

THE METHODIST CHURCH AUTON.

R.H. FOREPEE EDGE
PASTOR.
Parsonage, Seven Avenue.
Public Services $100.00, and $100.00, Sunday morning, and services by the pastor. All specially invited.
Visitors and visitors always welcome at services outside of the church.

BANK OF HAMILTON.

HEAD OFFICE - HAMILTON.
CAPITAL $100,000.00
RESERVE FUND $10,000.00
J. TURNBULL, H. E. STEVEN
CASHIER. E. A. MCKEEAN
DIRECTOR.

GOVERNMENT AGENT.

Note discontinued and various trade on all over the world. The United States, Great Britain, the CONFEDERATE & REBELS bought and sold.
Orders for all countries on most favorable terms.

SAVINGS DEPARTMENT.

Deposits received of $1 and upwards, and in terms of from day of deposit, and date of withdrawal.

CRITICAL DEPOSITS.

Also received at regular rates of interest. No notice of withdrawal required.

J. M. BOY, Assoc.

Thanks

With the advent of the New Year it is our pleasure to thank our many friends for their kind favors during the year just closing and wishing each and all a happy and prosperous

NEW YEAR.

It will be our aim in the future to keep our store the Head quarters for Watches, Clocks, Jewelry, Silverware, school books and stationery, Wedding & Birth day Presents.

Sign of the Big Watch.

GEO. HYNDNS. Acton, Ont.

The Acton Free Press.

THURSDAY, DECEMBER 24, 1891.

LITTLE LOCAL BRIEFLETS

Which Caught the Eyes or Ears of Free Press Reporters this Week.

-1892, to morrow.

-The last day of the year.

-It was a green Christmas after all.

-From - On Willow street, a neck-lace.

Applies at Free Press Office.

-We are not made happy by saying we received more presents than we did.

-The Farmers' Institute meetings in town hall next Wednesday and Thursday.

-The Free Press has turned out some very pretty wedding cards the past few days.

-The destructive boy who pokes a hole in his Christmas drum won't annoy his neighbour.

-It is as bad to have too much Christmas as it is to have none at all, but we never appreciate this until next day.

-The water supplied on the Public School contract is pronounced considerably below the required standard.

-Council met on Monday evening, but there being no business on the docket, adjourned without a formal vote.

-Rev. Mr. Charlton has been engaged as pastor of the Disciples' congregation here and will take up his residence in town.

-To our esteemed contemporaries, to our admirable correspondents, to our indulgent readers we wish a happy and prosperous year.

-An exchange says: "Unseen members of Parliament are being renominated for election. It is simply a case of set 'em up again."

-Knox Church Sunday School anniversary will be held to-morrow evening. Miss Wetherell, eulogist, will take part in the programme.

-Matthew Brown, the Frelton burglar, who lived in Bellingham at one time, arrested on twenty robberies, has been sent to penitentiary for ten years.

-The Eric Asociates, evidently disgusted with the village has announced its intention to pack up its office removals to a new field and everybody who owns it.

-Mr. French's little son Edwin met with rather a painful accident on the pond the other day. He fell in the ice and had his out-set clear through with his front teeth.

-Mr. Holmes, editor of the Clinton New Eve, one of the most acceptable preachers in the conference, will occupy the pulpit of the Methodist Church next Sunday.

-Mr. Allen Manso lost a considerable sum of money last week, but fortunately fell into honest hands, and was returned to him by Mrs. S. A. Scott, as soon as his right to it was proven.

-Printers down east, are now charging $27 for 50 raffle tickets, made up as follows:
$20 for the first prize, $1 for the cost,
$1 for the time in attending court, and $1 for printing the ticket.

-Low - In the Methodist Church, Acton, on Christmas night, a gold ring, enclosed in an envelope, addressed to Miss Annie Taylor. The finder will much obliged by handing it over to the Free Press office.

-Good-morning, Mr. Editor, how are the folks to-day? I owe you for next year's paper - I thought I'd come to pay; and Jones is going to take it, and this is his money here; I shot down on his behalf and then coaxed him to try it a year.

Will Cottrell.

-The latest recipient of the bounty provided by the United States Government for those who served in the late war is Rev. Justice Brainerd Roberts, presiding elder of the A. M. E. Church of Oakville.
He fought for eighteen months in an Indiana regiment, and has been awarded a pension of $2 a month, dating from April 1, 1867.

-The Free Press comic boys are big with hope as to the New Year's reward for their promptness and punctuality in delivering the papers to their master's place in all kinds of weather during the past year.
They will call upon all their friends to ensure a morning and present their compliments and an elegant calendar, which will no doubt be appreciated.

-Oysters, fruits, peaches and confectionery at T. H. HARRISON'S Grocery.

-Gentlemen regarding artistic overcoats, suits, or trousers should call at H. McLean's.

-If you want fine-class English suits and shoes at Goodfellow's, T. H. HARRISON can fill your order at his pleasing mill.

-In stores, T. H. HARRISON, will insert soon a good suit and two coats for next three months.

For men, a special coat given to H. McLean's.

-Faded colors, which have been faded and restored especially to manageable colors are to be had at the United States

THE NEWS AT HOME.

Mostly of a Local Character, and Every Item Interesting.

Court Cases &c.

The Officers of Acton Court of the Burgesses for the ensuing term have been elected as follows:

Bro. Thos. C. Morris, C. D. H. C. R.
A. W. Brown, C. R.
A. W. Whetstone, C. R.
Neil McNeil, C. R.
C. C. Spaight, P. S. Tracy
Jas. Davis, Chaplain
W. M. Smith, S. W.
R. F. Martin, S. W.
W. H. Lovett, Physician.

Local Events out of the Town.

The Herald came out last week with a terrible blizzard. What had happened?

A snow storm was held in the Congregational Church on Sunday evening.

Both the Baptist and Presbyterian Sunday Schools had entertainments

Christmas night.

The program given by the Literary Society of the Georgetown High School in the town hall last week was a gratifying success, financially, and particularly satisfactory so far as the programme was concerned.

The Midland's entertainment on New Year's evening will be a great attraction.

Everybody should attend, the object is most worthy.

Mr. James Warren, C. H., Kincardine, is at his best for "superbifying"

the work of putting in the waterworks.

The receipts of the Park Committee the present year were $10,000, expenditure $10,000.

Local Events out of the Town.

By a recent survey of the portion of the
property in the vicinity of Young
street, a number of property owners in the east end find they have less property that
would appear by the annual taxes.

It seems that the fence on the Mill street
side of Mr. White's property, instead
of being a fence, is a wall.

Mr. John Marshall, the owner of the house, has applied to the town hall for a
permit to build a wall.

Local Events out of the Town.

By a recent survey of the portion of the
property in the vicinity of Young
street, a number of property owners in the
east end find they have less property than
would appear by the annual taxes.

It seems that the fence on the Mill street
side of Mr. White's property, instead
of being a fence, is a wall.

Mr. John Marshall, the owner of the
house, has applied to the town hall for a
permit to build a wall.

Local Events out of the Town.

By a recent survey of the portion of the
property in the vicinity of Young
street, a number of property owners in the
east end find they have less property than
would appear by the annual taxes.

It seems that the fence on the Mill street
side of Mr. White's property, instead
of being a fence, is a wall.

Mr. John Marshall, the owner of the
house, has applied to the town hall for a
permit to build a wall.

Local Events out of the Town.

By a recent survey of the portion of the
property in the vicinity of Young
street, a number of property owners in the
east end find they have less property than
would appear by the annual taxes.

It seems that the fence on the Mill street
side of Mr. White's property, instead
of being a fence, is a wall.

Mr. John Marshall, the owner of the
house, has applied to the town hall for a
permit to build a wall.

Local Events out of the Town.

By a recent survey of the portion of the
property in the vicinity of Young
street, a number of property owners in the
east end find they have less property than
would appear by the annual taxes.

It seems that the fence on the Mill street
side of Mr. White's property, instead
of being a fence, is a wall.

Mr. John Marshall, the owner of the
house, has applied to the town hall for a
permit to build a wall.

Local Events out of the Town.

By a recent survey of the portion of the
property in the vicinity of Young
street, a number of property owners in the
east end find they have less property than
would appear by the annual taxes.

It seems that the fence on the Mill street
side of Mr. White's property, instead
of being a fence, is a wall.

Mr. John Marshall, the owner of the
house, has applied to the town hall for a
permit to build a wall.

Local Events out of the Town.

By a recent survey of the portion of the
property in the vicinity of Young
street, a number of property owners in the
east end find they have less property than
would appear by the annual taxes.

It seems that the fence on the Mill street
side of Mr. White's property, instead
of being a fence, is a wall.

Mr. John Marshall, the owner of the
house, has applied to the town hall for a
permit to build a wall.

Local Events out of the Town.

By a recent survey of the portion of the
property in the vicinity of Young
street, a number of property owners in the
east end find they have less property than
would appear by the annual taxes.

It seems that the fence on the Mill street
side of Mr. White's property, instead
of being a fence, is a wall.

Mr. John Marshall, the owner of the
house, has applied to the town hall for a
permit to build a wall.

Local Events out of the Town.

By a recent survey of the portion of the
property in the vicinity of Young
street, a number of property owners in the
east end find they have less property than
would appear by the annual taxes.

It seems that the fence on the Mill street
side of Mr. White's property, instead
of being a fence, is a wall.

Mr. John Marshall, the owner of the
house, has applied to the town hall for a
permit to build a wall.

Local Events out of the Town.

By a recent survey of the portion of the
property in the vicinity of Young
street, a number of property owners in the
east end find they have less property than
would appear by the annual taxes.

It seems that the fence on the Mill street
side of Mr. White's property, instead
of being a fence, is a wall.

Mr. John Marshall, the owner of the
house, has applied to the town hall for a
permit to build a wall.

Local Events out of the Town.

By a recent survey of the portion of the
property in the vicinity of Young
street, a number of property owners in the
east end find they have less property than
would appear by the annual taxes.

It seems that the fence on the Mill street
side of Mr. White's property, instead
of being a fence, is a wall.

Mr. John Marshall, the owner of the
house, has applied to the town hall for a
permit to build a wall.

Local Events out of the Town.

By a recent survey of the portion of the
property in the vicinity of Young
street, a number of property owners in the
east end find they have less property than
would appear by the annual taxes.

It seems that the fence on the Mill street
side of Mr. White's property, instead
of being a fence, is a wall.

Mr. John Marshall, the owner of the
house, has applied to the town hall for a
permit to build a wall.

Local Events out of the Town.

By a recent survey of the portion of the
property in the vicinity of Young
street, a number of property owners in the
east end find they have less property than
would appear by the annual taxes.

It seems that the fence on the Mill street
side of Mr. White's property, instead
of being a fence, is a wall.

Mr. John Marshall, the owner of the
house, has applied to the town hall for a
permit to build a wall.

Local Events out of the Town.

By a recent survey of the portion of the
property in the vicinity of Young
street, a number of property owners in the
east end find they have less property than
would appear by the annual taxes.

It seems that the fence on the Mill street
side of Mr. White's property, instead
of being a fence, is a wall.

Mr. John Marshall, the owner of the
house, has applied to the town hall for a
permit to build a wall.

Local Events out of the Town.