LITTLE LOCAL BRIEFLETS

Which Caught the Eyes or Ears of Free Press Readers this Week.

- Days and nights of equal length just now.

- Choice Clover and Timothy seed, at T.
H. Hardings' Grocery, Acton.

- The Wm. Moore farm was not sold when offered at auction here last Friday.

- Rev. Mr. Norton preached in James St. Baptist Church, Hamilton, on Sunday.

- It is pretty generally hoped the snow storm of this week was the last of the season.

- A number of our citizens attended the funeral of Col. Merrey at Stewarts yesterday.

- Mr. Joseph Anderson has the brick on the ground for veneering his new house on Boyer Avenue.

- The library of the Disciples' Sunday School has just been replenished with a new lot of books.

- Notice the change of system, in the style of doing business in Kelly Bros. advertisement. It is worthy of note.

- The contract for the new school building goes to a Brampton man, his tender for brick being the lowest, - at $1,760.00.

- Treat the whole family for the rest of the year by sending in 75 cents for the Free Press. It is well worth the money.

- Mr. A. P. Symon late of Denver, Col., will next week open a new grocery store, next door to Kenny Bros. boat & hardware.

- Owing to the death of Col. Murray, township clerk, the Township Council met on Monday and adjourned without transacting any business.

- Rev. Henry Caldwell, of Peterborough, occupied the Pulpit of the Methodist Church on Sunday and preached earnest and practical sermons.

- A frazza was kicked up by an irreverent youth at the Salvation Army barracks on Sunday night. Those who attended should believe themselves.

- Action's Council is negotiating for the purchase of a piano for their town hall.
This is a good example for another corporation we know of - Oakville Star.

- It is stated that Dr. T. H. Orton, of Mount Forest, nephew of the late Dr.
Richard Orton, will settle in Guelph and carry on the practice of the late Dr.
Kating - Mercury.

- Rev. Mr. Edge will continue his series of sermons on the Ten Commandments in the Methodist Church, next Sunday evening. Topic "Social Parity" or the seventh commandment.

- Mr. W. H. Storey will deliver an address at the meeting of the Egerton League next Tuesday evening on "A Trip to Great Britain and the Continent." It will be a occasion of interest.

- Edward Dyne has received the contract for taking down the old N. & W.
Railway bridge near Kennedy's hill at Georgetown. Mr. McCollough purchased the bridge for about $400.

- The first of a series of articles on "Defects of Sight," by Mr. G. D. Pringle, Guelph, appears in another column. The articles to appear in following issues will be illustrated with diagrams.

- Rev. Father Maloney and his parisioners in and around Dundalk are uniting their strength and furnishing their means to build a B. C. Church in that village this summer. - Durban Review.

- The Ladies Aid of the Methodist Church gave a social in the school room last evening. An excellent programme including musical and literary selections was provided after the tea. A pleasant evening was spent.

- The annual tea-meeting of the Presbyterian Church, Orpington, was held last Thursday evening. The choir of Knox Church, Acton, The Maple Leaf Quartette and Mr. John Strachan of Rockwood, provided the bulk of the programme.

- Messrs. G. B. Ryan & Co., Guelph find their extensive trade increasing so rapidly that they are compelled to seek more room. They have now rented the two commodious rooms over the adjoining premises occupied by A. T. Brown.

- The Streetwise Review calls out its A. B. Wright a "faddist." Also has been bob-nobbing with the Milton Reformer and other grit leaders of public opinion lately, and says he has renounced his allegiance to his old party and become an ardent Liberal.

- A scene of brutal cruelty to animals such as seldom seen in Acton was witnessed on Main Street on Monday afternoon.
A slight heavily laden wagon was stuck in the mud and the poor horses were unmercifully whipped because of their inability to draw it. By such conduct a man disgraced himself in the eyes of all right thinking people.

- New York State has appropriated $300, 000 to the World's Fair.

THE NEWS AT HOME.

Mostly of a Local Character, and Every Item Interesting.

Followed in Hyatt's Bonds.
An interesting event was communicated at Prospect Cottage, the home of Mr. H.
Woods, last evening, when Miss Emma Glover and Mr. Thomas Dawson, of Orgeville, were united in the bonds of matrimony. Rev. J. W. Rice performed the ceremony. The wedding was a quiet one but joyous nevertheless.

Sermon by Rev. R. G. Roville.
The special service held in the Baptist Church on Sunday afternoon was well attended. Rev. R. G. Roville, of Hamilton, preached an excellent sermon from Luke 19:10 - "For the Son of Man is come not to save the world, but to divide it." A sermon from the Gospeler Baptist cleric started in the singing. A very literal free-wheeling was taken at the close.
Altogether the service was very interesting and profitable.

Missa Society - Tomorrow Evening.

The annual meeting of Action Branch Bible Society will be held in the Methodist Church to-morrow evening. Rev. Mr.
Lee, the agent of the society, will deliver his annual address. The various ministers of the town are invited to be present and take part in the proceedings. The collectors have been pursuing their canvass during the past week and their reports for two years will be submitted. The Christian people of the community of all denominations are interested and cordially invited to be present.

New Deaths of the Clergy.

This year, for the first time, the assessors of Ontario are required, when making their assessments, to enter in a book to be provided by the clerk, the name, age and residence of every child between the ages of 8 and 14 years, resident in their respective municipalities, and the name and residence of the child's parents on guardian and return the said book to the clerk of the municipality, with the assessment roll, for the use of the triant officer. This is in accordance with a clause of the Treasury Act, passed last year. The said act also provides the penalty for non-compliance with this duty.

Sons of Scotland Supper.

The first annual supper of Ioranth Club, S.O.S., was held last Friday evening.
After a meeting of the camp, the members adjourned to the Dominion Hotel where a superior repeat awaited them. After supper the usual toasts were given and responded to by the following brethren: -

Chief McNaib; Chief Finlay and P. C.
Grant; McNaib; Col. Allan; John Duff, Dr. Lovry, Dr. Uren, and others.

Piper Sharp manipulated the bagpipes to the delight of the Scotchmen present.

The address of Messrs Finlay and Grant of Georgetown added much to the interest of the occasion.

Death of Lt.-Col. Murray.

For nine weeks past Lt.-Col. Murray, of Esquinton, was a patient sufferer from an attack of La Grippe followed by distressing long troubles. Until about a couple of weeks ago it was hoped he would be restored to usual health. It was then seen that his recovery was beyond human aid and gradually he sank and departed this world on Sunday morning. The Colonel was one of the best known men in Acton and his demise is deeply regretted.

The ladies of the Mission Circle of the Methodist Church, Erin, intend holding their annual entertainment on the evening of Good Friday.

Mrs. J. S. Milroy, fell recently and broke two of her ribs, but we learn that she is doing nicely.

George Davis has disposed of his celebrated native horse "Petroleum," to Mr.
George Berry, for a handsome sum.
Berry has taken him to the Northwest.

We understand it is the intention of some of our enterprising young men to call a meeting at an early date to arrange for a Queen's birthday celebration in Erin.

Mrs. Baker was favored to confer with the Board adjourned at 11:00 o'clock.

ROCKWOOD.

Mrs. John Wright is visiting friends in Hanover.

Miss Esther Richardson is spending a few days in Toronto with her sister Mrs.
Geo. Grieve.

Another grand carnival will be held in the next week at which good prices will be given.

A special song service was held in connection with the regular meeting of the Epworth League in the Methodist Church on Monday evening which was very interesting and largely attended.

Ernest Walker, a young man in the employ of Mr. Jas. Reid, had several fingers of his right hand badly mangled by getting them into a trap set for Monday morning.
