

The Young Folks.

A RIVER'S SERMON.

Er I was a wabber river.
Hurry in my wabber river.
I have been a ferber streamlet.

POINTERS FOR FARMERS.

Who are not above Profitting by the Experience of Others.

Are not ten hours work a day on the farm enough, with improved machinery?

Manure worked into the surface will soon get low enough for deep rooted plants.

Grain sown close and left as it falls, makes good mulch for grass or clover.

Loose stones in the yard can sometimes be used as the foundation of a ferry.

To much moisture causes shallow rooting of plants and easy destruction by drought.

Millions of dollars' worth of crops are yearly destroyed in the country by insects.

A variety of stock gives a chance to feed much that would otherwise be wasted.

Nature drops her fertilizing material on the surface, except roots that decay in the ground.

As far as possible resort to rain water properly saved for drinking and domestic purposes.

Overfeeding stock is the offspring of an indefatigable dog. Here extreme meanness.

The use of different fertilizers on the soil is the best method of testing it to find its needs.

In transplanting, grasses liberally, lest the roots be unable to supply sufficient sap for the top.

To deepen a hard pan soil, use a sub soil plow, leaving it lying below the mellow surface soil.

If men knew each other better, there would be less conflict and more charity in the world.

If improved bedding material and increased capacity to run through a cutter.

Three best animals can be grown and disposed of while one better animal is being fully developed.

No matter what cows are worth in the market, if you own them yourself you can afford to feed them.

The cultivation of the head and heart is of more consequence than the cultivation of the soil.

Nothing short of persistent care and scrupulous cleanliness will eradicate that wretched and insidious disease—thrush.

One great trouble in combining beef and butter is that your best animal manure and ought to be marketed before the butter cow has reached her peak.

A great many hickling cows might be cured and more prevented by simply trimming the finger nails often enough to keep them from cutting the teats of the cows.

The best for stock breeding creates a demand for experts in stock raising, and young farmers who have studied the subject carefully are more in demand each year.

If cows are to be fed out to stock on the farm, it is adding to the expense to breed them. They make a better and more wholesome feed to man through a cutting box, while there is little or no waste.

Learn all you can about animal diseases and their remedies. If you take an interest in these things and remember easily, perhaps you will sometimes study and become a veterinarian. There are good opportunities in this field.—N.W. Agriculturalist.

There Was No Room for Him.

It is related in a Pennsylvania village that on the Fourth of July, many years ago, a certain eloquent member of Congress was delivering an oration.

"Save who can" was the frantic cry of Napoleon to his army at Waterloo. Save health and strength while you can, by the use of Ayer's Sarsaparilla.

The B. N. A. Act.

The great British North America act, known as the B. N. A. Act, is a law that has done more to unite the people of this continent than any other act.

In what place shall we put this peerless man of Mount Vesuvius? Shall we put him among the kings of the earth? No; for he scorched their titles. Shall we put him among the soldiers? No; for he was much more than a soldier.

Just then, Sturdy McDonald, a Scotchman whose acquaintance with American history was possibly not much greater than his liking for the American story, rose from his seat in the midst of the audience.

"Here now," he said, "ye can't put 'im in any place 'ere, for I'm ga' out."

The world is not greatly indebted to good natured people for its progress.

SURPRISE SOAP

While the best for all household uses, has peculiar qualities for easy and quick washing of clothes. It does away with that boiling and scalding—the clothes come out sweet, clean and white.

Harshness to hands and fabrics—lathers freely—lasts longest.

NOTES HERE AND THERE.

Items of General Interest to Free Press Readers.

My Toothache.

Is an exclamation heard every hour in the day. Toothache is the most common ailment of young and old, and in the aggregate inflicts more suffering than perhaps any other single complaint.

A one minute cure is just what every person desires to possess. Nervine—pure pain cure—acts almost instantly in relieving the agony, and a simple bottle affords a quantity sufficient for 100 applications.

A happy man is one who doesn't want that he can't have.

Mrs. M. Spencer, of Albany, N. Y., writes as follows: My stomach was so weak that I could not eat anything sour or very sweet, even fruit at tea-time would cause heartburn, fulness or oppression of the chest, short breath, drowsiness during sleep, and frequent dreams of disagreeable sights, so that I would often dread to go to bed.

With the use of Nottrop & Lyman's Vegetable Discovery this unpleasantness has all been removed, and I now can eat what pleases my fancy.

Oh, What a Cough?

Will you heed the warning. The signal perhaps of the cure approach that more terrible disease Consumption. Ask your doctor if you can afford for the sake of saving life, to run the risk and do nothing for it. We know from experience that Shiloh's Cure will cure your cough. It never fails.

Amelia—What prevented your club from giving its projected party?

When the hair begins to come out in pomphing, it shows a weakness of the scalp that calls for immediate attention. The best preparation to arrest further loss of hair and restore the scalp to a healthy condition is Ayer's Hair Vigor.

Highest Award.

At the Universal Cookery and Food Exhibition held in London and opened by the Lord Mayor, May 2nd, 1892, Messrs. W. G. Dunn & Co., of Croydon, London, and Hamilton, Canada, obtained the highest award for Baking Powder.

If you want to buy or sell a Farm, or advertise in the Toronto Weekly Mail, that paper reaches 100,000 Farmers' homes every week, and your advertisement should meet the eye of someone who wants to purchase.

Overfeeding stock is the offspring of an indefatigable dog. Here extreme meanness.

The use of different fertilizers on the soil is the best method of testing it to find its needs.

In transplanting, grasses liberally, lest the roots be unable to supply sufficient sap for the top.

To deepen a hard pan soil, use a sub soil plow, leaving it lying below the mellow surface soil.

If men knew each other better, there would be less conflict and more charity in the world.

If improved bedding material and increased capacity to run through a cutter.

Three best animals can be grown and disposed of while one better animal is being fully developed.

No matter what cows are worth in the market, if you own them yourself you can afford to feed them.

The cultivation of the head and heart is of more consequence than the cultivation of the soil.

Nothing short of persistent care and scrupulous cleanliness will eradicate that wretched and insidious disease—thrush.

One great trouble in combining beef and butter is that your best animal manure and ought to be marketed before the butter cow has reached her peak.

A great many hickling cows might be cured and more prevented by simply trimming the finger nails often enough to keep them from cutting the teats of the cows.

The best for stock breeding creates a demand for experts in stock raising, and young farmers who have studied the subject carefully are more in demand each year.

If cows are to be fed out to stock on the farm, it is adding to the expense to breed them. They make a better and more wholesome feed to man through a cutting box, while there is little or no waste.

Learn all you can about animal diseases and their remedies. If you take an interest in these things and remember easily, perhaps you will sometimes study and become a veterinarian. There are good opportunities in this field.—N.W. Agriculturalist.

There Was No Room for Him.

It is related in a Pennsylvania village that on the Fourth of July, many years ago, a certain eloquent member of Congress was delivering an oration.

"Save who can" was the frantic cry of Napoleon to his army at Waterloo. Save health and strength while you can, by the use of Ayer's Sarsaparilla.

The B. N. A. Act.

The great British North America act, known as the B. N. A. Act, is a law that has done more to unite the people of this continent than any other act.

In what place shall we put this peerless man of Mount Vesuvius? Shall we put him among the kings of the earth? No; for he scorched their titles. Shall we put him among the soldiers? No; for he was much more than a soldier.

Just then, Sturdy McDonald, a Scotchman whose acquaintance with American history was possibly not much greater than his liking for the American story, rose from his seat in the midst of the audience.

"Here now," he said, "ye can't put 'im in any place 'ere, for I'm ga' out."

The world is not greatly indebted to good natured people for its progress.

Confirmed.

The favorable impression produced on the first appearance of the agreeable liquid fruit remedy Syrup of Figs a few years ago has been more than confirmed by the pleasant experience of all who have used it, and the success of the proprietors and manufacturers the California Fig Syrup Company.

Boston Mail—In Boston even the boot blacks, some of them, have studied Linnæus, New Yorker—in New York nearly all the bootblacks are proficients in Italian.

No other Emulsion equals Miller's Cod Liver Oil Emulsion in pleasant taste, nourishing power or curative effect.

A Family Friend.

Sir—I have used Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry in my family for years and can highly recommend it for summer complaint, diarrhoea, cramps, etc.

Mrs. Geo. W. W. of Waterville, Ont.

Cowboy—Goes you never killed a man, did you? Tenderfoot—(Huh, I helped to kill half a dozen of them.) Here?—No. At college. "Fighting with 'em."

No. Initiating them.

How Mr. W. D. Wenter of Geneva, N. Y., was cured of the severest form of dyspepsia. He says everything he ate seemed like pouring melted lead into his stomach. Hood's Sarsaparilla effected a cure. Full particulars will be sent if you write to C. I. Hood & Co., Lowell, Mass.

The highest praise has been won by Hood's Pills for their easy yet efficient action.

Long Worms, Pin Worms, Round Worms or Tapeworms are promptly destroyed and removed by Dr. Low's Worm Syrup.

"Did you," he inquired, in an intensely sentimental tone, "ever sigh for death?" "Who?" she inquired, with an interest and promptness that brought him back to earth so fast, that he nearly lost his breath.

Canada is being congratulated everywhere on the excellence of her manufacturers. Art Stained Glass is prominently in the front rank of her improvements, thanks to McCasland & Son, of Toronto, who for 40 years have labored, not only to accumulate money, but to obtain for Canada and Oriental Glass of all kinds a credit to the Dominion.

Better Than Gold.

GENTLEMEN—I have used Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry for bowel complaint and can say there is no other remedy as good.

Mrs. J. J. Kenney, Lake Shore, Ont.

Houses—You're a sight. What's the matter with you? Travelling Companion—"I'm 'most dead. Every time my body looks at me I have to take a drink of water to show that I'm not afflicted with hydrophobia."

Her Ladyship.

Personage of high rank in England are patrons of a great remedy. Bridget's Hoop, Liver, Biceps, Eng. "Lady Edwards has suffered for several years from rheumatism, especially in the knees. She was persuaded to try St. Jacobs Oil, and after a fortnight's use of it, all the rheumatic pains have left her. The relief is such that Lady Edwards will never be without a bottle."

C. C. Richards & Co.

Gent.—My daughter was suffering terribly with neuralgia. I purchased a bottle of MINARD'S LINIMENT and rubbed her face thoroughly. The pain left her and she slept well till morning. Next night another attack, another application resulted as previously, with no return since. Grateful feelings determined me to express myself publicly. I would not be without MINARD'S LINIMENT in the house at any cost.

J. H. Bailey.

Parade, Ont.

Rich Plum Pudding.

This delicious confection is wisely calculated to produce dyspepsia, heartburn, bilious troubles and headache. "Burdock Blood Bitters is equally well calculated to cure these troubles and has proved its power in hundreds of cases. B. B. B. regulates and purifies the entire system.

Kansas has a girl who permitted political men to be printed on her suspenders. If any higher distinction is desired, she has yet developed itself it is kept from the public.

Poisoned by Scrofula.

Is the sad story of many lives made miserable through no fault of their own. Scrofula is more especially than any other a hereditary disease, and for this simple reason: But there is a remedy for scrofula, whether hereditary or acquired. It is Hood's Sarsaparilla, which by its powerful effect on the blood, expels all traces of the disease and gives to the vital fluid the quality and color of health.

Worse and Weaker.

GENTLEMEN—I suffered for three days very severely from summer complaint and could not get relief but kept getting worse and worse till the pain was almost unbearable and I became very weak. Some friends advised Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry, and after I had taken the first dose I found much relief and it did not fail to cure me. I do not intend to be without this valuable medicine if I can help it.

Wm. T. Glenn, Wilford, Ont.

Differences of opinion regarding the popular internal and external remedy, Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil—do not, so far as known, exist. The testimony is positive and consistent that the article relieves physical pain, cures lameness, checks a cough, is an excellent remedy for pains and rheumatic complaints, and it has no nauseating or other unpleasant effect when taken internally.

Our Word-Catting.

Many centuries ago the first monarch of the province of Malabar, in Hindoostan, gave to one of his subjects as a reward for distinguished services, his sword, and all the land within the limit of which a cock crowed at a certain temple could be heard.

From the circumstance the little town, which grew up in the centre of this territory, was called Cocktown or "The Cock Country." Afterward it was called Cock City, and from this place the first cotton goods were imported into England bearing the word "Cotton" in the name of the town.

Boerum—"Did you ever think how much of truth there is in some of our popular comic songs?" Boerum (sharply)—"Yes." Boerum—"Now, for instance: 'There are times when one would like to be alone.'" Boerum—"That's the one I was thinking about."

Boerum—"Did you ever think how much of truth there is in some of our popular comic songs?" Boerum (sharply)—"Yes." Boerum—"Now, for instance: 'There are times when one would like to be alone.'" Boerum—"That's the one I was thinking about."

Boerum—"Did you ever think how much of truth there is in some of our popular comic songs?" Boerum (sharply)—"Yes." Boerum—"Now, for instance: 'There are times when one would like to be alone.'" Boerum—"That's the one I was thinking about."

Boerum—"Did you ever think how much of truth there is in some of our popular comic songs?" Boerum (sharply)—"Yes." Boerum—"Now, for instance: 'There are times when one would like to be alone.'" Boerum—"That's the one I was thinking about."

Boerum—"Did you ever think how much of truth there is in some of our popular comic songs?" Boerum (sharply)—"Yes." Boerum—"Now, for instance: 'There are times when one would like to be alone.'" Boerum—"That's the one I was thinking about."

Boerum—"Did you ever think how much of truth there is in some of our popular comic songs?" Boerum (sharply)—"Yes." Boerum—"Now, for instance: 'There are times when one would like to be alone.'" Boerum—"That's the one I was thinking about."

Boerum—"Did you ever think how much of truth there is in some of our popular comic songs?" Boerum (sharply)—"Yes." Boerum—"Now, for instance: 'There are times when one would like to be alone.'" Boerum—"That's the one I was thinking about."

Boerum—"Did you ever think how much of truth there is in some of our popular comic songs?" Boerum (sharply)—"Yes." Boerum—"Now, for instance: 'There are times when one would like to be alone.'" Boerum—"That's the one I was thinking about."

Boerum—"Did you ever think how much of truth there is in some of our popular comic songs?" Boerum (sharply)—"Yes." Boerum—"Now, for instance: 'There are times when one would like to be alone.'" Boerum—"That's the one I was thinking about."

Boerum—"Did you ever think how much of truth there is in some of our popular comic songs?" Boerum (sharply)—"Yes." Boerum—"Now, for instance: 'There are times when one would like to be alone.'" Boerum—"That's the one I was thinking about."

Boerum—"Did you ever think how much of truth there is in some of our popular comic songs?" Boerum (sharply)—"Yes." Boerum—"Now, for instance: 'There are times when one would like to be alone.'" Boerum—"That's the one I was thinking about."

Boerum—"Did you ever think how much of truth there is in some of our popular comic songs?" Boerum (sharply)—"Yes." Boerum—"Now, for instance: 'There are times when one would like to be alone.'" Boerum—"That's the one I was thinking about."

Boerum—"Did you ever think how much of truth there is in some of our popular comic songs?" Boerum (sharply)—"Yes." Boerum—"Now, for instance: 'There are times when one would like to be alone.'" Boerum—"That's the one I was thinking about."

Boerum—"Did you ever think how much of truth there is in some of our popular comic songs?" Boerum (sharply)—"Yes." Boerum—"Now, for instance: 'There are times when one would like to be alone.'" Boerum—"That's the one I was thinking about."

Boerum—"Did you ever think how much of truth there is in some of our popular comic songs?" Boerum (sharply)—"Yes." Boerum—"Now, for instance: 'There are times when one would like to be alone.'" Boerum—"That's the one I was thinking about."

Boerum—"Did you ever think how much of truth there is in some of our popular comic songs?" Boerum (sharply)—"Yes." Boerum—"Now, for instance: 'There are times when one would like to be alone.'" Boerum—"That's the one I was thinking about."

Boerum—"Did you ever think how much of truth there is in some of our popular comic songs?" Boerum (sharply)—"Yes." Boerum—"Now, for instance: 'There are times when one would like to be alone.'" Boerum—"That's the one I was thinking about."

Boerum—"Did you ever think how much of truth there is in some of our popular comic songs?" Boerum (sharply)—"Yes." Boerum—"Now, for instance: 'There are times when one would like to be alone.'" Boerum—"That's the one I was thinking about."

Boerum—"Did you ever think how much of truth there is in some of our popular comic songs?" Boerum (sharply)—"Yes." Boerum—"Now, for instance: 'There are times when one would like to be alone.'" Boerum—"That's the one I was thinking about."

Boerum—"Did you ever think how much of truth there is in some of our popular comic songs?" Boerum (sharply)—"Yes." Boerum—"Now, for instance: 'There are times when one would like to be alone.'" Boerum—"That's the one I was thinking about."

Boerum—"Did you ever think how much of truth there is in some of our popular comic songs?" Boerum (sharply)—"Yes." Boerum—"Now, for instance: 'There are times when one would like to be alone.'" Boerum—"That's the one I was thinking about."

A GROWING CURSE.

Intemperance is a growing curse. Its horrors have never been fully portrayed. No pencil is black enough to paint the picture and do it full justice. No tongue is eloquent enough to tell the sad story in all its dreadful details.

Illustrating the horror, describing the stomach, paralyzing the nerves, hardening the liver, poisoning the blood, congealing the brain, inducing and aggravating many diseases and dignifying myriads of premature graves. It is a fiendish curse draining the pockets, ravaging the system, filling almshouses, creating bankruptcy. It is a mental curse, clouding the judgment, deluging the reason, promoting ignorance, producing imbecility and tearing its victims into maniac and fools. It is a moral curse, weakening the will, infaming the passions, hushing the voice of conscience and preparing the way for every vice and crime. The attendant evils of intemperance are like a locust plague. In the slinky trail of the alcoholic serpent you find everything that is dark and dreadful—everything that is ruinful and ruinous. You find men without manhood, women without womanhood, age without solace, infancy without hope.

You find bad manners and bad morals, bad words and bad actions, bad reputations and bad characters, bad plans and bad performances, bad parents and bad children, a bad beginning and a bad end. Surely intemperance is the growing curse of society.

The Uses of Honey.

A writer in the Horticultural Times expresses surprise that honey is so seldom seen on the tables of the people of this country. Honey is at once a valuable medicine and food. It is a most wholesome and economical substitute for butter, being, as a rule, half the price of that article. Honey is of more service in our cooking than most people imagine. Honey, easy, indeed, replace sugar as an ingredient in the cooking of almost any article of food. In so pudding the writer invariably uses honey instead of sugar; it is far more delicious. For preserving most kinds of fruit, honey is far preferable to sugar, as it has the quality of preserving for a long time in a fresh state anything that may be laid in it or mixed with it, and preventing the corruption that is apt to occur for masses to rot. For many medicinal purposes, honey is invaluable. To some residents who may be judged and look careworn after the excitement of late hours, when the skin becomes dry, red and harsh-looking, try the effect of rubbing gently a thin coating of honey on the face before going to bed. It is one of the finest cosmetics in the world.

Don't Call Him Old Man.

Boys, when you speak of your father, don't call him 'the old man.' Of course you are much older now than when you learned to call him 'father.' You are much smarter than you were then; you are much more manly looking. Your clothes fit better, your hat has a more modern shape, and your hair is combed different. In short, you are 'fyer' than you were then. Your father has a fat year's coat and a yet of all other pattern. He can't write such an elegant note as you can, and all that, but don't call him 'the old man.' Call him 'father.' For years he has been beating around to get things together; he has been held to the theory path of uphill industry for years and the brightest half of his life has gone from him forever. But he loves you, though he goes along without saying much about it, and if he knew that you were bad it would be the heaviest burden he has to bear.—Exchange.

You Will be Wanted.

Take courage, young man. What if you are not an humble and obscure apprentice—a poor and neglected orphan, if you have an intelligent mind, all nurtured though it may be, a virtuous and honest heart, depend upon it, one of these days you will be wanted. The time may be long deferred. You may grow to middle age, and may even reach your prime. In this call it may be; but virtuous aims, pure desires and honest hearts are too few to be wanted. Be charitable in your judgment with circumstances. Be active, however small your sphere of action. It will surely enlarge with every moment, and your influence will have constant increase.

Just arrived a fine assortment of Flower Pots—at T. H. Hamilton's Grocery.

Views of any building, residence or section of the town made at any time and kept on hand, for sale.—H. Raymond.

If you want first-class Golph ball and doors at Golph prices, T. E. Ennos can fill your order, at the pleasing price.

Our Word-Catting.

Many centuries ago the first monarch of the province of Malabar, in Hindoostan, gave to one of his subjects as a reward for distinguished services, his sword, and all the land within the limit of which a cock crowed at a certain temple could be heard.

From the circumstance the little town, which grew up in the centre of this territory, was called Cocktown or "The Cock Country." Afterward it was called Cock City, and from this place the first cotton goods were imported into England bearing the word "Cotton" in the name of the town.

Boerum—"Did you ever think how much of truth there is in some of our popular comic songs?" Boerum (sharply)—"Yes." Boerum—"Now, for instance: 'There are times when one would like to be alone.'" Boerum—"That's the one I was thinking about."

Boerum—"Did you ever think how much of truth there is in some of our popular comic songs?" Boerum (sharply)—"Yes." Boerum—"Now, for instance: 'There are times when one would like to be alone.'" Boerum—"That's the one I was thinking about."

Boerum—"Did you ever think how much of truth there is in some of our popular comic songs?" Boerum (sharply)—"Yes." Boerum—"Now, for instance: 'There are times when one would like to be alone.'" Boerum—"That's the one I was thinking about."

Boerum—"Did you ever think how much of truth there is in some of our popular comic songs?" Boerum (sharply)—"Yes." Boerum—"Now, for instance: 'There are times when one would like to be alone.'" Boerum—"That's the one I was thinking about."

Boerum—"Did you ever think how much of truth there is in some of our popular comic songs?" Boerum (sharply)—"Yes." Boerum—"Now, for instance: 'There are times when one would like to be alone.'" Boerum—"That's the one I was thinking about."

Boerum—"Did you ever think how much of truth there is in some of our popular comic songs?" Boerum (sharply)—"Yes." Boerum—"Now, for instance: 'There are times when one would like to be alone.'" Boerum—"That's the one I was thinking about."

Boerum—"Did you ever think how much of truth there is in some of our popular comic songs?" Boerum (sharply)—"Yes." Boerum—"Now, for instance: 'There are times when one would like to be alone.'" Boerum—"That's the one I was thinking about."

Boerum—"Did you ever think how much of truth there is in some of our popular comic songs?" Boerum (sharply)—"Yes." Boerum—"Now, for instance: 'There are times when one would like to be alone.'" Boerum—"That's the one I was thinking about."

Boerum—"Did you ever think how much of truth there is in some of our popular comic songs?" Boerum (sharply)—"Yes." Boerum—"Now, for instance: 'There are times when one would like to be alone.'" Boerum—"That's the one I was thinking about."

Boerum—"Did you ever think how much of truth there is in some of our popular comic songs?" Boerum (sharply)—"Yes." Boerum—"Now, for instance: 'There are times when one would like to be alone.'" Boerum—"That's the one I was thinking about."

Boerum—"Did you ever think how much of truth there is in some of our popular comic songs?" Boerum (sharply)—"Yes." Boerum—"Now, for instance: 'There are times when one would like to be alone.'" Boerum—"That's the one I was thinking about."

Boerum—"Did you ever think how much of truth there is in some of our popular comic songs?" Boerum (sharply)—"Yes." Boerum—"Now, for instance: 'There are times when one would like to be alone.'" Boerum—"That's the one I was thinking about."

Boerum—"Did you ever think how much of truth there is in some of our popular comic songs?" Boerum (sharply)—"Yes." Boerum—"Now, for instance: 'There are times when one would like to be alone.'" Boerum—"That's the one I was thinking about."

Boerum—"Did you ever think how much of truth there is in some of our popular comic songs?" Boerum (sharply)—"Yes." Boerum—"Now, for instance: 'There are times when one would like to be alone.'" Boerum—"That's the one I was thinking about."

Boerum—"Did you ever think how much of truth there is in some of our popular comic songs?" Boerum (sharply)—"Yes." Boerum—"Now, for instance: 'There are times when one would like to be alone.'" Boerum