-- The present crop prospect of the sur rounding locality is assuming very favorable aspects. Considerable speculation was offered when the season was not far advanced as to the result the backward spring would have on the crops. To this was added the continued cold and damp weather. But potwithstanding all this, it is pleasing to note that the coolness of the weather only tended to make the growth of the crops more rapid and now, every field looks promising and the farmers say that the fall wheat and the bay never looked

THOMAS BRICHAM SUFFOCATED Found Dead In Bed, aftera Drunken Spree on Friday

Thomas Brigham, who has been running a market garden, on a portion of Mr. Fyle Somerville's farm, lot 26, con. 7, Nassagawa, a mile or, so west of Acton, and hv. ing in a house on the place, was found dead in his bed last Friday morning.

He had been drinking the day before. went home intoxicated and had a bottle of liquor with him. In the evening be became somewhat quarrelsome, and his wife and daughter, who were very much frightened, left the house and spent the night at Mr. Somerville's. In the morning smoke was seen issuing from the door and window casings and the neighbors harried over and effected an entrance. The house was full of smoke and when it had cleared away Brigham was found dead on his bed with his shirt and part of the bed clothing burnt off. The fames of coal oil were very manifest and it was evident that deceased had saturated the bed and then set fire to

it. He died from suffocation. A comper's inquest was held on Friday when the remains and surroundings were viewed by the jury, after which they adjourned until Seturdey morning. After careful investigation of the case, before Coroner Sutherland, of Georgetown County Crown Attorney Matheson and Magistrate Storey, the following verdict was returned by Robert Holmes, foreman of the jury :-"We the jurers on the Inquest held this day touching the death of one Thomas Brigham and that the decessed died from suffocation caused by his own act in setting five to his bec with coal oil, whether the intent was saided o

Death of Mr. Henry Jenner. For more than a year Mr. Jenner had been in ill health. He had a severe attack of La Grippe which weakened his constitution and emergement of the liver followed For several weeks past he was seen to be feeling but was able to be around until a few days before his death. Last week he suffered from several severe hemorrhages. On Souday shortly after noon he breathed his last, his family surrounding his bedside. Mr. Jemper was born at Yeovill. Eug. in 1530 Here he learned the business of glove cutting, and subsequently removed to Worcester. In 1861 he was one of a party of eight who emigrated to America, the first skilled glove cutters to settle in Fulton County, New York, which is to-day the glove centre of the continent. Only two of the eight now survive. They were boys together in the old land and during the thirty years which have elapsed have kept each other informed as to their movements. In 1872 Mr. Jenner removed with his family to Toronto and six years later came to Acton. He has ever since been a valued mechanic with Mesers. W. H. Storey & Son, of the Canada Glove Works. Mr. Jenner was a quiet and reserved man. respected by his fellows. His home was his palace and he was rarely away from it when not at his work. He was a regular attendant of St. Alban's Church. His wife and three children, Mrs. Loveys, who resides with the family , Harry, of Johnstown, N.Y., and Charlie, who has been his father's right hand for several years, survive him.
