Hamilton, February 2nd, 1923.

THOMAS C. WATKINS.

A GOOD BEGINNING BUT—

An Ohio schoolmistress voted for the following as a faithful copy of a boy's composition on Columbus. Some of the writer's historical statements are a little "mixed," but our readers will not need to have the errors pointed out—

"Columbus a great patriot he was born in Genoa, Italy. It is undoubtedly known what year, but I think it was Friday, October 12, 1455. Columbus was the youngest of his five brothers and so he couldn't do anything for his country. He went to Brooklyn, New York, and walked the streets until he was tired and hungry. He then went to a baker shop and bought him two three cent loaves of bread, he ate one going along the street, and the other he put in a red handkerchief and put it in his pocket, a lady seeing him laughed at him and made fun of him, finally he became so smart that she married him."

FRIVOLS OF THE PAST.

Bangs were first worn in the court of Louis XIV. Greek ladies had 157 different styles of dressing hair. Catherine de Medici imported muffs into France from Italy. Corslets have been worn on the waists of Egyptian mummies. On festive occasions both Greek and Roman were garlands of flowers. Shoes with heels 6 inches high were worn at the court of Louis XIV. Greek ladies had bare feet and wore sandals of various kinds. Fashion plates came into use during the last quarter of the eighteenth century.

DR. WOOD'S

A LITTLE GIRL'S DANGER.

Mr. Henry Lombard, Leyland St., Blackburn, London, Eng., states that his little girl fell and struck her knee against a curbstone. The knee began to swell, became very painful and terminated in what doctors call "white swelling." She was treated by the best medical men, but grew worse daily.

ST. JACOBS OIL

completely reduced the swelling, killed the pain and cured her. "ALL RIGHT! ST. JACOBS OIL DID IT!"
