lose their pay.

SHIPPING BILLS.

It will be of interest throughout the Dominion, but more particularly to seamen, to learn that a new and more comprehensive bill has been introduced in the House of Commons regarding the inspection of ships. This bill provides for the inspection of tackle on ships, the idea being to prevent the use of inferior tackle and machinery, which in the past have resulted in serious accidents. At the present time the hull of the vessel alone is inspected as to its seaworthiness, but once the measure becomes law the tackle as well will have to pass a Government inspection. No new tax is imposed by the bill.

THE BAY OF FUNDY SEIZURES.

The Minister of Marine and Fisheries has received the official report of the seizure by the Canadian cruiser Dream of certain Yankee fishing boats which were caught fishing 10 or 12 days ago in Canadian waters, not far from Eastport, Maine. The seizure of these boats has created a great uproar amongst the newspapers of New England, which are urging reprisals. It will surprise the belligerent ones, however, to learn that according to the geodetic and coast survey of the United States the place where the capture was effected is clearly Canadian waters, and therefore these seizures are strictly legal.

COMMENTS ON COMMENTS.

Mr. Davin obtained an order of the House on Monday for papers which may form the basis of another castigation of Mr. Dewdney. The order was for a return of the estimates of the Indian Department, Regina, for 1888-89, the revision of such estimates by Inspectors McGibbon and Wadsworth; the comments on such revision by the Hon. Edgar Dewdney; the comments on such comments by Mr. Vankoughnet, Deputy-Minister of Indian Affairs; the comments on all by the late Hon. Thomas White, Minister of the Interior.

FINAL REVISION OF THE VOTERS' LISTS.

Mr. Frechette asked yesterday:—Is it the intention of the Government to extend the limit of time for the completion of preliminary lists in view of final revision of the voters' lists? Sir John Thompson replied that there was a bill before the House with that object in view and he hoped it would be reached to-morrow. The bill provides for the extension from the 1st to 15th August.

THE COMBINES BILL.

Mr. Clark Wallace's Combines bill passed on Monday, and is now on its way to the Senate. The measure strikes out the modifying word which makes the present statute of no effect. Last year the bill passed the Commons, but was killed in the Senate. It is feared that the fate of last year awaits the bill in the Red Chamber. But this will destroy the respect that is entertained for it, and will mean fresh criticisms and antagonisms if it persistently opposes public opinion as expressed in the Commons.

SUNDAY OBSERVANCE BILL.

The Sunday Observance bill of Mr. Charlton has not to go to the Senate to be slaughtered. It has been cut down in the flower of its youth by a vote of 63 to 18 in the Commons. The restrictive clauses of this measure are now well known. Designed to render Sunday, a day of undoubted peace and quiet, they were sustained by the clergy in numerous petitions to the House. It was curious to see the crossing of opinions on this measure. Mr. Mills opposed it on the ground that it interfered with provincial rights, although, as he explained, he was quite friendly to Sunday observance. Then Mr. Charlton chided the champion of provincial rights for being such a stickler for the principle. Mr. Hazen, a Conservative, defended Mr. Mills, and Sir John Thompson followed, siding with him, and bedding forth as a provincial righter.

ANOTHER REAL COMEDY.

The public accounts committee had another session of three hours yesterday, the major portion of the time being taken up enquiring into certain transactions affecting Mr. J. R. Arnoldi, chief mechanical engineer of the Public Works Department. Mr. Arnold admitted that the survey steamer Joe was his property and that the accounts against the Government for her hire were put in the name of Mr. Wilson, of Montreal, to avoid newspaper talk. Mr. Arnoldi also admitted that he had borrowed money from Mr. Wilson to purchase a horse, which he had not yet repaid. He also acknowledged to the receipt of a pair of bronze dogs from Mr. Charles Benton, formerly agent for the Edison Electric Light Co., and a gold chain and extension dining table from Mr. Chanteloup, of Montreal. Mr. Lister made a strong case out against Mr. Arnoldi and the evidence was so conclusive that the Government, with the facts before them, had no other alternative but to suspend Mr. Arnoldi, which was done during the afternoon.

CAPITAL COMMENTS.

There is a new tune abroad, and that is that the Government will prosecute the contractors who have engineered the great frauds on the treasury brought to light by the McGreevy investigation.

DROWNED AT PORT ELGIN.

A Melancholy Affair Which Causes Wide-spread Gloom.

Port Elgin, July 28.—On Monday evening, about 8 o'clock, Harold Heller, George McLachlan, Bertha Chapman, and Dora Balkwell left the boathouse in a row boat intending to make for the quiet waters of the harbor. They had not gone far when the boat began to fill with water, became unmanageable and finally sank in the presence of several on the docks and along the beach. George McLachlan clung to the boat with one hand and in the other held Dora Balkwell, both of whom, by the assistance of swimmers, were brought to the shore. Heller's body was not noticed to rise to the surface at all. Bertha Chapman came up for a very brief space. By the time a boat could be launched and Heller's body found fully 20 minutes had elapsed. Bertha's remains were not reached till 10 minutes later. Bertha Chapman was the eldest daughter of our widely known citizen, Mr. J. A. Chapman, and the sympathy evinced for both him and his wife is heartfelt. Bertha was a young lady of most amiable disposition, very much loved by her companions. Both she and Heller were members of the Methodist church choir and had been in their places there the previous evening. The suddenness of the terrible shock made its force felt most keenly. Harold Heller was a son of Mr. Adam Heller and was one of the clerks in Zant Bros.' store.

SUCCESSFUL BURGLARS.

They Succeeded in Getting Money and Stamps—Five Men Arrested.

Smith's Falls, July 27.—A daring burglary was successfully made in Chesterville on Saturday night, when the post-office was broken into and $150 worth of stamps and some loose change carried off. Two other stores were broken into and the safes blown open, but unfortunately for the burglars, there was nothing in them but books. Having finished up at Chesterville, they came up to Kemptville and broke into the post office there, and secured $40 in stamps and $50 in money. Mr. Casselman, postmaster at Chesterville, wired to Ottawa for a detective, and Mr. D. O'Leary was put on the track, and managed to spot the men this morning and wire Chief McGowan, of this place, to arrest four men stealing a ride on train No. 51, a freight train. The chief was on hand on the arrival of the train and secured the four of them and placed them in the jail. This afternoon he arrested the fifth, who was loitering around one of the hotels. Detective O'Leary and the postmasters from Kemptville and Chesterville arrived this afternoon, and feel certain they have secured the right parties. One hundred and eight dollars worth of postage stamps were found in an empty box car which came past Chesterville this morning.

ROWDYISM IN TORONTO.

Disgraceful Scenes in Queen's Park last Sunday.

Toronto, July 27.—Yesterday was the first Sunday since the passing of the city by-law imposing a penalty on any person who "shall in any public park, garden, or place for exhibition in the city, publicly preach, lecture, or declaim," and 25,000 citizens assembled in the Queen's park to see how the by-law would be observed. Considerable rioting took place. Three men were arrested for throwing stones, and one for malicious injury to property. The Mayor was escorted out of the park by a jeering crowd of thousands.

The World says: It is unquestionable that the last Sunday of July of the present year of grace was the most disorderly which Toronto has ever seen. Its Mayor mobbed, its police force stoned, murderous threats publicly used, the peace broken, the by-law disregarded, the Lord's Day desecrated, rest and recreation prevented, traffic blockaded are not items which constitute a red-letter-day—in the ecclesiastical sense of the word—in the local records of the Queen City of the West.

Died From Lockjaw.

Newmarket, July 28.—A very large number of people assembled here this morning to pay their last respects to the remains of Mr. Edward Quigley, which arrived on the Atlantic express from Victoria. The deceased was an old resident of Mount Albert and went to British Columbia some four months ago with a view to speculation. However, his young aspirations (he being only some 23 years of age) were cut short by an attack of spinal disease, which soon produced lockjaw and finally terminated in death.

Halton's Registry Office.

Mr. E.F.B. Johnston, Inspector of Registry Offices, paid Registrar Campbell an official visit last week and reported that he was "very much pleased with the careful manner in which the books of the office are kept. They combine all the necessary entries and facts and are as complete, I believe, as they can be made. The office is in every way admirably conducted, a statement which I do not often make.—Champion.

Robbery in a Graveyard.

Many who are removing monuments and tombstones from the old cemetery to the new, desire new names and dates cut thereon. The undersigned are experienced marble cutters and will engage to perform any cutting with entire satisfaction and will be pleased to meet all desiring work, on Saturday, 1st August, at Agnew's hotel. New designs submitted for inspection.—A. B. Rock, or address A. B. Rock, box 645, Guelph.

To Relieve Russia's Poor.

St. Petersburg, July 28.—Large credits have been assigned to the district zemstvos or provincial assemblies, with the object of meeting local distress arising from the failure of the harvest. To further aid the impoverished people the time for the payment of taxes has been extended and public subscriptions for their relief have been opened.

After spending a year in Ontario, she is now returning to resume her work as missionary teacher for the christianizing of the Japanese. She is accompanied by Miss Shoults, who is also to engage in missionary work in Japan.

King of Medicines

A Cure "Almost Miraculous."

"When I was 14 years of age I had a severe attack of rheumatism, and after I recovered had to go on crutches. A year later, scrofula, in the form of white swellings, appeared on various parts of my body, and for 11 years I was an invalid, being confined to my bed 6 years. In that time ten or eleven sores appeared and broke, causing me great pain and suffering. I feared I never should get well.

"Early in 1886 I went to Chicago to visit a sister, but was confined to my bed most of the time I was there. In July I read a book, 'A Day with a Cross,' in which were statements of cures by Hood's Sarsaparilla. I was so impressed with the success of this medicine that I decided to try it. To my great gratification the sores soon decreased, and I began to feel better and, in a short time I was up and out of doors. I continued to take Hood's Sarsaparilla for about a year, when, having used six bottles, I had become so fully released from the disease that I went to work for the Flint & Walling Mfg. Co., and since then on account of sickness. I believe the disease is expelled from my system, I always feel well, am in good spirits and have a good appetite. I am now 27 years of age and can walk as well as any one, except that one limb is a little shorter than the other, owing to the loss of bone, and the sores formerly on my right leg. To my friends my recovery seems almost miraculous, and I think Hood's Sarsaparilla is the king of medicines." William A. Lehr, N. Railroad St., Kendallville, Ind.

HAVE NOT LOST A SINGLE DAY

Gibbons & Gibbons, Barristers, Acton, their names and addresses, the full particulars of their claims and descriptions, with full particulars of any securities held by them, and the nature of the security if any, duly verified by statutory declaration, on or before the 15th day of August, 1891, after which date the executor will proceed to distribute the assets of the deceased among the parties entitled thereto, having regard only to the claims of which they shall have had notice at the time of such distribution.

This notice is given pursuant to R. S. O. Chap. 107, and 56 Vict. Chap. 9, Ont.

McLEAN & McLEAN,

Solicitors for the Executors.

PETER GIBBONS and DAVID CARTER.

Dated this 15th day of July, A.D. 1891.

July Sale.

Another week of Grand Bargains. More and more each day. Fresh lines have been subjected to the cutting of prices, until now you can't take a step without stumbling over an exciting Bargain. You ask Why do you thus cut prices? Simply because we can't help it. It's not because we are fond of the thing. It's a matter of compulsion. Already many collections which is the necessity of thoroughly clearing out the stock. No goods have been carried over into next season. This distinctive of our business won't stand old stock. But we have more goods than our normal trade requires. We have to force business, and force it we are doing just now. You get all the benefits of prices. We get the benefit of reduced stock. We'd like to give you a list of prices and reductions. Well, there is nothing in that. Everybody does it. Still it's no criterion of value. Besides, the paper wouldn't be big enough to give you a fair record. All we can do is to come and see for yourself. There are Bargains in Dress Goods. Lines worth 15c., 25c and 35c. reduced to 7c., 10c. and 15c. Challies worth 35c. reduced to 25c. Ginghams, Chambrays, Lawns, Muslins, Prints, at sweeping reductions.

Millinery.

All trimmed goods at sacrifice prices. We still have some very nice goods. Fresh Sailor Hats just to hand.

Flannel Blouses, Silk Blouses, Visites, Lace Wraps, Lace Dolmans—all going at your own price.

Great Line of Water Proof Dolmans at about half their regular price.

Fancy Goods.

Parasols at 50c. reduced from $2.50. Ribbons at 5c. worth 10c. to 25c. Silk Gloves at half price. Laces and Flouncings at 1/3 price. Ladies' and children's Hose at half price. Dress goods, washing buttons for 5c. Scores of other lines at the same rate.

Men's Wear.

Light Summer Coats cheap. Boys' Summer Suits cheap. Men's Felt Hats cheap. Ties, Collars, Socks cheap. Under shirts, 25c. worth 50c. each. Flannel shirts very cheap.

The cutting of prices holds good in Table Linens, Towels, Art Muslins, Lace Curtains, Tickings and all through the Carpet and Housefurnishing Departments.

We can only hint at the Bargains. It's yours to enjoy them.
