light system.

-This is "self-denial" week in the Salvation Army.

-A world of wealth lies in that one word-advertising.

-A competent dentist could do a good business in Acton.

-Fishes are very scarce late, and tiggines are asked for them.

-Mr. J. S. Deacon, P. S. I., paid the public school a visit on Monday.

-One of the events of the day is shooting match at the park this afternoon.

-The farmers are busy with their turnips, when the weather will permit.

-A new catalog has just been issued for St. Albans Sunday School library.

-The Teney family gave enjoyable entertainment to fair audiences last week.

-A Thanksgiving service was held in the Baptist Church on Tuesday evening.

-A new platform has been laid at the G. T. R. Station. It is about 200 feet long.

-1892 will be remembered for its two early snow storms on the 4th October and 6th November.

-Mr. John B. Cameron has succeeded in keeping last year's Russell apple and beet until this time.

-Messrs. J. T. Brown & Co., and James Parkhill, both dealers in boots & shoes, Guelph, have arrived.

-The corporation of Bradford will pay $200 and costs for damage sustained by a lady from a defective sidewalk.

-The Brussels School Board had one hybrid application for a position as teacher which the Board filled last week.

-Rev. Joseph Edge will deliver his lecture "Take home things you borrow" in the Methodist Church, Milton, this evening.

-It is now definitely stated that Mr. M.
W. Cook, of Cockville, is in the field as a candidate for Parliamentary honours in Feb.

-The vacancy in the License Inspectorate has at last been filled. Mr. T. A. Reynolds, of Oakville, has been appointed to the office.

THE NEWS AT HOME.

Mostly of a Local Character, and Every Item Interesting.

Wm. Warner's Barn Burned.

William Warner, farmer, lot 1 concession 5, Uptownship, left home late Wednesday morning at 6 o'clock with a load of poultry for Guelph market. Between 8 and 9 o'clock his barn, implements and grain were consumed by fire and when informed of it by some of his neighbors, who went to the city later in the day, he was very much astonished. He has a heavy loss. Insured in the London Mutual for $100 loss over $2000.

Re-caught.

Charles Hamilton, the youth who escaped from Countess Ross, of Preston, at Acton a couple of weeks ago, was recaptured on Friday night at Toronto by Detective Caddy. High Constable Hopkins, of Berlin, went down after the boy and the prisoner is now safely housed in Berlin jail. He will serve out his 60 days' sentence, and will then be held to tell who killed the man who murdered Detective Harry Parr at London.

Conductor Snider will Preach.

The forty-ninth anniversary of the Methodist Church will be observed next Sunday, when sermons will be preached by Conductor Snider of the Grand Trunk Railway. The reputation of the Conductor as a eloquent and interesting preacher is conceded him and the congregations are likely to be large on this occasion.
The church will render music suitable to the occasion. Special collections will be taken at both morning and evening services for the funds of the Ladies' Aid Society.

Ontario Fat Stock Show.

Preparations are being made for the ninth annual Ontario fat stock show to be held in Guelph on December 14th and 15th under the auspices of the Agricultural and Art Association of Ontario. The Guelph Fat Stock Club and the Sheep and Swine Breeders' Association. The show will be held in the new stock pens, a building which will afford ample accommodation for all the animals and great convenience for the exhibitors. It will be a great success.

Sunday School Thanksgiving Meeting.

The Guelph Mercury says:-About 200 of the Sunday School teachers and officers of the city gathered in Knox church school room yesterday afternoon, on invitation of the City Association, to return thanks to God for the success of the late Provincial Convention in all its arrangements, and the blessings derived therefrom. Mr. J.
McCrea, President of the Provincial Association, had charge, supported by Messrs. John Davidson and G. B. Ryan, and a union choir. The meeting was a most helpful one, praise and prayer alternating during the service.

Thanksgiving Service.

Services for special thanksgiving to Almighty God will be held this evening as follows:-In the Methodist Church at 10.30, and in Knox Church at 11 o'clock.

The pastors of the several churches will conduct the services. A collection will be taken in Knox Church to aid the Presbyterian congregation in St. Johns, N.S., in rebuilding that church recently destroyed by fire.

A social will be held in Knox Church this evening under the auspices of the Ladies' Aid. After the Rev. J. W.
Price will deliver a lecture entitled, "The Protestant World as seen in the fifth Pan American," Dr. Henderson M. P. will preside.
