The Acton Free Press

THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 10, 1891.

LITTLE LOCAL BRIEFLETS

Which Caught the Eyes or Ears of Free Press Reporters this week.

Wheat beginning to move into the market.

A good deal of fruit is brought into town just now.

The Fall Assemblies open at Milton, on Monday last inst.

Front sailing for the present season ends next Tuesday.

Stores closed and business dormant next Tuesday—Civic holiday.

Acton Union Exhibition Tuesday and Wednesday, 6th and 7th October.

The rain on Saturday night settled the gravel on the streets very satisfactorily.

The brick work of the new residence of Mr. D. Henderson M.P. is about completed.

Civic Holiday next Tuesday. A number of towns and villages have selected the same day.

Mr. J. J. Daly, Guelph, who is at present visiting in England, has favored the Free Press with copies of London papers.

The Markham papers announce the rate of assessment of that ambitious town for this year at the modest figure of 32 miles on the dollar.

As we go to press the first literary and musical entertainment of the season of the Egerton League is in progress.
Report next week.

It is on the cards that one of Acton's most esteemed citizens will within a few days be led to the altar by a worthy young man from Toronto.

A gang of carpenters and bricklayers have been busy engaged the past week in adding another storey to the building on Mill street occupied by Arnold Bros., a Globe Factory.

A team of muckmen from Georgetown will visit Acton on Saturday and to the guests of the Acton Golf Club. A friendly match at city pinnons will take place on the range of the local club.

The holidays are pretty well over; the cool evenings make outside sports less attractive, and it is hoped that interest in the public reading room will be revived. A good selection of old and weekly papers will be found on file there.

The quarterly Communion Services of Knox Church will be held on Sunday morning at the usual hour. Rev. Mr. Buchanan of Georgetown, will preach the preparatory sermon on Friday morning at eleven o'clock.

—On the 4th Inst. Acton, a fence ring, set with garnets, prized by the owner more for associations than its intrinsic value, has a generous reward will be given for information to lead to recovery by Mrs. Sarah Acetra Second.

Our Little "One" for September is a capital number. The pictures are most amusing and the stories are such as children delight to hear. It costs only 15 cents a month and any bookseller will get it for you. Equal Publishing Co. Boston.

Three hundred loaves of light bread were seized from the bakers of the village of Clinton the other day and given to the poor. Bakers who fail to give full weight are liable to a fine to be relieved of their stock and fined into the bargain.

Arrested in Acton for Murder.

Habib Sash, an Armenian peddler, was arrested in the Post Office here yesterday morning by Chief Constable, of Guelph, and Deputy Sheriff Kenney of Niagara Falls, N.Y., on a charge of murder. On the 27th of August a young Armenian girl was murdered in a bath between Mapleton and Hall station, New York. The crime is supposed to have been committed for $50 which she had in her possession. The body was found two or three days after and any bookseller will get it for
you. Equal Publishing Co. Boston.
