A New Bridge Wented. A petition is being circulated and targely signed praying the Council to build bridge across the creek opposite Agues street to Cook's survey, and properly grade the street so that the residents there may have better access to their property. Beed has been sold in small lote to farmers in all parts of the province. In this way they are put in possession of new and excellent varieties of grain at very moderate prices. The demand is equally good for the trial lote given away for experimental uses. Hun dreds of farmers are being put in possession of large quantities of seed practically without cost to them. > The Guelph Mercury gives particulars of the death on Monday evening of Elder James Kilgour, of that city, who was well known by many of our citizens. Since the opening of the Disciples' Church in Acton, about fifteen years ago, he has frequently officiated at-the public services, and was often a comforting friend in times of sorrow and affliction. He was in his sist year. The Merenry says :- Mr. Kilgour has been failing this winter but had not been confined to his bed. On Sunday be seemed as bright as of yore. About a quarter to nine Monday evening Miss Kilgonr went up stairs to see that her father's room was all right, but was called down by a friend, who, on going into the sitting room, saw that the old gentleman's head had dropped on his breast. He never spoke and passed quietly away in about five minutes. At affection of the beart was the principal cause of his death. His was a long and useful life, and he was a consistent follow er of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ. The funeral will take place this morning from Guelph to the Everton Cemetery.

"Tramp, Tramp, Tramp, the Boys, etc." This does not refer to the action of our noble volunteers. As spring advances the number of tramps calling upon his worship, the Reeve, increases. Nearly every night the downy couches presided over by Officer Graham are in requsition. Five of the fraternity dreamed dreams in the cells on Sunday night; three more on Monday, and scarcely's night passes when it is not occupied by guests. The demands of the perambulating gentry are nothing if not presumptions. The modest request was made of Reeve Pearson on Monday by a strong healthy looking fellow, for a pass to St. Marya. Another wanted his tickets for meals, and when they were not forthcoming retorted that he didn't expect them any way, as insignificant places like Acton rarely knew how to treat gentlemen aright. The stories told by tramps who have visited Oakville's municipal parlors are almost heartrending. The hospitality (?) of the lakeside town is well advertised. A tramp came along the other evening, requested bed and when he entered the cells asked coustable Graham if there was no fire for viestors, when a negative reply was received he turned on his beel intimating that he had nouse for such limited accommodations. The Council refuses, except in rare cases to provide food for tramps, but this lack is
