The Houng Folks.

Mother, I see you, with your nursary light, Leading your bables, all in white, To their sweet rest: Christ, the Good Shepherd, carries mine to

And that is best I cannot help tears, when I see them twine

Their fingers in yours, and their bright curls On your warm breast: But the Saviour's is purer than yours or mine

. He can love best. You tremble each hour because your arms Are wesk; your heart to wrong with alarms And sore oppressed ; My darlings are safe, out of reach of harms,

And that is best.

You know over yours may hang even now I'ain and disease, whose fulfilling slow Saught caparrest; Mine in Gol's gardens run to and fro

And that is best. You know that of yours, your feeblest ones And dearest, may live long years alone. Unloved, unbest; Mine are cherished of saints around God's Throne.

And that is best. You must dread for yours the crime that sears. Dark guilt unwashof by repentant tears, And unconfessed; ne entered spotless on eternal years ;

Oh! how much the best.

Hot grief is selfish : I caunot see Always why I should so stricken be, More than the rest : But I know that, as well as for them, for me, God did the best.
