NOTES AND COMMENTS.
100,000 Canada's trade with Great Britain.

England is successful in preventing a cholera visitation as also in keeping the alleged plagues from her shores.

Last year Canada had 4,812 dead, 2,500 males and 2,312 females. In every 10,000 males there was 10.5 dead and in every 10,000 females, 9.4.

A case of considerable interest was before the court the other day in Guelph: David Martin was fined several months ago $20 for not having the license of his automobile.

A German military protocol, in the form of a column, is the latest strength of Europe. The tallest column is that of France and Russia combined.

About six weeks ago Sir Edward Birkbeck, a member of the Royal Commission on electric communication between light-houses and the coast, returned from his tour in Great Britain and Ireland.

The Orangeville Journal, the newly established organ of the McFarley party, makes the following timely observation in its inaugural editorial.

Archaeological research in Old Greece continues with the passion and duration worthy of the most famous excavations.

Canadianism, enlightened and true, shrouded in every column of the Sunday school papers which the Methodist Church of Canada distributed from end to end of the Dominion during the weeks preceding the anniversary of Confederation.

The growing uncertainty and embarrassment to many owners in this country caused a change when some from London that its council had decided to close the municipal free silver mine.

THE ROYAL WEDDING.
The Duke of York and Princess Victoria Mary.

London, July 22. The marriage of the Duke of York and Princess Victoria Mary of Teck, an event to which all England has been looking forward with great interest, took place at half past twelve o'clock to-day in the Chapel Royal, St. James's Palace.

The wedding was a brilliant function, and was attended by the guests of the millions of the British Royal family, gentlemen and their representatives, and many members of the highest nobility.

The Archbishop of Canterbury, assisted by the other clergy, presided at the ceremony which began at nine o'clock.

The Duke and Duchess of Teck gave their daughter a suite of jewels, comprising three necklaces and a brooch of turquoise and diamonds.

The young couple will begin life in a small cottage at Sandringham. As at the moment an ideal home for a newly married couple, Royal or otherwise, for the surroundings are delightfully picturesque.

Canada Takes First Position.
A private letter to the Herald from Ottawa says that 130 Canadian exhibitors in the dairy exhibit for June, Canada carries off 170, while in the fruit department this country won 56 awards out of 115.

THE G.W. CONVENTION.
The Big Gathering of Men and Women.

Monday, July 21. The great Christian Endeavor convention of 1903 came to its close Sunday night. It resulted from a partial and a full attendance of the delegates.

At the period of resolutions adopted the following were proposed: Resolved, that we endorse our adherence to the principles which we believe, under God's blessing, have made the Christian Endeavor movement what it is today.

The closing session of the convention attracted the largest audience of the week. Every seat in the immense hall was taken.

At the bank audience passed in the singing of the hymn the effect was most impressive. President Clark occupied the chair, and was supported on the platform by the trustees of the society and leading city pastors.
