Education and Housework.

HOW I WON HER.

I used to believe very intensely in the common sense of the uneducated. I fancied that those who could not read books would be the better class nature, and take lesson from experience. I have altered my mind on this subject, and now declare that educated women are the only women who bring common sense to the aid of housework.

I have altered my mind on this subject, and now declare that educated women are the only women who bring common sense to the aid of housework. I have altered my mind on this subject, and now declare that educated women are the only women who bring common sense to the aid of housework.

THE REAL MONROE DOCTRINE.

Of course this does not mean that the United States shall go grabbing about the world in search of distant specks. The Monroe doctrine is a policy of entanglement in affairs purely European or a reversal of the Monroe doctrine in any real sense. But it does mean an intelligent and modern construction of that doctrine.

THE VOYAGE OF TROUSERS.

A pair of trousers is reported to have been lost in the ocean current in the Behring Sea, and afterward to have been found on the coast of Greenland. It is believed that the trousers passed around the north pole of the American Continent, and many explorers believe that this is proof that the North Pole may yet be reached, because a man on whose trousers it was long ago believed as proof that the poles were connected.

THE RIGHTFUL HEIRESS.

It was late on a rainy afternoon, the great rain falling heavily, that a young girl, with a bundle under her arm, knocked at the door of a small cottage in a quiet street. The door opened, and a woman, with a look of surprise, looked at the girl.

"What is it, my dear?" she asked.

"I am afraid you are right," Edna replied.

"What is it, my dear?" she asked.

"I am afraid you are right," Edna replied.

"I am afraid you are right," Edna replied.
