NOTES AND COMMENTS.

By a recount of the votes for Councillors in Electoring the personnel of the Council is changed. John Campbell, who was elected by the casting vote of the Returning Officer, has been unseated and John Stewart takes his place with a plurality of six votes.

Canadian fishermen are managing, notwithstanding the Newfoundland Bait Act, to carry on their occupation. It is stated that bait preserved by cold storage is being used with success, thus rendering them practically independent of Newfoundland favors.

Prof. Wm. Saunders, Supt. of the Experimental farm at Ottawa, has been appointed as Canadian Commissioner to the Chicago World's Fair. In him Canada will be well represented, as he is one of the best executive officials in the country's service.

An experiment is being made in shipping fresh salmon from the Pacific coast to Europe. If it be successful, fresh salmon will be shipped hereafter instead of canned salmon. Thirty thousand pounds of fresh salmon were shipped in a car from the Fraser last week, going by way of the Canadian Pacific to New York, and thence in the cold storage room of a German steamship, to Hamburg.

What from the North-West via the Canadian Pacific railway is according to an American authority, being shipped in large quantities from Boston. The British steamer Glanstwith has been chartered to load a cargo of 11,000 quarters of wheat for Cork, and five other steamers have also been engaged to carry wheat to various parts of the world. Not since 1881 has wheat in bulk been exported from Boston.

A novel case of interest to farmers was tried at Fisherton recently before Judge Creasor. According to the ruling any person purchasing agricultural machinery and paying for it with anything but cash or notes is still responsible to the firm should the agent become a defaulter. The judge held that the agent must be paid the wherewith to settle with the employers. Thus the giving of horses, etc., in part payment for machinery is a risky transaction unless the agent is known to be reliable.

The lumber industry in the Maritime Provinces during the past year has not shown the same improvement as the coal trade. The transatlantic shipments from New Brunswick were 252,500,000 superficial feet, just half a million less than the previous year. Nova Scotia exported seventy eight and a half millions, as against ninety-nine and a half millions in 1890. While this means a decrease in the income of the people, restrictions will be able to console themselves with the thought that the resources of the provinces are being conserved.

The census of the Japanese Empire on Dec. 31, 1890, showed a total population of 40,453,461, of which 20,431,077 were males and 20,022,384 females. The total number of dwelling houses was 7,906,052. These figures show an increase over the previous year (the Japanese census being an annual one) of 34,280 houses, and 381,441 persons. According to social status there were 3,768 persons belonging to the noble class, 2,066, 641 to the gentry, or old military, and 38,441,052 to min, or "common people."

It is said that Senator Plumb subscribed for every newspaper in Kansas, and there are about 500 of them, and that he devoted two hours every forenoon to reading them. He was once quoted as saying:—"I believe in the local newspapers. They are the leaders the makers of public sentiment. They are nearer to the people than any other papers. The editors mingle with the people, and consciously or unconsciously reflect the views of their readers. By my private letters from all parts of the State, and by reading the local papers I can tell just what the people of Kansas are thinking and talking about. I can feel the pulse of the people and take their temperature. I am amazed, too, at the excellence of our country papers. The majority of them are carefully, ably edited.

The North-West liquor license law has been made much more stringent than it was when introduced. Under the amendments adopted no restaurant licenses are to be issued. The accomodation requisite for a hotel has been greatly increased. The hour of closing on Saturday night has been changed from ten o'clock to seven o'clock. Liquor cannot be sold to persons under eighteen, whereas sixteen was the limit originally proposed. The most important point scored by the temperance element, however, is the enactment that the licenses shall be in proportion to population. There will be issued but two licenses in towns of five hundred, and in larger municipalities one for each additional five hundred. This proposition was vigorously but unsuccessfully opposed.

The American people are singularly ignorant of the backward state of popular education in the United States. Our national vanity has filled our heads with the vain conceit that everything we do is better than anything done by any other people; and we are vain-glorious over a school system which, in many respects, is the crudest in the world. No other people spend money on schools as eagerly or as lavishly as we. Tuition per capita costs nearly twice as much in the United States as in the costliest cities in Europe. No other American institution is as jealously guarded as our free schools; and there is no other which we are resolved more unflinchingly to maintain. If we were half as intelligent about the comparative excellence as we are firm in their protection and generous in their appropriations, they would be what they are not, the best schools of the age.—St. Ignace, Mich. HALTON'S CONTEST.

The Conservatives and Patrons of Industry in Combat.

THE REFORMERS WITHDRAW.

There has been a good deal of speculation during the past week as to the personnel of the candidates in the bye-election next Thursday, and whether there would be two or three to enter the field. As stated in last issue, it was rumored that the Patrons of Industry candidate had dropped out of the race, but a convention of farmers last week reaffirmed his nomination and ever since Mr. McGregor has been in the heat of the campaign. The Reform Party did not give up the hope that Mr. Waldie would again be their standard bearer until Tuesday of this week. But at a convention that day the fact was made known that he would not accept the proffered honor. When this was known the following resolution was passed and Halton Liberals determined to take a rest so far as the present contest is concerned:—

That whereas Mr. John Waldie has declined the unanimous nomination of this convention to contest this county in the interests of the Liberal party, and inasmuch as the Patrons of Industry have nominated a candidate to contest the county for the representation of Halton in the Commons, the convention deems it inexpedient to put a candidate in the field.

The contest is now definitely arranged, and Messrs. D. Henderson, the Conservative candidate, and J. D. McGregor, the nominee of the Patrons of Industry, will contrast reputation, ability and supporters during the coming week and measure conclusions at the close of the polls next Thursday evening.

The first meeting of the two candidates on the public platform was in Acton on Tuesday evening. The meeting was called by the Patrons, and as discussion was invited Mr. Henderson gave up his meeting at Palermo and came home to meet his opponent.

The audience was a very large one, embracing all political parties, creeds and nationalities. The farming community was well represented and included a considerable number from Nassagaweya. The people were good humored and had evidently come expecting to hear politics in a new light.

It was late when Candidate McGregor arrived. His namesake, Mr. John McGregor, teacher, Nassagaweya, was appointed chairman. After a few introductory remarks he called for the opposition, if any, to take the platform. Mr. Henderson went forward amid applause. A somewhat stormy time ensued in arranging the time he should occupy. The Patrons and their friends desired to limit him to half an hour. Mr. Henderson appealed to the audience, stating that he had come all the way from Oakville to attend the meeting and wanted an hour and a quarter at least. He was granted an hour and the meeting proceeded.

The first speaker was Mr. John McPherran, Nassagaweya, who said he was unaccustomed to speaking to large audiences. He dealt briefly with the McKinley Bill, the duties on sugar, horses, binding twine and oatmeal. He also referred to the corruption in politics generally and the disappointing character of the census.

He Henderson followed in a spirited address. He referred to the complexion of the meeting and thought it rather strange that a chairman had to be imported from Nassagaweya to preside over a meeting in Acton. The previous speaker's remarks were summed up and an anecdote by the late Hon. Mr. Pope was given to illustrate them; the point being "There ain't nothing in it." He then referred to the census, admitting that it had not shown as great an increase as was anticipated, but showed that while the population had not increased the wealth of the nation had. The Ottawa and Quebec scandals were touched and it was claimed that while those interested were equally guilty, there was a difference inasmuch as while the Ottawa boodlers were all meted out punishment, those in Quebec were allowed to go free. The platform of the Patrons was alluded to and it was shown that as Hon. J. J. C. Abbott was a farmer as well as Prime Minister the Patrons should not wish to drive him out. The policy of both parties was contrasted and the McKinley bill was pointed out as having taught Canadians independence. The cheese market and cattle trade had steadily improved and the egg market would do likewise. Great Britain is the best market and there is a demand for Canadian barley, Canadian cattle, etc. Canadian binding twine is as good in quality and same price as that of the United States.

Time was called at this point and Mr. Henderson concluded by stating that the old flag was his platform. He thanked the audience for their attention and said he did not intend to call another meeting in Acton. He requested similar support to that given him at the last election, on the 28th.

Mr. McGregor then had his innings. He is a clean shaven young farmer, of about twenty-seven years of age, well developed, and a fairly good speaker. He commenced his address by referring to the fact that Mr. Henderson had been twice unseated; has supported corruption in the past and would do so again. Referring to his own position he said he was not a party man. His opponent if elected might as well remain at home and send a card to Ottawa being the instruction to "Vote for the Government on every question." He touched upon the various points introduced by former speakers, dealt very strongly with the corruption at Ottawa and claimed that the members of parliament had last session been granted $500 each simply for looking up scandals. The bulk of the speech was similar to that reported in last issue of the FREE PRESS and gave the planks of the P. of I. platform as loyalty to the mother country; no monopoly of lands; purer administration; rigid economy in every department; reduction of duties on machinery; abolition of Senate; tariff to be arranged so as to fall on the luxuries and not the necessaries of life; preparation of voters' list by municipal officers; no gerrymandering.

Regarding his position he said he had been pressed to accept by friends of both parties and be the standard bearer for the Patrons. He was the representative of the farmers and what affected farmers affected everybody. He was not afraid of being snowed under. He was the people's party and he asked the support of farmers' workmen, business men and loyal Canadians.

SHORT IN HIS CASH.

Stock Gambling Causes the Ruin of a Canadian Bank Teller.

OTTAWA, Jan. 18.—Edward Hubbel, teller of the Ottawa Bank, arrested for being $7,000 short in his cash, has been a frequenter for over a year of a so-called stock exchange kept in the city by ex-ex-parson named Machray. On Thursday the manager of the bank counted his cash when the steal was discovered. He is ill in bed under the charge of the police.

DUKE OF CLARENCE DEAD.

The Eldest Son of the Prince of Wales Passes Away After a Week's Illness.

LONDON, Jan. 14.—Prince Albert Victor, Duke of Clarence and Avondale, died at 9 o'clock this morning. The news of his death has created a feeling of intense sadness all over Europe.

The heir-presumptive had been ill only a week with the influenza and on Wednesday night, after a marked improvement during the early part of the night, his strength suddenly failed about 9 o'clock, and he began to gradually sink, and death occurred at 9.15 a.m.

The dead Prince was only 28 years of age, and was to have been married next month.

Telegrams from all parts of the Kingdom show that the news of the death of the Duke was received everywhere with tokens of deep respect and sorrow.

The funeral of the late Duke of Clarence on Wednesday will not be of a military character. The Prince of Wales objected to exposing the troops to the severe weather.

A Brave Girl's Heroic Rescue.

PORT HOPE, Jan. 17.—Thomas Miller, of Dourc, was crossing Crongin's Lake on foot when he broke through the ice in 25 feet of water. After breaking about 25 feet of ice in his efforts to reach the shore he was almost perished with the cold and would never have seen the shore if Miss Kate Forbes, who saw his danger, had not come to his rescue. Though the ice waved under her feet she boldly advanced, heedless of the cries of Mr. Miller that she was in danger, and extending a fishing rod to him drew him exhausted and chilled to the shore. Mr. Miller's cries had been heard by Miss Forbes, whose home is about 300 yards from the spot where he fell through the ice.

WOLSELEY FOR GOVERNOR.

Latest Rumor From The Old Land—He Would Like Canada.

OTTAWA, Jan. 14.—English advices state that there is some speculation as to the probable successor to Lord Stanley as Governor General when his term expires next year. Lord Wolseley's name is mentioned. He is at present Commander-in Chief in Ireland and his term will only be half through in May, but Lady Wolseley's health makes him anxious to change and it is said he would be willing to come to Canada if the position were offered him, rather than take the Indian command.

Sad Indeed.

DUNDALK, Ont., Jan. 17.—James Bryce of Proton came to Dundalk to order a coffin for his sister, who had died the previous evening. On his return he found that his wife had during his absence given birth to twins, and that she too, had passed to the spirit land. He is left with a family of seven small children, two of them the newly-born twins.

Killed by a Fall.

BRAMPTON, Jan. 17.—William Blinco of the 12th concession of Peel had been out threshing at a neighbor's with his machine. On his return, in driving into his own barn at night, the machine slewed round and threw Mr. Blinco to the ground, killing him instantly. The deceased was a son of Mr. William Blinco, of Pilkington, and was much respected.

Emperor William of Germany has perfected his bill against drunkenness, to his idea, at least, and this week the Reichstag will consider the measure. Despatches from Berlin are to the effect that, while doubtful of the practicability of its extreme measures, the legislative body will pass the bill and watch its results in an experimental frame of mind. The clause of the measure which empowers officers to prosecute all habitual drunkards, upon information, is the one which meets with the greatest objection, as the difficulty to draw the line of distinction between habitual drunkards and habitual drinkers who come not yet in the category of the prescribed class, is great.

This one thing will bear all the emphasis we can give it! You may easily do worse; you cannot possibly do better, and the chances are you won't do as well.

MANTLES

This is the subject we delight in. It must be on account of the delightful Goods we show in this line. The reason why we have not said more about them this fall, is that are so well aware of where they can see the largest selection and the Best Value in Mantles that it has appeared almost superfluous to advertise them especially as we have had so many other lines to talk about.

We never before had such a stock of Mantles as we had this season, and we never had such a run on them at the beginning of the Fall Trade. We have already broken into our FIRST REPEAT order for GERMAN MANTLES and have the SECOND REPEAT well on the way crossing the Atlantic.

You no doubt have seen the first importations, do not fail to see the repeat; by the repeats we do not mean repeats of the same styles as we had at the beginning of the season. To explain the nature of our repeat orders for Mantles, we will add a copy of a letter to our Glasgow representative.
