

The Young Folks.

THE ELDERLY BREMEN.

Our dear old folks yesterday had not learned as yet how to be old. They were still in the habit of...

Why They Laughed. Four pretty women entered an Eighth Avenue horse car at 9th Street last night about 9 o'clock, says the New York Journal.

Seasonable Sayings. All kinds are great when the purpose is plain. If thou has little, make it not less by murmuring.

Information of the Eyes Care. Mr. Jacob D. Miller, Newbury, writes: "I was troubled with inflammation of the eyes, so that during nearly the whole time of the summer of 1922 I could not work."

Do you feel as though your friends had forgotten you, your business calculations overhauling, and even the sun had taken refuge behind a cloud?

Dear Sirs:—Two years ago I was very ill with jaundice and tried many medicines which did me no good until I was advised to try B.B.B. when, after using half a bottle, I was effectually cured.

Dear Sirs:—I was troubled for six years with erysipelas, and two bottles of Burdock Blood Bitters entirely cured me.

THE LADIES

Information of Value to the Interested.

Hundred of ladies in happy and thrifty mood are working cheerfully and contentedly, preparing for that most interesting contest, known as the "Diamond Dye Competition."

Let us now point the ladies to the dial of time, and warn them that the days are flying. It behooves them to decide early...

Nothing so suddenly obstructs the preparation as sudden transitions from heat to cold. Heat rarifies the blood, quickens it, but when these are suddenly checked...
