ADVERTISING. Cheerful and Pleasant.
Advertising is an ancient and honorable institution, well nigh universal; and can there be few men people imagine, "Great is thy name, O Lord, and glorious is thy power," who do not feel that it is a privilege to be associated with it? And so it is. After refreshments had been served the company went across to the church, which was well filled. The programme included selections by the choir, addressed by Rev. Mr. Parker, pastor of the church; Mr. E. Cain, Sup't of the school; and the social was held, and never before has the church been more crowded. At 8 P.M. J. Edge preached the sermon. In view of the busy hour the service was considered very successful.

LITTLE LOCAL BRIEFLISTS

Which Caught the Eyes or Ear of Free Press Reporters this Week.

Eighth month, August.

Tuesday was emancipation day.

— Give Holiday a week from tomorrow.

Trim your thistles now under the roots.

The oat and pea harvest has commenced.

The dry weather has been bad for the young maple.

The fall exhibition season will have arrived in another month.

BALTIMORE. Near Fairview Cemetery, a black parade. May be held at this office.

The date of the opening of the season for shooting woodcock has been changed from Aug. 15 to Sept. 15.

The Free Press to the end of the year for 10 cents. Send it to your friends, they will appreciate the favor very much.

— Donald McDonald is arranging to sell his house in Main Street, opposite Beardmore's C. & C. tannery, with terms,otta brick.

The trustees have had all the black bags in the new school re-sealed, an improvement which will be most satisfactory to the teachers.

Mr. G. Bond has returned from the World's Fair. He says it is a better show than ever known how to get up Guild Hall.

The harvest of 1893 will be remembered as one of the shortest on record. The hay was not off the ground before wheat fields were ready for the binder.

Fred Smith now sports a splendid new pneumatic wheel. It is quite a ride and will give some of the older cycles more fun than they can manage shorty!

Lost. On Tuesday, July 16, between the fifth and sixth Massays, and Acton, a dark coat. Finder will receive a reward of by leaving at St. Catharines Bazaar.

A small piano for the scholars of the Presbyterian and Methodist Sunday Schools is being arranged for the last week in August. It will be an occasion of rare enjoyment.

A hay press was operating in this vicinity a few days last week. Messrs. Robertson Bros. and David Williamson have shipped a car or two of hay which goes to the English market.

The first potatoes we have seen this season were from the garden of Rev. J. Edge. Judging from their magnificence size and quality one would imagine the Rev. gentleman was a thorough Frenchman.

Prof. Sulley, as we sometimes abbreviate his name, has arrived and our good old select entertainments have shortly. His famous marionette "The Transparent Human," will be shown with his many wonders.

In accordance with our recently adopted regulation, requiring all subscriptions to be paid in advance, this will be the last copy of the Free Press sent to a number of our subscribers, unless of course payment is made within the next few days.

A very superior sample of cultivated raspberries was left at the Free Press Office yesterday. They were from the private garden of Mr. F. Francis, the products of which have a reputation for excellence. The best and only place to purchase them is at the park.

There is too much whistling occurring in the hotel at this house Sunday Evening, in the shape of men, the women of whom may be seen on the streets almost any Sunday. There is trouble in store for the sellers who thus persist in defying the law.

On Saturday evening a football match will be played between teams from Guelph, Galt, and the local club. The Monday evening a foot race of 100 yards will be contested by George Agnew and Samuel Sparre, a couple of employees of the Can. and Galt Works, for a small wager. The event will take place at the park.

— An annual meeting of the Am. Anti-Saloon League will be held at the Free Press Office on Friday and occupied its pulpit at Albionton Sunday.

Mr. Robert Blackman, of Guelph, has conducted the services in the Thompson Church for several weeks and will continue to do so during his vacation.

Rev. Mr. Barnett, of Kyneton, preached in King Church on Sunday. His sermon was earnest and thoughtful expositing and was enjoyed by the congregation.

Rev. Mr. McIntyre, retired missionary of the Am. Anti-Saloon Board, Sam. H. Newell, M. D., of Guelph, in his church near Selsdon, preaching and teaching. An account of his work in New Mexico will be given at the morning service.

The annual service in Action Lodge, A. O. U. was preached in the Methodist Church last Friday evening by Rev. Mr. Edge. The local brethren, with visitors from Guelph, Rockwood and Georgetown, gathered from their hills to the hall, and was conducted by Rev. Mr. Edge.

— A young lad was severely bitten by a dog on Friday evening. John Jones went to Niagara Falls on Monday to have his wound dressed by Dr. Alexander Head, and the doctor said the wound was present. A large congregration assembled.

Rev. Mr. Edge preached a very able sermon, one of the best, during his pastoral here. His discourse was based upon 2 Timothy 3:13. — "Workman that needeth not to be ashamed." At the conclusion of the service the brethren returned to their lodges room when a resolution heartily thanking Rev. Mr. Edge for his sermon was unanimously passed.

The Free Press has passed its 10th anniversary. It stands representative of the better class of country newspapers.

Like the New Era it is all printed at home and also contains paper-made pages.

The Free Press has a circulation of 10,000 copies daily, and is well represented in all parts of the country.

We hope it may continue to do so, and there is no reason why it should not.

State Games in Quebec.

One of the other sellers in the programme did the honor of his presence, Mr. Peter

Molyneux, of Montréal, of the service of Mrs. Ellen Campbell, wife of the late Donald Campbell of the Scotch

Black, who predeceased her many years ago.

Mr. Campbell comes to the matches from Glengary, Scotland, his birthplace.

They were among the oldest, residents of that section of the County of Halton.

Since her husband's death, Mrs.

Campbell has been living among her friends.

Her remains were interred there three days ago.
