Acton Free Press.

VOLUME XVIII .-- NO. 50.

ACTON, ONTARIO, THURSDAY, JUNE 15, 1893.

The Acton Free Press

EVERY THURSDAY MORNING, -SUT TA-Free Press Steam l'rinting Office,

TERMS OF SUBSCRIPTION-One dollar per year strictly in advance. All subscriptions discon-tipued when the time for which they have been sthecription is juid is denoted on the address as the common papers-only ADVERTISING RATES-Transient advertise-ments, 8 cents per Nonpareil line for first in-pertion, 3 cents per line for each subsequent

CONTRACT RATES - The following table shows our rates for the insertion of advertisements for | 1 TR. | 6 KO. | 8 KO. | 1 KO

660.00 | 635.00 | 620,00 | 67 00 85.00 80.00 19.00 90.00 15.00 7.00 6.00 8.50 2.00 inches Advertisements, without specific directions, will be inserted till forbid and charged accordtely. Transient advertisements must be paid Advertisements will be changed once each month if desired. For changes oftener than cince a month the composition must be paid for Changes for contract advertisements must in the office by noon on Tuesdays. H. P. MOORE, Editor and Proprietor.

Business Birectory.

J. F. UREN, M. D. C. M. Office and recidence-Corner Mill & Frederick

A. McKEAGUE, M. D., O Graduate of Trinity College, Hember of College of Physicians and Surgeons, Licentiate of Royal College of Physicians and Surgeons, Office and residence :- Dr. Lowry's late readence, bead of Frederick street, Acton.

E. WILKINSON, D. D. S., L. D. S. Graduate University of Toronto, Member of the Boyal College of Dental Surgeons. Office open every day except Wednesday. Thursday and Saturday. Over the Drug Store, ACTON.

L. BENNETT, L.D.S., DENTIST

McLEAN & McLEAN

Barristers, Solicitors, Notaries, Conveyancers Office: - Town Hall, Acton. WM. A. McLEAN. JNO. A. McLEAN

T A. MOWAT,

BARRISTER, SOLICITOR, NOTARY PUBLIC Money to Loan. OFFICE Date-Tuesday and Saturday. Orricz:-Kannawin's Block, Acton, up-stairs

R.J. McNABB,

CONVEYANCER, COLLECTOR, ETC. Rents and accounts collected. Agent Fire and Life Assurance. Property bought and sold. Money to loan on the most favorable terms. J. A. MOWATS Office.

HILTON, WALLBRIDGE & STONE Barristers, Solicitors, &c.

TORONTO, AND GEORGETOWN. Offices:-Creelman's Block, Georgetown, and Traders' Bank Chambers, 63 Yonge st., Toronto. J. SHILTON, D.A. W. H. WALLBEIDGE. H. E. STONE.

W. S. JACKSON, Conveyancer, Notary Public, Real Estate, Loan and Insurance Agent. Honey to loan at lowest rates. Office, Day's Block, - - Guelph, Ont-

FAMES HUTCHEON.

DATENTS SECURED

HENRY GRIST, OTTAWA, CANADA.

Twenty Y are Practice. No Patent, No Pay.

WM. HEMSTREET,

LICENSED ACCTIONEER For the Counties of Wellington and Halton. Orders left at the PREE PRESS office, Acton, or at my residence in Acton, will be promptly a tended to. Terms reasonable. money to loan on the most favorable terms, and at the lowest rates of interest, is sums of $550 and upwards.

TOHN DAY, ARCHITECT. .

GUBLPH, OKT. OFFICE:-Wyndham Street.

TRANCIS NUNAN

BOOKBINDER. Wyndbam St., Gnelph, Ontario (Over Williams' Store.) Account Books of all kinds made to order Periodicals of every description carefully bound. Rullog neatly and promptly done

THE HANLAN BARBER SHOP, MILL STREET, ACTON. An easy spare, a stylish hair-cut, a good sea-foam an exhiliarating champoo, always given. Razon hone land put in first-class condition. Ladies J & H. WORDEN, Tonsorial Artists.

Wellington Mutual Fire Insurance Company ESTABLISHED 1840. T NEURANCE on Mutual plan. Any communications forwarded to my address, Hor 728, or telephone 6s, will be promptly attended to. JOHN TAYLOR, Agent, Hamilton's Marble Works.

HAMILTON's Block (formerly Hatch's Block), the gore, corner of Woolwich and Norfolk streets, Guelph, Ont. JOHN H. HAMILTON, Proprietor, Wholesale and retail dealer and direct importer and manufacturer of all kinds of Granite and Marble Monuments, Tombstones, etc. Having had an extensive experience for the last 16 years. the public may rely on getting all superior articles at a cheaper rate than any other dealer N. H.-15 per cent. off on a direct order re-

THE GDELL

Type Writer

WILL buy the ODELL TYPE-, it combines simplicity with DURABILITY. SPEED, PASK OF OPERATION, WEATS longer with out, cost of repairs then any other machine star, austrastial, nickel-plated, perfect, and adapted to all kinds of type-writing. Idke a printing press, it produces altarp, clean, legible manuscripts. Two or ten copies can be made at one writing. Any intelligent person can become an operator in two days. We offer $1,000 to any operator who can equal the work of the ODELL. 5 Feet Chroice Pole, Boxes Fittings; 25c.

Befiehle Apents and Schemen wanted. Special potceme . 'o Dealers. Par pump. . girlag Indorcements, etc.,

ODELL TYPE WRITER CO., Boom M. Canada Life Building . Terocto J. W. Rutherford, Mgr. for Dominion.

Every week we are getting NEW EFFECTS IN INGRAIN WALL PAPERS. with BORDERS and CEILINGS to MATCH. These papers are used by the best families. They are as cheap 15 CTS: A ROLL - and much handsomer. When you are in GUELPH call at DAY'S BOOK-STORE and see how nice and cheap they are.

Bank of Montreal $12,000,000

DAY SELLS CHEAP

- - 6,000,000 A SAVINGS DEPARTMENT Has been opened in connection with this Interest Allowed at Current Rates.

JAS. H. FINLAY.

Manager GUELPH BRANCH.

Rape Seed!

FARMERS look out and get the right seed this year. I imported my Rape Seed in the winter and had it tested by Prof. Shaw, at the Intario Agricultural College in their greenhouse You can therefore rely on getting the genuine true Dwarf Essex Rape Seed from me. Price 10c. per 1b. or 11 fbs. for $1.00. MANGLES, 20c Ib.

CARROTS, 40 & 50c. Ib. SWEDE TURNIPS, 18c. 1b. SEED CORN, Yellow Horse Tooth 70c Mam. Southern White RED COB. COMPTONS EARLY THOROBRED, FLINT LEAMING, etc.

BUNGARIAN, MILLET, TARES BUCKWHEAT, etc. CEO. J. THORP Direct Beed Importer.

Masonie Block, GUELPH

A Business

Education

Is a Source of Wealth.

Every young person will find a thorough business training the gratest aid in getting a good start in business life. This age calls for active, intelligent, well-trained help in all heir services valuable have no difficulty in securing desirable positions, where advance-ment is assured. The demand for capable, reliable assistants is constantly increasing A practical business education not only fits one for a successful start, but with energy, persoverance and hard work leads to pros-perity and wealth. This is within the reach Guelph Business College, Located at Nos. 101 and 103 Wyndham street, Guelph, Ont. Call or write for particulars.

M. MacCORMICK, Principal.

Office, adjoining J. A. Mowate, Macdonnell -W. BARBER & BROS. PAPER MAKERS, GEORGETOWN, ONT.

MAKE A SPECIALTY OF Machine Finished Book Papers

HIGH GRADE WEEKLY NEWS.

The paper used in this journal is from

WM. BARBER & BROS

- - SEASON---1893 - -

WHILE returning thanks to our many pat
Y rons for their liberal support in the past we wish to inform you that we have entered into an arrangement with R. Stewart, Guelph, to keep constantly on hand a full stock; of the ordinary sizes of Sash, Doors, Etc. and will also supply any special sizes on shor notice at Guelpi prices, Frames of All Kinds made to order. We also keep in stock a line of Base, Window and Door Casing. Corner Blocks, Your Lumber Dressed While You Wait Price -$1 50 per 11.

PUMPS Being better able than heretofore we wil supply either wood or froh pumps promptly All work guaranteed satisfactory.

We have opponents but po rivals in the Furniture business. We outed them all, and everybody knows it. Give us a call, and see for yourselves: if it is not true donot buy from us Picase call and inspect before purchasing THOS. EBBAGE. Hanager

Acton

-ACTON-LIVERY

BUS LINE.

The undersigned respectfully solicits the patron \ age of the public, and informs them that Well Equipped and Stylish Rigs can always be Secured

t bis stables. A comfortable bus meet al trains between 9 a.m. and 8:18 p.m.

The wants of Commercial Travel-lers fully met. JOHN WILLIAMS.

STEEL ENGRAVINGS.

Proof Etchings, Colored Pictores, Room and

FRAMES

ARTISTS' MATERIALS. Double Tubes, Rowney's, 10c. 8 x 10 Deep Photo Frames, complete 20c.

Our Wall papers Are said to be the best selected to the city C. WATERS BROS.,

MUSIC STORE, ESTABLISHED BT. GEORGE'S SQUARE, . GUELPH

Doetry.

The Traders' Bank Statement taken from Government Re-

6,T14,089

OF CANADA.

tura, Hovember 80th, 1892.

ASSETS.

Deposited with Government to Secure

Call Loans on Stocks and Bonds ......... Balances Due from other Banks ........

AMERI INWEDIATELY AVAILABLE ....

Binder

Twine

Than Ever.

"Red Cap,"

"Blue Ribbon,"

"Silver Composite,"

Can quote now.

BOND & CO

Hardware, CUELPH

SHOES

CORRECTLY GIVEN by ANY ONE the first prize was not awarded. We wish to comment on Guelph's Leading Shoe Store.

MILLIONS

Put money in thy purse;
If not, alss!
He who steals thy purse Steals trash.

FURNITURE.

A good Bedroom Suite at $10

And the best in the world

IN IT

are offering on all our

A better one for

A good sideboard for

A daisy with mirror

A better one with mirror

Children's Rockers from

Ladies' Rocking Chairs from

Extension Tables, full size, from 5 00

OUR BABY CARRIAGES

Are the finest ever seen in the city. Just see see them. We handle the Celebrated High

Newcombe Planos

BOY'S AND MEN'S

BICYCLES *

Upper Wyndham St.

KELLY'S

Music Store

Wyndham St.

of Musical Instruments

Baaks.

1 00

A daisy

A beauty

A dandy

WM. McLAREN & CO

Turned, Cork Soles.

Lower

Total Assets.

Prices

Fair are the children But subtle suggestion is fairer ; tere is the rose-burst of dawn, But the secret that clasps it is rarer; weet the exhaltance of song. But the strain that preceds it is sweeter And never was posm yet writ, But the meaning outmastered the

Never a daler that growt, But a mystery guideth the growing; Sever & river that flows. But a majesty sceptres the flowing; Never a Shakespeare that soured, But a stronger than he did unfold him Never & prophet foretells, But a mightler seer hath fortold him Back of the cause that throbe The painter is bluted and bidden; Into the statute that breather. The soul of the scriptor is bidden ; Under the joy that is felt Lie the infinite in use of feelings

Great are the symbols of being, But that which is symbolisd is greater Vest the create and beheld, But vester the inverd creator; Back of the sound broods the silence, Back of the gift stands the giving ; Back of the hand that receives, Thride the sensitive nerves of receiv

Crowning the glory revealed.

Space is nothing to spirit, The deed is outdone by the doing! The beart of the wooer is warm, 'But warmer the heart of the woolng. But up from the pits where these shiver, And up from the heights where those Twin voices and shadows swim starward And the essence of life is divine.

-Richard Reff.

Select Family Reading.

The Great Australian Heiress. T ANNA SHIELDS

Great as she was, considered as heiress to a millionaire in Australia, she was the Ladies' Fine American Shoes, everia full-grown woman was. Exquisitely at some future time." Fiexible and Dainty, Hand proportioned, every curve of her dainty figure rounded to perfection, a wealth of his heart, as well as if he had spoken it Every Lady Enjoys Stylish, Dur- the tiniest, loveliest little woman that his love, won more entirely his respect for able and Perfect Fitting Shoes This you can have by letting us fit you with a pair of our Shoes which are made in all the different widths. for (wenty years Godfrey Leeman had been speak. He had been six months in Sunny piling up wealth in Australia, while Sadio Oxfords for Ledies' Gents' and Children's passed from infancy to childhood, from wear. We carry the Largest Stock in the city, and of the very best quality. Our Specialties are:-Hand Sewed, Hand Welts, Goodyear Welts girlfood to womanhood. Her mother's death had made an exile of her father, but If you are looking for stylish footwear of the best quality at low prices try W. McLaren & Co. her aunt, Mrs. Cresswell, took her into her nest full of girls and boys, and she was The answers to our climax puzzles have been examined. Miss Tens G. Head, Guelph, is the successful competitor for the second prize, $2.50 and any pair of Shoes in our store valued at $2.50. As the WHOLE SOLUTION was not always one of them in every respect. It was fully ten years after Godfrey Lee nad left Sunnydale and his infant child before he began to send home money, but when he did begin every mail from Austra-John Kome, Morriston, Lottle E. Webb, Ospringo, M. H. Stewart, Clyde, Lizzie D. Snow, Erin, and And. McAlister, Hespler. is brought a draft, and with it a letter, begging of Mrs. Cresswell to spend every

"You have taken care of my little girl for tel cars," the father wrote, "and this is for your wed use. Give Sedie her share with your own children, if you will, but do not care for her. Showill nave more than she can spend." And Mrs. Cresswell, whose husband had neter been able to make both ends meet, found herself able to make them lap over, and plenty to spare. The mortgage vanished from the house, new furniture re placed old, fresh carpets were seen where shabby ones had been, pretty toilets for the gitls, college education for the boys. For ten years there was plenty in the house of Cresswell, where Sadiereigned queen. She | pat?" was older than some of the Cresswells. So said William Shakespeare, and all we have to add is that a loan purse takes a new lesse of life when it comes in contact with the prices we dunger than others, but petted, careesed | hill ?"

iblized, by all of them. We won't quote to you any big 25 per cent. dis-count, but just ask you tolook over the following equal good temper. Not even after society claimed her could store, or introduce one element of selfish- orous old age: ess into the gentle, loving heart. She as an embodied sunbeam, always ready getting out wine and biscuit, and drawing laugh, to frolio, to join in pleasure. She a comfortable chair to the fire. as the soul of sympathy, tenderly helpful rom Australia with a letter to Mrs. Cress-

our after meeting Sadie. ettling down to the practice of his profes- | you?" cion ; and in his travels in the favored island he had met Godfrey Leeman, and teard of the colossal fortune that gentlehan had made in twenty years of fortunate investments. There was no doubt in myrelf where your money lies." unnydale of the stability of Godfrey Lee-man's wealth ; but, after all, it was somehing to have it confirmed by one who had been on the spot and seen the proof. "Why hasn't he sent nome a fortune to Will be in a little later. Wait for us; we are going to put new life in this town and its good nvest for his daughter ?" Edward Underill said, repeating Mr. Cresswell's quesion. "Because the investments are better where he is. Money doubles under his

P. SPRAGGE ouch, and there seems to be no limit to his hill suggested going first to see Sadie. The People's Popular Faralture Store ack, or judgement, whichever it is that aides him." Quelph. We pay freight on all bills amounting to $15.

"And he wants you to take our little little girl I am not so old but I can make Sadie from us." said Mrs. Cresswell. "Ho | money for her agein." hinks well of you."

matter of youth and strength. He was father's return and misfortunes. tetting rather the worst of a struggle with wo bush-rangers when I came along," "But you were shot." "A mere flesh wound, that has never

Removed to 95 Upper ing of any claim apon Miss Leeman, and | choke me." Where I will be pleased to meet all my old had resolved never to marry a great heiress, even to oblige her father, until. I saw her. Having disposed of nearly all my stock during An hour beside her scattered all my fine them all." resolutions. Who could see her and not Planos, Organs and all kinds Edward Underhill's love. Her quick not imagined for years. Sadie first, the Sheet Music, and Music gratitude was won before she saw him by | tiny fairy-like little girl who neatled her Call and examine my stock. No trouble t . Kellv's and was inclined to resent any attention paid to her which Kate and Fannie Cresswell did not receive.

VOICES AND SHADOWS.

am, and twice as attractive in every way | business that is always subject to your it is just pape's money !" she would say, orders. And you have started Tom and indignantly, if she thought them slighted. | Bob and educated the whole of them, an only the ordinary courtesies, and sought to | our fratitude." win her favor, the quite forgot her ludiguation, and without giving utterance to her ware Underhill's home "papa's room" ppinion, thought:

"He must like me best. He talked to me would not promise to join the riding party of his generosity, and the first moan has until he was sure I was going. I think Katie likes Joe Hunt, and Fennie always blushes when Will Thorne speaks to her so they can space me Mr. Underhill. He is ever so much handsomer than, the boys. And it would so please pape if he likes me." Something, and it might have been his perfect sincerity, gave her the conviction that her fortune had no weight with him. She knew absolutely nothing of his income and she had never known what her own was to be. Every wish of her heart had been gratified for ten years, and yet she is the glory that drowns the revealing kept the memory of the days when they were all poorly fed, half clothed, and life was a daily struggle against poverty. She had fared as well as the rest, but she had > of Kate's or Fannie's luto a new one for herself, and begged favors of irate butchers sud bakers. Then came prosperity, but in the way I have described. Money to spend, large sums of money, but no settled income, no slept in a fireless room, held butter to be a luxury for holidays, turned an old dress certainty of the future. She spoke of it noe to Edward Underhill. "They call me & great heires"," she said but I have nothing of my own-nothing." "Your father's fortune will be yours." "How can I be sure of that? He has not seen me since I was an infant. He may oot love me when he meets me. He may "Not likely. Does he ever talk of coming "Never ! - Yet his letters to me are full of loving interest. And he never proposes that I shell go to him."

"No. He would scarcely want you to live in the wild part of the country where narmwest escape from being a dwarf that he does. Yet, perhaps, you may visit him

And she knew he added "with me" an golden carls crowning a sweet face, she was Every hour he spent with her strengthened ever charmed a man's heart away .. But the tiny lady, who spent her life in such she was Godfrey Leeman's daughter, and loving service for others. Yet he did not dale, and every man and woman in the village had made their comment upon his devotion to Sadie Leeman, and yet he had never asked her to return his love, although > his every action proclaimed it. It was midwinter, and he had been at a tableaux party at Mrs. Cresswell's. A huge check from Austraulia, for Sadie's Christmas box, had suggested a party, and the young people united in arranging tableaux. Sadie hed been Titania, Goody Two Shoes, Cinderella's god-mother, and other dainty tiny characters, and Edward Churchill could not fail to see how much more her heart was set upon adorning her cousins than herself. They had ended with a dance after a final tableau from Midsummer Night's Dream, and 'Edward Underhill was carrying home the memory of the bewitching Titania, who had just said "good-night," when his visions were scattered by a voice close beside him.

"Friend, am I on the right road to John Cresswell's ?" "Godfrey Leeman!" he cried, standing still to confront a figure dimly visible.

"Who are you that have my name so

"Have you forgotten Edward Under-"Not while I hold the life he saved. Can

Yet they could not spoil her. She was | you take me with you? Can you let me allyays ready to answer every call. She speak with you before I see my little girl ?" would hapt out words in the dictionary for | The man's voice was broken with emom in the intervals of making a kite for | tion, and the hand that grasped Edward's | facus of men of low organization or course Bob; set up Kate's knitting when she | quivered as with an ague fit. Very gently | habits. shed Aunt Carrie's cap; fill Uncle Edward Underhill led him to his own room John's pipe, and sing ballads for him, or in a large boarding-house, full through the play dancing music half an evening, with summer months, but where he well knew there was room and to spare. In the light he was struck by the woeful e adulation and fiattery harden the sweet | change in the man he had last seen in vig-"You have been ill, very ill," he sai

"Shipwrecked, my friend; shipwrecked. a suffering, generous to a fault, essentially | Starved and frozen in an open boat till we were picked up by a Boston-bound steamer And Edward Underhill, coming home ten days ago. And it's all gone! All the money I've toiled for for twenty years, all ell, full of enthusiasm and self-sacrifice, my little girl's money, is at the bottom of and resolute in his determination never to the ocean. I don't own anything but the o won by money, surrendered in half an clothes on my back. They told me I was a fool to sell everything, and trust it all on

> "That's all right, then. That's all right." her, I shall feel very much like flinging

"Eh? You love her so much?" "I love her with all my heart." "Why, then-there, I'm upset trouble; don't mind my crying like a woman-don't-why-let the money go, then -my little girl !" And then he broke down and sobbed like a child."

"You'll-you'll break the ice for me," he pleaded, the next day, when Edward Under-"I'll make it as easy as I can for you." "Thanks! I can go back. Tell my

But Edward Underhill quite forgot to "But better than I deserve," said the mention that fact, when, after Sadio had young man, carnestly. "It was a mere promised to be his wife, he told her of her "Oh," she gasped; "and were you waiting for that to speak to me?" "I don't know, darling. I can only tel you that every time I tried to tell fou how troubled me. Believe me, I thought noth- I love you, that ghastly money seemed to

"I am glad it is gone, then. But please, please bring papa now. I'll go and tell Ley class, who were ready to give a 'bail And when Godfrey Leeman, trembling, and fearing cold looks or angry reproaches, Sadie, who had most quietly set aside | came into the Cresswell parlor, he found every wooer, never doubted the truth of such loving welcome as his lonely life had her father's letter describing the fearful fair curls opon his shoulder, and put her odds against which he had saved Godfrey | wee hands into his rough ones; and Mrs. | When others want you to go into bad Leeman's life. With a heart singularly Cresswell bustling about to make him com-pure and free from guile, she still knew fortable, telling him he was never to leave ourses to say, "No; I don't dare." Wait, that there was attraction in a full purse, them again, and making the spare room at the other boy did, you'll get the right Uncle Godfrey's room forever ; and Mr. kind of companions in due time. c. H. s.

Cresswell heartily welcoming him. "You've made us all," he said. "There

"They are a hundred-times prettier than is apple of your money favested in my THE OLD LION KEPT COOL. The band of the British Grenadier

But when Edward Underhill paid to them | a liftime will not be long enough to show There was a grand wedding, and in E. lives ready when Uncle Godfrey's is vacated for a time. In a peaceful, happy when Kate was sloging her best, and he old the Godfrey Leeman reaps the reward ret be besed that Sadie is no longer the great Australian heiress. the band of the Garde Republicaine, the THE CHARACTER IN THE FACE. Germans that of the Kalser Prans Greuadiers, while the British Secretary of War dry eye means a hard heart. Mr. Gard, said to Mr. Gilmore : I suppose boating upper lip judicates timidity. fasignificant nose means an lasignifithe Americans would like to see & band of open mouth is a sure sign of ree hair always indicates course

y full cheeks indicate great digestive projecting ander lip shows maliguity | Nothing like it had ever been heard on this ouble chiu is invariably a right of Pented noses generally belong to meddle- and the performances were classed as e eyes belong to people ob an enthustarn of mind. rge eyes in a small face always betoken cioueness.

retreating chin is siways bad; it s lack of resolution. the forehead be shorter than the uose, the lign is of stapidity. crack was heard as if the whole mass were Alateely blue eye is often the sign of serfiless disposition. about to collapse.

Fine hair generally betokens native good att and intelligence. fort, thick, carly hair is au ladication scene of wild confusion presented itself. great natural strength. ry tightly closed lips are usually found deretire characters. Iffegular teeth generally ludicate lack of dere and refinement. Freckles, like red hair, are an indication of an ardent temperament. Altong forehead Indicates intelligence; se upper lip, when projecting, shows arregance and want of shame. dimple in the chin is pretty, but indicates weak mental organization. The ridge of the perfect nose should be proceeded from the British band!

t forebead activity.

road and almost straight. Acarling lip betokens a supercilious and hadkhty temperament. This chief characteristics of a broad face arelindexibility and obstitucy.

ray eyes are generally found associated prudence and foreeight. thick neck generally accompanies a organization and coarse tastes. ojecting, rolling eyes belong to people tute of genuine veneration. arts on the chin or neck indicate inrious, active, sanguine persons.

thundering encore was demanded.

thing unprecedented. For over minety days, with the exception of a few light passing showers, no rain of any consider-latter being cheured to the echo.

mained in Boston.

our surplus of hay.

wild birds. . :

CENBUS RETURNS.

According to the census there are 1;588, where there are 244,792 husbands and 244,- 639 wires. In all Canada there are 120,015 widows and 64,777 widowers. In Ontario the number of widows is 60,269, and in widows in Toronto is 5,235.

Any marked peculiarity of occurrenance cates some peculiarity of mind. Thick, heavy, regularly arched eyebrows longs indicate sound judgment. The Roman nose shows the greater charr; the Greek nose the greater taste. Half-shut eyes show great natural thwduces, together with a lack of sin-head flat on the top indicates lack of reference and deficiency of moral quali irregular, knotty forehead is a suce eles of a bold, original, and investigating very short upper lip indicates liveliter of disposition, though not siways with the exception of wheat all cereals are Eyes with long corners and thick lids yield is not expected, but the quality will the cover half the papil are always indi- probably be good. The outlook at the Pelicate features are never found in the fruit crop. The London Times, discussing TEMPERANCE. novel festure of temperance work has an adopted at the village of Eyota, Minn. village recently voted no license. of the difficulties was that the funde for lighting the streets were derived from license fees and it was feared that when use was sholished the streets would be darkdess. The Women's Christian imperance union obtained charge of the bet lamps, raised money for oil by subdiption, and allotted a lamp to each girl.

ose pleasure it will be to keep it trimmed I barning .- Christian Herald. The use of intoxicating liquor as a bevernot daly ruins a man mentally, and use up his money, but maker him much He was a rising lawyer, with a moderate one vessel. But I wanted to take it all to more liable to disease where there is an fortune, and had gone to Australia in a sort | my little girl myself. And now I have endemic. It is said that "the great fever tour around the world he took before nothing. You-you didn't marry her, did which swept through Loudon a liundred ters ago was fatal only to drunkards, and at during the yellow fever which was in Www Orleans about twenty-five years ago "But if she won't marry me when I ask | him thousand drinking men had it before i touched those who used nothing that will coricale. The same story may be told a pat cholers. Ten thousand deaths from lolers in the British Isles, and not a ha Hezen total abstainers in the number." The only safe way is to resolve never to dank wine, beer, whiskey, or any such ing, and keep the vow. It is evil, only al, and that continually, when used as a beverage, "and whosoever is deceived there-

BOYS, DON'T HURRY.

Lucy Scott, in her little book, Boys, and her Boys, says, "A bog of fifteen once me to a school where he was an entire ranger. Noticing he was slow in making aguaintances, I asked him why he was t more social. He replied, with a smile, shall be, as soon as the right boys show emselves more friendly.' And so he aited several weeks, coming in and going at in his own quiet, modest way, until the bet stadents, who had held aloof at first, elcomed him as one of themselves. Had s grown weary in his solitary walks, and poograged the mischiel loving, free-andflow, to anybody and everybody, he need of have waited three days for comrades." Boys don't be in a hurry. Wait ! Dou't ake the first cigar or cigarette, or the poial glass to please any other boy. Wait appose they say you are "tied to your nother's aprou strings," this anchorage has aved to the world some of its best men

Minard's Liniment Cures Burns &c.

PRICE THREE CENTS

RUNNING A NEWSPAPER. lim Jones' be was an editor; that is, he tried to Guarde is one of the finest musical corp-He bought himself a hand press, an' be starte to the world. The following thrilling incident told of this band, illustrates the what there was to editio, but-shee bod value of good discipline-especially when he founds hore to know; so an' so an' so! to bein you out, ... An' give the good old Mothodista's big salvallon give solat to the event. The French sent

Gire every man a motice ; be sure sub put Thenever Major Jinks is seen to personb tin a few free locals for all the stores, and the traditional red-costs; therefore I will Each man a free u becription, if you want your send the band of the Grenadier Guards." sheet to live!" Pilty-eight men were tent, or about one half the band, and no one who heard them fear they'd make a row: at the time will ever forget the imprestion But the more he tried to Hease em all, the they made when they appeared in full unimore they told him how! form (soarlet; blue and gold.) with their ntil at last he took his book an' laid it on th great leader, i'Dan' Godfrey, and the barst of enthusiasm which greeted their playing. Then run the paper in the ground an' lower side of the Affantic. The Jubilee was held "SITTING UPON" A DEBTOR. in a large wooden structure, called the Cul-The Persian creditor having lonce deiseam, espable of holding 100,000 people, termined to get his money, calls for it early national days. There was a large organ, in the morning, and cannot be pursuaded blown by steam, soloists from all leading to go away until it is paid. He brings his carpets with him and sits down in his debtconntries, and chorns of 20,000 voices, etc. or's bedroom, eating, drinking, sleeping The American day arrived-the Presiand smoking there till he is bought off. dent and Cabinet were there the building Some years ago, a Persian had, or fancied was packed-when suddenly came a thunthat he had, a claim on the English derstorm in the middle of the programme, Foreign Office; so one day he travelled and during a fleroe gust of wind the great away from Teberan, and after many strange structure was felt to sway, and then a load adventures arrived in London, bringing his carpet with him, and fully prepared to sit That was enough! A panic cusued. upon the Foreign Office, which he supposed to be a person, till he was satisfied. Lord Those nearest the doors boited, while a Palmerston was secretary of State for Foreign Affairs at that time, and took the In valu the bravest and coolest shouted thing good-humoredly; but Mr. Hammond and implored the audience to be calm; a the Under-Secretary of State, a sharpgeneral stampeds which would have changed the Coliseum into a Golgotha was tempered gentleman, was for calling a about to be made, when the grand straids of the "Star Spangled Banner" was beard swelling above the dir. The timid halted the fear-stricken listened, and as the martial straigs rose grander and grander, they became ressured and resumed their scale; and then it became known that the mucic which had so opportunely quelled their fears and revived their drooping courage No peu can describe the effect of this announcement. Cheer upon cheer rang out from the 100,000 throats for the Grensdier band, which stood calmly in double circle, leader in centre, as it had stood in the vortex of the demented throng & few moments previously, sending forth its rich. est notes as it on parade. Hats, handkerchiefe parasols and walking sticks were waved and flong high in the air in the excess of their admiration, and, of course, a Godfrey then gave them "Nearer, My God to Thee," and "God Sece the Queen," the dervish set up a horrid hullabalou, and After that, every member of the Grenzdier Band was a lion as long as they re-CROPS IN GREAT BRITAIN.

able amount has fallen over the greater part of the country,' and in consequence the country, especially where the soil is light sand or heavy clay, is suffering in bricklayer, "and then roof it in." consequence. Pastores are dried up, and backward. With regard to wheat a heavy shut him up in a tomb alive, he jumped present time seems promising for a good over the lowest part of the wall and rushed t the crop prospects, refers to the enquiry conducted some twenty years ago by Sir J. best of a dervish. B. Lawer and Dr. Gilbert into the subject of the rainfall as it affects the crops ALHINT TO YOUNG CLERKS. The result was to show that Great Britain rarely suffered any serious injury from de-Scient rainfall, while great damage wa generally done by an excessive one. To grow a crop of wheat, oats or har-to take epresentative growths-requires about 700 tons of water per acre, whereas the average sinfall in the old country is one of 2,500 quickly removed and nothing was allowed tous per acre, an inch of rainfall being equal to about 100 tons of water per acre. The hay crop in Great Britain is certain to be short this year, as a result of the but instead of throwing it down when he drouth; and it is probable that there will came iu. It seemed a small matter, yet be a good market in that country for all he falt it had done much for him in belping THE COLOR AND QUALITY OF planted, and then stir the soil properly, Food has a great influence on the quality | and it will grow and multiply. It is surof eggs. Corn has the effect when fed ! prising to see how one grain of good wheat liberally of causing the hene to produce will, under favorable circumstances, ineggs with rich looking, dark yellow yolks, crease. A farmer at the West, who had while wheat fed lustead of corn will yield | plenty of rich prairie soil, tried the expereggs of a pale yellow. The public imagine. ment, and at the end of the third year rethe dark yellow yolk eggs are the richest. ported seventeen bushels as the proceeds They are not; the pale yolk egg, made so of the one geam: Akin to this is the from a good, sound wheat diet, is the rich- growth of good or evil habits in our characest, says the Baltimore Sun, authority for | ters. Each is likely to bring with it a bar-advancement seldom seek such quartere! When one is really satisfied that here quality more cultivated than is generally The consus does not account for them. upposed: Indeed, reformed people, I have Nearly every hasband in Ontario has a poticed, are ast to carry the matter to an wife in the country, the figures being $53 .. extreme, budit was much more to their ad-060 husbands and 852,798 wives. The devantage then the opposite. Still, the crepancy is still smaller in Quebec province, bands not accounted for. The number of of successes unsqualled by carlier is is being enced the better, and the affaire of file, the greater will' be th more thoroughly it is extended to all the cantesed round. Some afteen hundred editors in that same town such discipline is coupled with quick wit: At the time of the Peace Jabilee, held in They all knew more about it than Jones could Boston, Mass., in 1879, Mr. P. S. Gilmore, a noted impresentio, (now dead), succeeded They told him : "You mus: run her. Jenes) jes in inducing the governments in Great Britain, France and Germany to send over sure an boom the Bantist's, they'is boundone each of their great military, baude to

The practice of "sitting upon a man," as is called, universally prevails in Pereia, and it is not easy to deat with it. Still, it may be dealt with, and Sir John McNeil s shrewd old Scotch diplomatist, who was once secredited to the Persian court, coutrived to get rid of a dervish by a rather clever device. At the New Year, which is kept as a festival in Persia, religious meudicente go about, not so much asking for alms as insisting opon a fixed sum. They generally tax a foreign ambasador highly, and one of them, a dervish, demanded an extraverant sum from Sir John McNeill. The Scotch diplomatist offered to compromise with bim for any reasonable amount, but his offer was refused, and as he would not give more the dervish proceeded to sit upon bim. He established minsell in Sir. John's garden, just before bis study windows, and every now and then during the". dky, and when he awoke at night, this blew a cracked trampet. Sir John, who did not like to have his rest distarbed in this way, determined to put a stop to the derrich's tricks, and eject him by force; but he was solemnly warned by the Persian authorities that it would be dangerous The weather in Great Briteia is come to lay hauds apon bim. "Get rid of him it you can," said they, laughing, "but do cot touch him." "Yery well," said Sir John, dryly, and.

be cent for a bricklayer. "Boild me a wall round this howling" beggar in my garden," said Sir John to the The dervish looked ou composedly while the wall rose slowly around him, and made more noise than ever; but when he perceived that they really meant to shut away like a maniac. Sir John was probably the only European who ever got the Said an old man of eighty, whose career had been one of marked success: "It is a .. great thing for a boy to have a unil to hang his hat ou." He had possessed such s nail in his mother's old kitchen, and all the family were taught to respect it. If the broom was hung on Heury's pail it was to interfere with the little orderly habit he had been so early taught, of hanging up his to make him an orderly, careful, systema-Once get the seed of a good habit well

Green food in the spring produces the Looking through a boy's personal posdark yellow yolk. While food has sessions would tell more about his characconsiderable influence on the rolk teristics than any letter of recommendation. As this is a way of determining you churaof the egg is has little or none whatacter, always open to yourself, it is well ever on the color of the shell. There sometimes to take a survey with a view of are certain breeds that never lay any other becoming better acquainted with one's than white shelled eggs, and others that self. Throwing things around, and stiralso invariably lay brown shelled ones. ing up things in a trunk or drawer to find An egg from a leghorn that was not white, missing articles do not point toward a and pure white at that, would never be set successful business career. Thrift and by a poultry fancier. A white egg from any of the Asiatic breeds would be a carionity. The distinctive shape and color of is his weak point, it is good to make a bethe eggs of domestic poultry are as marked ginning towards a reformation. A pail to and established a feature as is the case with hang his hat on is something. A shelf of books set in orderly acray is eucouraging every fime one looks that way, and once get the business fairly started it will be far easier to keep things in order than not. 055 married persons in Canada, of which Very disorderly people have turned square-791,902 are females and 796,163 mules, so ground and becoma just thereverse. It is that there are over 4000 wives missing.

Quebec 36,362, or one in about every 40 of out such habits of order said preq Quebec's population, and one in about every 85 of Outario's. Toronto returned 25,856 married men, and 23,933 married Hood's Saresparilla positi women. In this case there were 77 bps- | eyen when all others fail.

icine.