Messrs Clark and Buchanan, of Georgetown. An interesting occasion is anticipated.

Entrance Examinations at Milton. The result of the High School entrance examinations at Milton is just to hand. One hundred and seventy candidates wrote and of these ninety passed. The highest number of marks possible to obtain was 765, and the successful candidates ranged from 663 to 392, the former being secured by Cornelius Cooper, a pupil of Mr. H. H. New, No. 6, Temple St. The average number of marks obtained was 583.

Sad Drowning Accident. Last Sunday Arch McEwen, a young man of twenty-three, son of the late Arch McEwen, of Orangeville, who was working for a farmer near Glenora, met his death under very distressing circumstances.

For several weeks the young man had been subject to fits and feeling one coming after the other. He was taken to the mill tank to bathe his head, when, being his sole possession, he fell in headlong and was drowned before any person was aware of his predicament. The remains were taken home on Sunday evening and the funeral was held on Tuesday.

Improvements at St. Joseph's Church. During the past week work has been engaged in repainting and improving the tower and spire of St. Joseph's church. A large portion of the tin work has been renewed, the spire has been repainted and is now surmounted by a golden cross nine feet six inches in height. The original stone which bore the following:—'St. Joseph's Congregational Church, 1870' has been removed and a beautiful marble slab, with the name of the Church in gilt letters—'St. Joseph's'—has been placed in its stead. The improvements enhance the appearance of the edifice.

The Park Phase is in receipt of an interesting pamphlet with above title from Rev. G. B. Hall, son of the President of the Ladies' Lane Historical Society, under whose auspices the little work is published. In its pages again is told in most fascinating manner the story of the heroine and her connection with the troubles of 1812 at Eady's Lane. An agitation has been set on foot by the above society to secure the erection of a suitable memorial stone to mark the last resting place of this brave and noble woman, and both the Legislature and the public generally are appealed to for aid in this laudable object.

Royal Templars District Council. The semi-annual session of the District Council of the Royal Templars of Temple Lodge will be held at Milton on Friday and Saturday, 28th and 29th inst. The meeting will have more than usual interest. An excellent programme is in preparation and will include the presentation of papers and addresses upon subjects pertaining to the cause of temperance and prohibition during the day sessions and a general entertainment on Friday evening. The following is the detachment from Acton Council:—Mrs. Rev. J. W. Rae, J. L. Warren, Dr. Lowry, H. P. Moore and C. Jenner and sisters Sarah Toston, Hattie Thornton, Mary Lambert, Lottie Speight and Ada Clark.

Patrons of Industry Entertainment. The first public meeting under the auspices of the Patrons of Industry was held in the school room last Thursday evening and proved a very enjoyable affair. A large number of visiting patrons were present from Erin and the school was filled to the doors. Mr. Chas. Davidson, President, occupied the chair. Addresses were delivered by Messrs. Lewis, Gans and Leitch. Organist, Mrs. John Griggs presided at the organ. Mr. Robert Brown rendered several vocal and instrumental solos. Messrs. W. T. Carroll and Wm. McCarthy gave a number of violin duets and harmonica solos were rendered by Messrs. W. Campbell, J. Davidson and F. Leach. A pleasant and profitable evening was spent by the farmers and their families and friends.

Popular in the Sphere. Many Free Press readers will remember Mr. A. C. Campbell, who was for some years connected with this journal, and is now in Vancouver, B. C. The following from the Telegram of that city shows that he is a popular young man in his new home:—Among the campers at the summer gathering of the members of the Young Men's Christian Association at Lake Deborah, Wash. last month, writes F. W. Tague, general secretary Victoria, Y.M.C.A., none were more popular than Mr. A. C. Campbell of the Vancouver Telegram. He acted as editor of the 'Lake Deborah Record,' whose mission was to furnish sport for the campers, and right well was the task performed. In the athletic sports he was always at the front and did all possible to make things lively. Mr. Campbell thus was for himself many friends.

Married at Guelph. There was a quiet wedding in the Dublin street Methodist church Wednesday afternoon at six o'clock, at which there were only the immediate relatives and a few invited guests. The bride was Miss Mary P. Penfold, an estimable young lady of twenty, and sister to Messrs. S. & G. Penfold. The groom was Mr. Louis F. Snyder, manager of the Farmers' Bank, Elmhurst, formerly of Guelph, and employed for a long time as mechanical draughtsman for the J. B. Armstrong Manufacturing Co. The bride was plainly and becomingly attired in a grey travelling suit, and she looked well in it. After the ceremony had been performed by Rev. James Wain, Guelph, the two immediately left by the C.P.R. for Montreal and point east—Guelph Mercury. Mr. Snyder is well known in Acton, having spent his boyhood's days here. The Free Press united with the many friends of the happy couple in extending hearty congratulations.

He Stole $15,000. HAMILTON, Aug. 14.—The directors of the street railway have just discovered that John Callahan, night watchman in their employ, has stolen from the company during the last seven years nearly $15,000, mostly in the form of ten-penny pieces, taken nightly from the bags containing the fare. Callahan was caught in the act and made a full confession. He had $12,500 in his credit in various city banks, which he turned over to the directors.

THE COUNTRY AROUND.

News Items Supplied by Correspondents and Exchangees.

BURLINGTON. Electric light has materialized here. Mr. D. D. Brough, president of the Burlington Electric Light Co., has just returned from a visit to the city of Burlington, N. B., where he has been negotiating with the city council for the purchase of the city's electric light system. The negotiations are progressing favorably and it is expected that the city will soon be supplied with electric light.

Mr. Bob Adams, of London, spent a few of his holidays here visiting old friends, and returned to business Monday evening.

'His pink cheeks, curly hair and dainty manners—his well-toiled fowls.' How did you ever overlook the curling fowls, Bro. Brothers? Now it occurs to me that if Bro. Brothers had only done the same as this 'advertising' and 'practised as a rule' before he ever undertook the post duties of editor, compositor, and devil-in-chief, of one of our best printing establishments, what a boon to the subscribers it had been.

The Queen's Park at Toronto Again the scene of Sunday's riot.

On Monday, Aug. 17.—The mob which filled Queen's Park yesterday had more confidence in itself than any other which has assembled there since the Sunday by the same name. As a consequence of the riotous scenes were witnessed, and from the standpoint of order the day was the worst of the present series of disastrous Sundays.
