NOTES AND COMMENTS.

The German Army Bill was rejected on Saturday in the Reichstag by a tote of 210 to 162. The Emperor immediately dissolved Parliament, and the new elections are ordered for June 15th. There is great excitement in Berlin over the result.

According to the recent census the nem ber of French Canadians in Ontario is 101,123. Haldimand has 29, Halton Hamilton 234, Lincoln 75, London 86 Ottawa 12,790, Toronto 822, Welland 40, and Wentworth 131. The proportion of French Canadians to the total population

While in Canada we have had a wer April, with rather more rain than was convenient for the prosecution of farm work, in England, France and Germany there has been a pronounced drought whose consequences threaten disaster. In two months there has only been one slight shower in London or Paris, and green vegctables are at famine prices. The grans is withered and forest fires prevail in these countries. The Bill to reduce the size of County Councils was thrown out by the Legislature the other day, on the ground that there was no general demand for it, and yet it was considered a good Bill. In such large counties as Simcor, Middlesex and the united counties of Leeds and Grenvill the councils are most unwieldy bodies, with half as many members as the Legislature itself. Fewer men would do better work, and the saving of milesge and indemnity would be considerable.

Upon the defeat of the Marter bill in the Legislature last week the Government introduced a measure for the purpose of taking a prebiscite of the people of this Province on the question of prohibition at chuine the Municipal Elections next January. If the vote is favorable to its adoption, and if the courts decide that it is within the power of the Legislature to enforce it, the Government promise that the voice of the people will be given effect by their representatives in the Legislature.
