LITTLE LOCAL BRIEFLETS Which Caught the Eyes or Ears of Free Press Reporters this Week.

Good depth of snow now.
The temperatures are busy now.
Milder weather than last week.
Wood is moving in large quantities.
The usual "January thaw" is talked of.

The old bell does not fit the new school very well.
Pork sold at $5.00 on Guelph market last Saturday.
Jack frost nipped a good many ears and trees last week.

The collector's roll is to be returned on the 15th of February.
The Grippe continues to attack the victims without fear or favor.
The zero weather has played havoc with coal bins and wood piles.

Another new doctor has settled in Guelph, Dr. W. J. Robinson, of Acton.
The new Baptist Church at Guelph was opened and dedicated on Sunday and Monday.
A January thaw would be generally acceptable, as water is very low in most cisterns.

Last week in Acton a young man was fined $2 and costs for purchasing liquor after hours.
Mr. Gray, a student from Toronto conducts services in the Disciples' church every Sunday.
Reverend Pearson goes to Milton next Tuesday to attend the first meeting of the County Council for the year.

The Streetville Woolen Mills are about to be re-opened. For eighteen months they have been shut down.
Miss Strachan, of Rockwood, has quite a large class of pupils in music here.
They are doing well under her tuition.
The furnace at the new school are fully adequate to the cold weather, and the pupils were comfortable the most severe days.

Wouldn't it be a good idea to stir up the roller mill project again? A little extra cheerful effort would ensure a success of the scheme.
Everybody stands aghast at the enormous amount of information in the Star Almanac of Montreal. There is a scramble to get copies of it.

Don't deprive your family of the best paper they receive, by allowing the Free Press to be discontinued. Less than ten cents a week will pay for it.
Mr. J. T. Ellis, of St. Jacobs, remembered the Free Press the other day with a copy of the New York Herald's illustrated souvenir edition. The World building is a twenty-six story edifice.

The annual meeting of the Hallow Teachers' Association will be held in Barrington on Thursday and Friday of next week. Mr. Wm. Houston M. A. of Toronto, will take part in the proceedings.
The crazy Chinaman who merrily assaulted a fellow-countryman at Guelph some months ago, was badly frozen while wandering about Oxford county a few days ago, and died in Igersoll on Friday.

Rev. J. Edge goes to Hesperia to preach anniversary sermons next Sunday.
Rev. W. H. Harvey, D. A., of Hesperia, one of the most acceptable preachers of the conference, will occupy the pulpit of the Methodist Church here.

At a meeting of the Council held last week $5.00 was refunded Arnold Bros. as proprietors of exemption of their glove works for 1927, $2 was paid J. E. Lawson V. S. for professional examination; $4 to Joby Arthur for wood and $1.64 to J. V. Hanna win for coal oil.

The new American postage stamps have made their appearance in a series of bright oblong squares considerably longer than the ordinary stamp. They are very pretty and different demonstrations give views of various scenes in the discovery of America by Columbus.

An old bachelor, who forgets that his lover was a boy, delivered himself in this fashion: "That boy has left learned the bitterness of life when he first touched the truth that there is no fun in having a slight nip five minutes in order to enjoy himself going down for thirty seconds."

Brookfield lady had the misfortune the other day to sustain the loss of a gold watch in a peculiar manner. In stooping over the edge of the coal bin filling a scuttle her watch fell into the scuttle, and was dumped into the stove. When she missed her watch later on she immediately commenced raking the coal from the stove, only to find part of the watch, the case having melted with the heat.

For the next 30 days I will make only one lot, full figure, for $2.00 per doz.
H. HANNA.

THE NEWS AT HOME

Mostly of a Local Character, and Every Item Interesting.

A Couple of Accidents.
Last Thursday evening Mr. William Trotter had the misfortune to break one of the fingers of his right hand. He was standing on a box heaving a picture in his parlor when he slipped and fell with the above mentioned result. One day last week while teaching tennis to Campbell, now building on Main street, the head coach and Isiah Cou, who was driving it, was severely injured. The deep snow saved him from serious and perhaps fatal injury, but his shoulder and side were badly bruised.

A Pleasant Social Evening.
A very pleasant evening was spent last Friday by the members of King Church choir in Mrs. Adams oyster parlor. The choir met for their usual weekly practice in the classroom of the church, after which they were invited by their leader, Mr. A. T. Mann, to an oyster supper which was very interestingly prepared by Mrs. Adams. The appetizing repast had been fully enjoyed by the members adjourned to the adjoining room where a couple of hours were spent in social amusements, after which the company dispersed.

Reception Service at the Brick Church.
Rev. H. B. Christie, the pastor, held a baptismal and reception service on Sunday evening, at the Brick Church. An interesting "soirée" service was held, the Misses Abbott and Benson, of Everton, receiving a number of deacons and wives, and an appropriate address was given by the pastor. Rev. Mr. Edge administered the rite of baptism upon five adult candidates, and fourteen persons were received into full connection with the church. The efforts of the popular young pastor are meeting with success in this congregation.

A Smart Girl Talks to the Boys.
A 16 year-old girl reads a lecture to the young men in a Lincoln county exchange in this fashion: "Why do you young men do this vicious do so much? I'm going to work! Push ahead! I am not a young girl. I have clothed myself and got money in the bank and only 16 years old.
I lay up more money every year of my life than any boy or young man within a radius of three miles of my home. When they get a dollar they go to a dance and go home a dollar out. My father is able to support me, but I choose to support myself. Advise all girls to get clear of those loving boys. Give them a wide berth and never marry a man unless he is able to support you, and never put your arm through the handle of a man's gun." and meritorious entertainment of the kind has never been given in this Auditorium.
